Welcome to Math 21!
The course website is math21.stanford.edu. All info/handouts/homework/etc. will be posted there (not on Canvas).

- If you have enrollment problems, there is more info and a webform to fill out on the course website.
- If are on a Stanford athletics team, there is a survey to complete on the course website.
- Please familiarize yourself with the course policies. These can be found on the course website.
- If you have an accommodation from the OAE, please inform Dr. Schaeffer (gschaeff@stanford.edu) ASAP.

The exam dates/times are:

- Midterm 1: Wednesday, October 17th, 7–8:30 PM, location TBA.
- Midterm 2: Wednesday, November 14th, 7–8:30 PM, location TBA.
- Final: Monday, December 10th, 7–10 PM, location TBA.

The official textbook for the course is Calculus by Hughes–Hallett, 6th or 7th edition.
The bookstore will only stock the 7th edition, but if you already have (or obtain) the 6th edition, that's fine!

Also on course website: the weekly discussion and office hours schedule*, review materials (limits and precalc), and instructions for how to deal with any administrative problems. (Administrative duties are split between Drs. Howe and Schaeffer.) * The schedule has not yet fully stabilized; no office hours will be held today or tomorrow.

Have a great first day! And go to discussion tomorrow!
