

Clinician Educator Zero Interest Program

Summary Description

The Clinician Educator Zero Interest Program (CE-ZIP) is a secured nonamortizing zero interest mortgage loan. A CE-ZIP loan is not part of the required cash down payment. CE-ZIP is to be used for a purchase, not to refinance existing mortgage loans.

Additions and changes made to Stanford's housing purchase programs are made in response to current market conditions. All programs will be reviewed each year.

Information regarding all of Stanford's housing programs is available at fsh.stanford.edu, or by email to fshousing@stanford.edu, or by calling 650-725-6893.

Note: Clinical Instructors, Affiliated Clinician Educators, Adjunct Clinician Educators, Clinician Educators who have courtesy appointments, and Clinician Educators who have temporary appointments while awaiting an appointment as a professor in the MCL line are not eligible for this program.

QUALIFYING RESIDENCE

A CE-ZIP loan may be used to purchase a single family home, condominium, town home, or any other for sale dwelling unit suitable for housing one family (the Qualifying Residence). Vacation homes, investment properties, commercial properties, properties zoned as commercial, multiple family dwellings (for example, duplexes and properties zoned for multiple units), Tenant in Common (TIC), and life care facilities are not Qualifying Residences. Personal property purchases such as mobile homes or houseboats are not Qualifying Residences.

The Eligible Clinician Educator must occupy the Qualifying Residence as his/her principal residence. The home purchase financed by the CE-ZIP loan (the Property) must be located within the Qualifying Area.

TITLE/OCCUPANCY

Beneficial ownership and title to the home may only be in the name of the Eligible Clinician Educator and his/her spouse or partner. No other persons can hold title to the home. The home must remain owner occupied by the Eligible Clinician Educator. Proof of such ownership and/or occupancy must be provided to the University upon request.

LOAN AMOUNT

The University will make a CE-ZIP loan for a purchase based on the lesser of the purchase price of the Property or its fair market value (FMV), subject to a maximum loan amount of $100,000. Stanford requires an appraisal of the Property by a licensed appraiser to establish its FMV. If the appraised value is less than the purchase price, the borrower must make up the difference by adding to the required down payment.

Several conditions can lower the amount an Eligible Clinician Educator can borrow:

1. If the total amount of the CE-DIP loan, the CE-RIP loan, and the required down payment when deducted from the purchase price equals less than $100,000; or
2. If a conventional loan is required, the amount of the conventional loan must equal at least $50,000; or
3. If the FMV is less than the purchase price.

LOAN TERM

The loan term for a CE-ZIP loan is approximately ten years. The actual term can vary.

The CE-ZIP loan is due on the earliest of the following dates: (i) approximately ten years after the loan date, (ii) when the Property is sold, (iii) when the Property ceases to be the Principal Residence of the Eligible Clinician Educator, (iv) when the borrower ceases to be an Eligible Clinician Educator as defined by the University, including, but not limited to retirement, voluntary or involuntary termination or death, (v) upon demand of the University or (vi) upon occurrence of other circumstances set forth in the Promissory Note (Note). The date on which the CE-ZIP loan is due is called the Due Date.

The surviving spouse or registered domestic partner of the Eligible Clinician Educator may not retain a CE-ZIP loan.

INTEREST PAYMENTS

CE-ZIP loans have no monthly payments.

FORGIVABLE FEATURE

A portion of the CE-ZIP loan principal may be forgiven over time under certain conditions as directed by the borrower's Dean, provided that the borrower is: (i) still employed by Stanford as an Eligible Clinician Educator, as defined by Stanford; (ii) overall job performance in each forgivable period is satisfactory, as confirmed in writing to Faculty Staff Housing; and (iii) the borrower is not in default on any term or condition of a Stanford University lease or loan.

The forgivable period is ten years for all CE-ZIP loans. There is no waiting period. Ten percent (10%) of the original principal of the CE-ZIP loan may be forgiven each year on the first business day of December. For CE-ZIP loans originated from January through June in any given year, the forgiveness will begin in December of the year that the loan is originated. For CE-ZIP loans originated from July through December in any given year, the forgiveness will begin in December of the year following the year that the loan is originated. Since all forgiveness is reported in December, the loan terms can vary up to six months.

The loan forgiveness will be reported as taxable income to the borrower each year on a W-2 form and is subject to standard withholding requirements. The forgiveness will be reported as income on the December 22nd paycheck and will only show in the gross year-to-date total earnings. Given this increase in taxable income, an adjustment to the amount of Federal and State income tax withheld on a W-4 form or the amount of quarterly estimated tax may be advisable. Borrowers must notify the Payroll Department of any change regarding withholding.

CONDITIONS OF THE LOAN

CE-ZIP is governed by the following conditions:

1. Minimum Down Payment

The standard down payment is 10% of the purchase price.

2. Loan Approval

We recommend that borrowers obtain preapproval for Stanford loan programs. Preapproval will expedite final loan approval once the purchase offer has been accepted. The University's loan approval process is similar to that of a residential mortgage lender. The preapproval process takes fifteen working days.

Faculty Staff Housing needs an up-to-date loan application, including the CE-DIP, CE-RIP (if applicable), and the conventional loan amount and terms immediately after a purchase offer has been accepted. It is also important to provide a copy of the fully executed purchase contract and the Preliminary Title Report. Other required documents such as an appraisal will be required. Loan approval, including satisfying Stanford's underwriting guidelines, is necessary before any Stanford loan can be funded. Documents can be sent via email to: secure-fshdocuments@lists.stanford.edu.

3. Loan Origination Fees

A loan origination fee equal to one percent (1%) of the principal amount of the CE-ZIP loan is collected at the close of escrow. Such fees are often referred to as points.

4. Secured Instrument

The CE-ZIP loan is secured by a Deed of Trust. A Deed of Trust is the document that records a lien against the Property for the principal amount of the loan.

5. Other Financing

If the financing of your purchase includes a mortgage loan from a residential mortgage lender to be secured to the property you purchase, the following applies:

Mortgages used together with University Programs:

- i. cannot be interest only;
- ii. cannot negatively amortize;
- iii. cannot have a term of more than thirty years;
- iv. cannot have a "balloon" feature;
- v. cannot have a prepayment penalty; and
- vi. if the loan is an adjustable rate mortgage (ARM), the transaction will be underwritten by Stanford using the monthly payment required on the thirteenth month.

6. Casualty and Earthquake Insurance

Evidence of earthquake and casualty insurance with Stanford named as mortgagee must be provided to the title company before the close of escrow. Casualty insurance needs to be in the amount of the full replacement cost of the buildings and improvements on the Property. Earthquake insurance needs to be in the amount equal to the value of the buildings and improvements on the Property with a deductible not more than 15%. FSH will notify the borrower(s) of the amount of earthquake insurance that is required when the property appraisal is completed. Your insurance carrier will send the certificates of insurance to the title company. If borrowers use a lender in addition to Stanford, they need to verify if the insurance premium will be collected at the close of escrow.

Effective July 1, 2000, lenders on new loans secured by real property must disclose that Civil Code §2955.5 prohibits lenders from requiring borrowers to provide hazard insurance (fire insurance) for more than the replacement cost of the improvements on the property.

FUNDS NEEDED AT CLOSE OF ESCROW

In addition to points on the mortgages, borrower's should expect to pay additional costs at or before the close of escrow. There will be fees for loan processing, the credit report, appraisal, title insurance, prepaid hazard insurance, and some portion of the escrow fees. The title company will provide the total amount of these costs and when they are due.

REPAYMENT OF PRINCIPAL

Upon the Due Date, the outstanding principal balance is absolutely due and payable and is not contingent upon the sale price or fair market value of the house, or any other factor.

SUBSEQUENT PURCHASE

Qualified borrowers are eligible for only one CE-ZIP loan. Any remaining principal from the original CE-ZIP loan can be used for a subsequent purchase. The remaining principal balance is paid in full at the time of the sale of the home to which the loan is secured and a new loan is originated for the same amount. The new loan is subject to a loan origination fee and other closing costs. Only one CE-ZIP loan can be outstanding at a time.

TAX ASPECTS OF THE ZIP LOAN

CE-ZIP loans can be in one of two forms, a CE-ZIP Loan or a CE-ZIP Employee Relocation Loan. For borrowers holding a CE-ZIP loan, the University is deemed, for income tax purposes, to have paid the borrower additional compensation which is then returned to the University as mortgage interest. For borrowers who itemize deductions, these two items may offset each other for income, but not FICA (Social Security) tax purposes. Compensation/interest will be imputed on the outstanding loan principal at the Applicable Federal Rate (which is based on U.S. Treasury Bill rates). This deemed compensation/interest will be reported as taxable income each year on Form W-2 and is subject to FICA tax withholding. The amount will also be reported to you on an IRS Form 1098 statement of mortgage interest paid by you. Some borrowers will qualify for a CE-ZIP Employee Relocation Loan if they have recently moved to the Stanford area and can make certain representations.

Such loans are described in Section 1.7872-5T of the regulations that interpret the Internal Revenue Code. CE-ZIP Employee Relocation Loans have no imputed income or interest.

The tax treatment of CE-ZIP loans is subject to change.

Housing Programs are established on an annual basis, subject to discontinuation or modification at any time. Persons who have a CE-ZIP at the time of such discontinuation or modification may keep the CE-ZIP for the remainder of the term, subject to their continuing eligibility.

NOTHING IN THIS PROGRAM DESCRIPTION SHOULD BE CONSTRUED AS AN OFFER OR COMMITMENT OF ANY KIND TO A PARTICULAR INDIVIDUAL OR AS SUBSTITUTING FOR OR SUPERSEDING THE FORMAL PROGRAM DOCUMENTS. PROGRAM AND ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE OR DISCONTINUATION WITHOUT NOTICE AT STANFORD UNIVERSITY'S SOLE DISCRETION.

Housing Purchase Programs Eligibility Criteria

HOUSING PROGRAMS OVERVIEW

Stanford University's housing programs (Programs) are made available to employees in a specific and limited number of professional employment categories. For each Program there are specific eligibility criteria. Someone who is an Eligible Person may be qualified to participate in all of the programs, or only some of the programs.

The Programs are divided into two categories:

PURCHASE PROGRAMS

The Purchase Programs include: mortgage loans, a monthly housing allowance, and the option to purchase a long-term residential leasehold on-campus or off-campus. The loans are available for purchase only, not to refinance existing mortgage loans. Detailed descriptions, including the eligibility criteria, are available for each Program.

An individual who has defaulted on any Stanford Program will be ineligible for any subsequent Programs.

This notice is to be provided to FSH in writing before the Eligible Person's change in employment status occurs. Examples of changes in status which could affect program eligibility can be changes to employment percentage, position or classification. Any financial assistance received after the eligibility has changed must be repaid.
