University Libraries*

Archive of Recorded Sound (1)
http://library.stanford.edu/ars
Archives over 400,000 recordings in all formats, including Western art music, popular music and jazz, and spoken word recordings.

Art and Architecture Library (2)
http://library.stanford.edu/art
Extensive printed/visual materials and special collections, focusing on history/practice of art, architecture, and design. Reference/instructional services.

Biology Library (Falconer) (3)
http://library.stanford.edu/falconer Collection covers broad range of the life sciences. Areas of emphasis are biochemistry, biophysics, genetics, ecology, population biology, and more.

Chemistry and Chemical Engineering Library (Swain) (4)
http://library.stanford.edu/swain Provides resources/services in support of chemistry and chemical engineering research and instruction. Some online databases are Stanford-restricted.

Classics Library (Lionel Pearson) (5)
http://library.stanford.edu/libraries/classics-library/about Holdings include texts related to Greek and Roman antiquity as well as titles from the Loeb Classical Library and Oxford Classical Texts series.

Earth Sciences Library (Branner) (6)
http://library.stanford.edu/branner Collection contains printed materials, online references and images. GIS workstations and programs available for faculty, students and staff.

East Asia Library (7)
http://library.stanford.edu/eal

Education Library (Cubberley) (8)
http://library.stanford.edu/cubberley
Wide range of education books, journals, and online materials, plus historic and current textbooks, historic reports and college catalogs.

Engineering Library (Terman) and Physics Collection (9)
http://library.stanford.edu/englib Provides resources/services to support the research and teaching of the School of Engineering departments, institutes, and labs and the Departments of Physics and Applied Physics. Fine payments accepted.

Government Documents (Jonsson) (10)
http://library.stanford.edu/libraries/green/jonsson-social-sciences-reading-room Publications and information on most subjects, with emphasis on demography and population, education, international relations, and more.

Green Library (Cecil H. Green) (11)
http://library.stanford.edu/green Collections include humanities, social sciences, and Special Collections. The Information Center, Privileges, Media Microtext, hText (formerly HDIS), SSDS and Interlibrary Services are located in Green. Fine payments accepted at the Circulation Desk.

Hoover Institution Library (Hoover Tower) and Archives (Herbert Hoover Memorial Bldg.) (12)
http://www.hoover.org/library-archives
Collections focus on international political, social, and economic events in the 20th and 21st centuries.

Lathrop Library (13)
Houses the East Asia Library, the Tech Lounge, Student Computing, createspace, Residential Computing, Lathrop Media Studio, and computer clusters.

Law Library (Crown) (14)
http://www.law.stanford.edu/library
The law library supports the research mission of the law school. Members of the Stanford University community are welcome to use the library.

Map Collections (Branner Library) (15)
http://library.stanford.edu/branner/map-collections-guides Collection includes a wide range of social science and humanities topics; emphasis on geographical, seismological, hydrological, natural hazards, etc.

Marine Biology Library (Miller at Hopkins Marine Station) (16 - Not on Map)
http://library.stanford.edu/hopkins Broad coverage of marine biology with special emphasis on development, neurobiology, ecology, and physiology of marine organisms.

Mathematics and Statistics Library (17)
http://library.stanford.edu/mathstat
Broad coverage supporting the mathematical and statistical needs of the sciences and engineering. Emphasis on graduate- and professional-level materials.

Medical Library (Lane) (18)
http://lane.stanford.edu
Extensive online literature, specialty portals, and print resources for medicine, biomedicine, nursing, public and allied health, and related fields. Open to the public.

Music Library (19)
http://library.stanford.edu/music
Find print and digital resources for the study of music of all types, from all time periods, with an emphasis on Western art music. Staff can assist in the research process.

Philosophy Library (Tanner) (20)
http://library.stanford.edu/libraries/philosophy/about
A collection that supports teaching and research in the Philosophy Department by duplicating a selection of Green Library's philosophy holdings.

Special Collections (21)
http://library.stanford.edu/psc
Historical research in all formats, including printed books, manuscripts, maps, photographs, and prints.

Stanford Auxiliary Library (SAL1&2) (22)
http://library.stanford.edu/libraries/sal/about Houses overflow materials and low use items for the Stanford Libraries.

Stanford Graduate School of Business Library (23)
http://www.gsb.stanford.edu/library
Supports the curriculum and research of the GSB. Collection covers all areas of business. Open to the Stanford community for business research needs.

SLAC National Accelerator Laboratory Library (24)
http://www-group.slac.stanford.edu/library
Provides information needs for laboratory research programs in photon science, high-energy and particle physics, and astrophysics.

* Numbers in parentheses correspond to the map on the opposite side. For hours and access policies, please contact individual library.