Emergency Operation Centers
Emergency Purchasing Card Instructions

This EOC emergency PCard should only be used in the event of an emergency as determined by the Emergency Operations Center (EOC).

This emergency PCard has a $25,000 single transaction limit and a $100,000 monthly spending limit.

Contact Stanford Purchasing Card Administration to request an increase of the single transaction or monthly spending limit (see below).

It is your responsibility to:

• only use this card for Stanford business purposes associated with the declared emergency
• keep this card secure and if it is lost or stolen to immediately contact JPMorgan Chase and Stanford PCard Administration (see below)
• track the usage of this card
• obtain and retain receipts
• provide these receipts to PCard Administration upon request
• return PCard to EOC once the state of emergency has been lifted

Transactions related to this PCard will be verified and approved by authorized Payment Services staff.
