MEDITERRANEAN STUDIES FORUM

ROUNDTABLE ON

APPROACHES TO OTTOMAN HISTORY

Monday, March 8, noon – 1:30 PM
Lane History Corner (Bldg. 200), Room #307,
Stanford University, 450 Serra Mall

HEATHER FERGUSON
(Abbasi Program Post-Doctoral Fellow, Department of History)
“Problems of Periodization: A non-Teleological Approach to Early Ottoman History”

HANS-LUKAS KIESER
(Visiting Professor, Department of History)
“Back and Forth in the Ottoman Empire: Archives and Imperial Rule”

ALAN MIKHAIL
(Andrew W. Mellon Fellowship of Scholars in the Humanities, Department of History)
“Opening Black Boxes: Late Ottoman and early post-Ottoman studies since the 1990s”

Discussant:
JOEL BEININ
(Donald J. McLachan Professor in History and Professor of Middle Eastern History, Department of History)

[Co-sponsored by the Abbasi Program in Islamic Studies]

For more information about the Mediterranean Studies Forum, please see http://mediterraneanstudies.stanford.edu or contact us at medstudies@stanford.edu