

2006 Stanford Math Tournament Registration Form

If you are planning to send more than eight students, please copy this form and fill out one copy for each team or partial team your school plans to register!

We ask that each team pick a unique pronounceable name; if there are multiple teams from your school, be sure they have different names. Please make sure your students know their team name on the day of the contest.

Team Name _____

Please enter an address and telephone where we can contact you in case we have questions about your registration.

School Name _____

Sponsor Name _____

Mailing Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Telephone _____ E-mail _____

Please enter the name of each student on the team, and place a check in the columns of the tests they are planning to take. In the last row, please enter the number of students taking each test. Please note that Algebra and Advanced Topics are held concurrently, as are Geometry and Calculus. The general test is held at the same time as the four subject area tests.

| | Name | Algebra | Adv. Topics | Geometry | Calculus | General | Team |
|----|---------------|---------|-------------|----------|----------|---------|------|
| 1. | | | | | | | |
| 2. | | | | | | | |

| 7. | | | | | | | |
| 8. | | | | | | | |
| | # of Students | | | | | | |

If your team does not have 8 people, would you like us to add students from other schools to your team?

The early registration deadline is February 11, 2006. If your registration is postmarked on or before that date, the cost of the contest will be $2.50 per subject test, $5 per general test, and $1 for each student taking the team test. For registration postmarked on or after February 11 and received by the contest date, the cost will be $3.50 per subject test, $6 per general test, and $2 for each student taking the team test. If you plan to register when you arrive at the contest, or your registration materials have not been received by the morning of February 25, the cost will be $4.50 per subject test, $7 per general test, and $3 for each student taking the team test.

Please fill out one of the following, depending on whether you are registering early or late:
