PNG's protest to Indonesia over border incursion

SECTION: Part 3 The Far East; 3. THE FAR EAST; FE/0843/ i;

LENGTH: 103 words

Papua New Guinea has protested to Indonesia alleging another military intrusion across the Irian Jaya border, Radio Australia reported from Port Moresby on 14th August. Papua New Guinea's Foreign Minister, Sir Michael Somare, said about 30 Indonesian troops were first sighted about one and a half kilometres inside Papua New Guinea's West Sepik Province on 11th August. Sir Michael claimed an Indonesian military helicopter crossed over the border on 13th August and resupplied them. The Indonesian troops were thought to be pursuing rebels from the Free West Papua Movement, the OPM, the radio said. [4]
