

2007

Cinegae
Buffalo
June 13–15

Screenings and discussion of new award-winning independent Irish film

Film Festival

Wednesday, June 13 • 7p.m. • North Park Theatre, 1428 Hertel Ave.

Contemporary Irish Music with John and Mary and Friends.

Once (90 minutes, John Carney, 2006), a musical romance in Dublin, starring Marketa Irglova and Glen Hansard, of the Commitments and the Frames. WNY premiere. Winner of the 2007 Sundance World Cinema Audience Award. "Not a single false note." —NY Times Admission: $8. Partial proceeds to benefit Buffalo Public Schools music programs and Buffalo and Erie County Public Library Grosvenor Music Program.

Thursday, June 14 • 7p.m. • Hallwalls, 341 Delaware Ave.

The Wind that Shakes the Barley (122 minutes, Ken Loach, 2006). With afterwords by Professor Laurence Shine. Winner, Best Picture, 2006 Cannes Film Festival; Winner, European Film Award, 2007. "Enthralling, devastating...beautiful. As alive and troubling as anything on the evening news." —A.O. Scott, NY Times

Blot out the Sun (22 minutes, 2005, Harrell Fletcher), Ulysses, from a garage in Portland, Oregon.

Admission: $8 ($6 Hallwalls members) for both features

Friday, June 15 • 7p.m. • Hallwalls, 341 Delaware Ave.

The Wind that Shakes the Barley, (see description above). With afterwords by Professor Patrick McDevitt.

Following James Joyce...Dublin to Buffalo (52 minutes, Patrick Martin, Stacey Herbert, 2004). Filmed on location in Dublin, Paris, Trieste, Pola, Zurich, Buffalo. "Beautiful and profound." —Margot Norris, President, International James Joyce Foundation

Admission: $8 ($6 Hallwalls members) for both features

Cinegae Buffalo is a program of riverrun, inc. and is co-sponsored by the SUNY Buffalo Humanities Institute; Kennedy, Stoeckl and Martin, PC; and William C. Moran & Associates.

Dont forget Bloomsday!
June 16th, 5–10 p.m., Irish Classical Theatre