Not specific to Carlos Slim. Very positive meeting. Going back to show comm real estate etc. We are really starting to connect dots in his organization. He is negative about fin markets. He thinks commodity prices represent a speculative bubble.

No interest in jv or ownership stake at this point. Potential interest in asset purchases. Will follow up on that piece.

Project verde was unsuccessful. He did not express interest in jv or stock purchase. he did say he would be intersted in looking at assets for sale. He did not know lehman had shown assets to his team already.

I had a good meeting with alex aboumad, the guy who is running IDEAL's infrastructure activities which are growing.
