

The Cambridge Companion to the Roman Economy
Edited by Walter Scheidel (Stanford University)
Cambridge University Press

Contents

Introduction

Approaching the Roman economy (Walter Scheidel, Stanford University)

Theory

Ancient economic thought (Gloria Vivienza, University of Verona)

The contribution of Economics (Peter Temin, Massachusetts Institute of Technology)

Human capital and economic growth (Richard Saller, Stanford University)

Labor

Slavery (Walter Scheidel, Stanford University)

Contract labor (Dennis Kehoe, Tulane University)

Production

Raw materials and energy (Andrew Wilson, Oxford University)

Food production (Geoffrey Kron, University of Victoria)

Manufacturing (Cameron Hawkins, University of Chicago)

Distribution

Predation (Peter Bang, University of Copenhagen)

Transport (Colin Adams, University of Liverpool)

Urbanism (Paul Erdkamp, University of Brussels)

Money and finance (Sitta von Reden, University of Freiburg)

A forum on trade (Andrew Wilson, Morris Silver, Peter Bang, Paul Erdkamp, Neville Morley)

Outcomes

Physical wellbeing (Walter Scheidel, Stanford University)

Post-imperial economies (Simon Loseby, University of Sheffield)