WILDFIRES IN THE WEST FORUM

SPEAKERS & TOPICS

Stephen J. Pyne
Regents' Professor
Department of History, Arizona State University

"The changing economy of fire prevention and abatement over the past century and what this means for the firefighting industry in the future"

Bettina Boxall
Reporter
Los Angeles Times

"Politics and controversies surrounding the financing of wildfires and the settlement of suburban areas"

Scott Stephens
Associate Professor of Fire Sciences
Department of Environmental Science, Policy and Management
UC Berkeley

"Landscape and ecosystem changes at the urban/wildland interface and their implications for fighting and preventing future fires"

Anthony L. Westerling
Assistant Professor of Environmental Engineering
School of Engineering
UC Merced and Sierra Nevada Research Station

"Impacts of climate change on wildfires in the west and fighting and preventing fires into the future"

THURSDAY JANUARY 15, 2009
3:00-5:00 PM

THE JERRY YANG & AKIKO YAMAZAKI ENVIRONMENT & ENERGY BUILDING (Y2E2)
ROOM 299