

7. Soule, Gihon, and Nisbet, The Annals of San Francisco, 539; Vitus Wackenrueter, City and County of San Francisco: Compiled from Official Surveys and Sectionalized in Accordance with U.S. Surveys, 1862; Appendix, San Francisco Municipal Reports for the Fiscal Year 1868–1869, Board of Supervisors (San Francisco: Cosmopolitan Printing Company, 1869), 554.

12. Mavrogeorge, San Francisco Cemeteries, 8.

15. “Stop Burials in the City,” Richmond Banner, June 29, 1895; Lauren Weiss Bricker, Historic Context Statements on the Neighborhood Development of San Francisco from 1890–1920, the Inner Richmond District (San Francisco: The Foundation for San Francisco’s Architectural Heritage, 1990), 7–8.

17. “The Cemetery Question,” Richmond Banner, June 15, 1895; “About the Cemeteries,” Richmond Banner, June 1, 1895.

22. “Richmond District Improvement Association,” Richmond Banner, August 31, 1895.

25. Bill No. 54, Ordinance No. 25, “Prohibiting the Burial of the Dead Within the City and County of San Francisco from and After the 1st Day of August, 1901,” Board of Supervisors, March 30, 1900.

29. Mavrogeorge, San Francisco Cemeteries, 8.

NOTES

32 “The Cemeteries Question,” San Francisco Chronicle, January 10, 1914; “Jordan Park Club,” Richmond Banner, August 23, 1912. In 1912, Richmond’s Jordan Park Improvement Club had sent members to the California state legislature to argue that the cemeteries should be removed because they blocked thoroughfares between their neighborhood and the rest of the city.

33 Sloane, 127; “Why the Change of Attitude?” San Francisco Chronicle, October 31, 1914.

42 “Supervisors Postpone Final Action on Cemetery Bills until Monday Afternoon,” Richmond Banner, April 18, 1924.

43 As quoted in Mavrogeorge, San Francisco Cemeteries, 11.

44 “True Sentiment Joins with Calm Reason to Show Need of Removal of Cemeteries,” Richmond Banner, October 24, 1924.

45 “Arguments Against the Calvary Cemetery Ordinance and Why It Should Be Replaced,” voting pamphlet, Cemetery Defense League, 1924.

46 “Vote YES on Number 43,” voting pamphlet, Cemetery Defense League, 1924.

49 “Cemetery Fight Will Be Kept Up,” Richmond Banner, November 7, 1924.

51 Mavrogeorge, San Francisco Cemeteries, 11–12.

54 San Francisco Chronicle, November 3, 1937; Rastall, “San Francisco Bay Bridge Studies.”

57 Mavrogeorge, San Francisco Cemeteries, 11–12.

BRUCE PORTER: SAN FRANCISCO SOCIETY’S ARTFUL PLAYER, BY CHRISTINE SCRIBABNE, PP 48–69

Susanne Pandich collaborated in the research for this essay.

3 A copy of the Federal Census of 1880 for Martinez (film #64, district #45, 11) indicates an Edwin Porter, age 15; the Joseph A. Baird, Jr. Collection, D-231, Department of Special Collections, General Library, University of California, Davis (hereafter cited as UCD). In his last will and in other legal files in his lawyer’s office, Porter was listed as Edmund Bruce; Wayne M. Collins Papers, MSS 78/177 c, Bruce Porter File, 1954–55. BANC.

4 Bruce Porter to Henry James, Jr., 20 September 1949, Baird Coll., Box 13, Folder 98, UCD. The Baird Collection contains a number of letters written in the years preceding Porter’s death from Porter to James, who