The Precourt Energy Efficiency Center (PEEC) presents

Sustainable Transportation Fall Seminar Series 2013

Fridays, 2:30-3:30pm, Y2E2 Room 105
--- Small snacks provided! sponsored by MAP ---

Sept 27 – Kara Kockelman, University of Texas, Autonomous Vehicles: Anticipating Impacts in a World of Increasingly Shared Mobility

Oct 4 – Ben Sharpe, UC Davis / ICCT, Policy Measures for Reducing Greenhouse Gas Emissions from Heavy-Duty Vehicles: California, the US, and the World

Oct 18 – David Vance Wagner, ICCT, Pollution and Politics in the People's Republic of China: Big Oil, Big Auto, and the Battle for Beijing's Blue Skies

Oct 25 – Yang Yu, Stanford University, 336% increasing in sales and 55% raise of motor fuel consumption: what happens in China's Automobile Market and Transportation Sector

Nov 1 – Diana Ginnebaugh, Stanford University/PEEC, The Future of the Flex-Fuel Vehicle in the US

Nov 8 – Hilary Nixon, San Jose State University, Understanding Household Preferences for Alternative-Fuel Vehicle Technologies

Nov 15 – Frances Sprei, Chalmers, Conflicting Interests in Defining an “Optimal” Battery Size when introducing the PHEV

Nov 22 – No seminar

Dec 6 – Kara Kockelman, University of Texas, Transportation Systems and the Built Environment: A Life-Cycle Energy Case Study and Analysis

Note: this seminar will start at 3pm