Readings and data material will all be available online.

Week 1: Introduction - Where from?

T - 9/25
Introduction to course

Th - 9/27

Week 2: Understanding Place - Why here?

T - 10/2

Th - 10/4: Revisiting John Snow

Week 3: Spatial Evidence - Where and how?

T - 10/9
Visit to Green map special collections and Branner GIS Library.

Th - 10/11: Collecting geospatial data
Week 4: Interpreting Globalization

T - 10/16

Th - 10/18: Maps of the World

Week 5: Interpreting Social History

T - 10/23

Th - 10/25: Examining the DuBois data

T - 10/30 Guest speaker: Prof. Amy Hillier, University of Pennsylvania, Director of the Mapping the Du Bois Philadelphia Negro Project.

Interpreting Urban Dynamics

Th - 11/1

T – 11/6: Urban sprawl and its consequences

Interpreting Historical Landscapes

Th - 11/8

T - 11/13: Evidence from the past

CHANGED:

Th - 11/15
In-class work on term projects

(Week 9: T - 11/20 and Th – 11/22 Thanksgiving Break)
Week 10: Interpreting Colonialism

Th - 11/29: Historical and modern Africa

Week 11: Conclusion - Where to?
T - 12/4: Summary and Discussion
Th - 12/6: Project presentations

Assessment:
Mid-term feedback in Week 5
In-class Discussion 30%
In-class Projects 30%
Project/Paper and presentation 40%

(last updated 11/8/07)