

[Scene opens with Steven running onto the stage, looking puzzled, holding a phone in his hand.]

Steven: Oh my GOD, what was that story grandma told me again??

[Jack enters calmly, holding a phone that has Kin on it]

Jack: Hey, Steven! Is forgetfulness kicking in? Have you tried Kin?—weaving family stories one thread at a time!

[Jack hands Steven the phone, showing the Kin app's interface.]

[Steven throws his phone away, then takes Jack's phone]

Jack: It has daily chats that knit your family together, preserving every memory.

Steven: Perfect! So, I can answer engaging daily prompts with my loved ones?
MOM, [Shuvi or Jasmine yells across the crowd] you have got to check out Kin!

Jack: Absolutely! Kin connects your family across generations and brings everyone closer than ever. Stop by our booth for more!

[Steven smiles, nodding in excitement as he explores the app.]
