

Weave your family story one thread at a time

PROBLEM

It can be difficult for people to learn, share, discuss, and preserve family stories in a way that feels engaging and rewarding, especially across generations – specifically, young people and the elderly.

SOLUTION

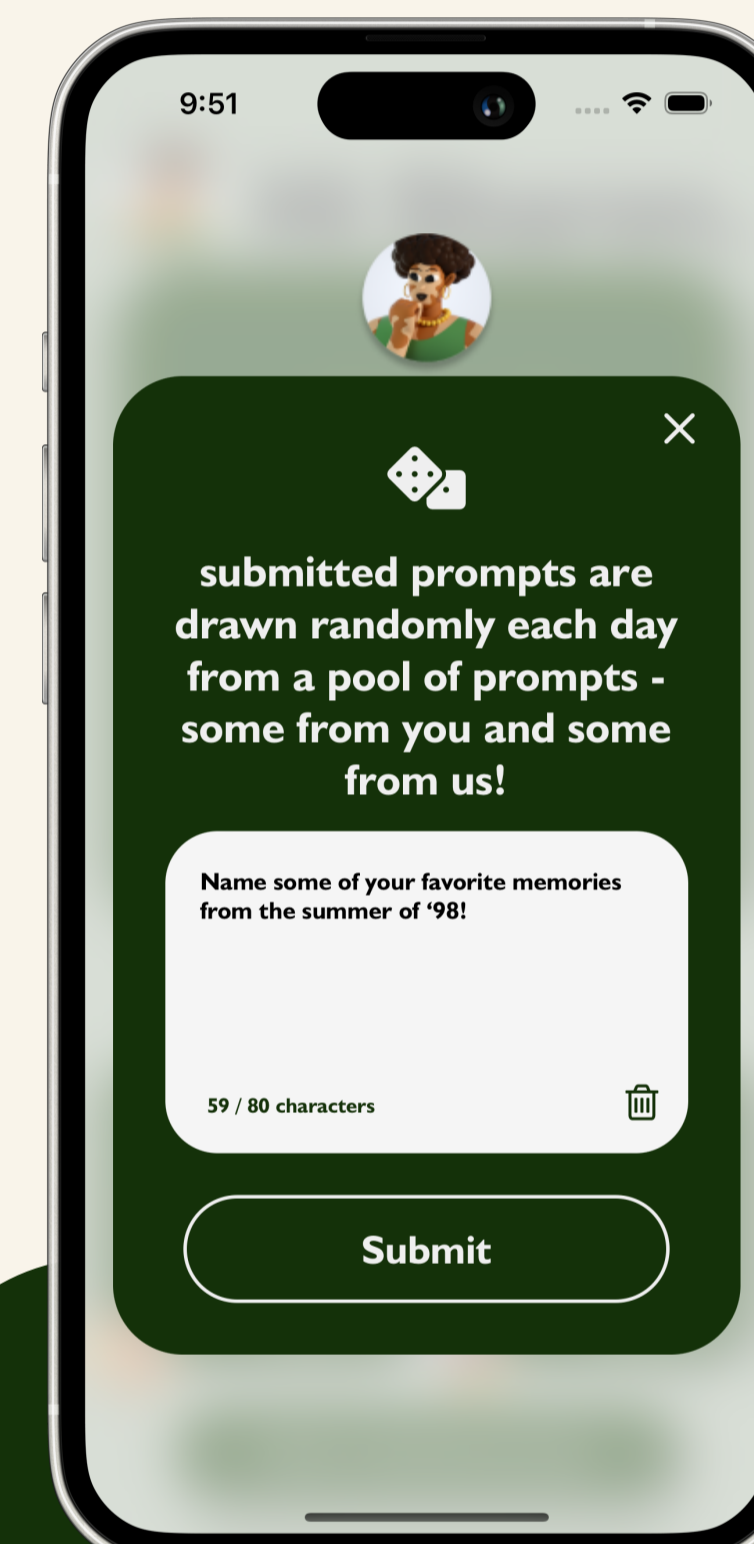

An app focused on helping family members share memories through prompts and collaboration. Users can engage with daily prompts, read family responses, and add their own questions to the system to facilitate future family interactions and preserve memories.

Answer questions with your loved ones!

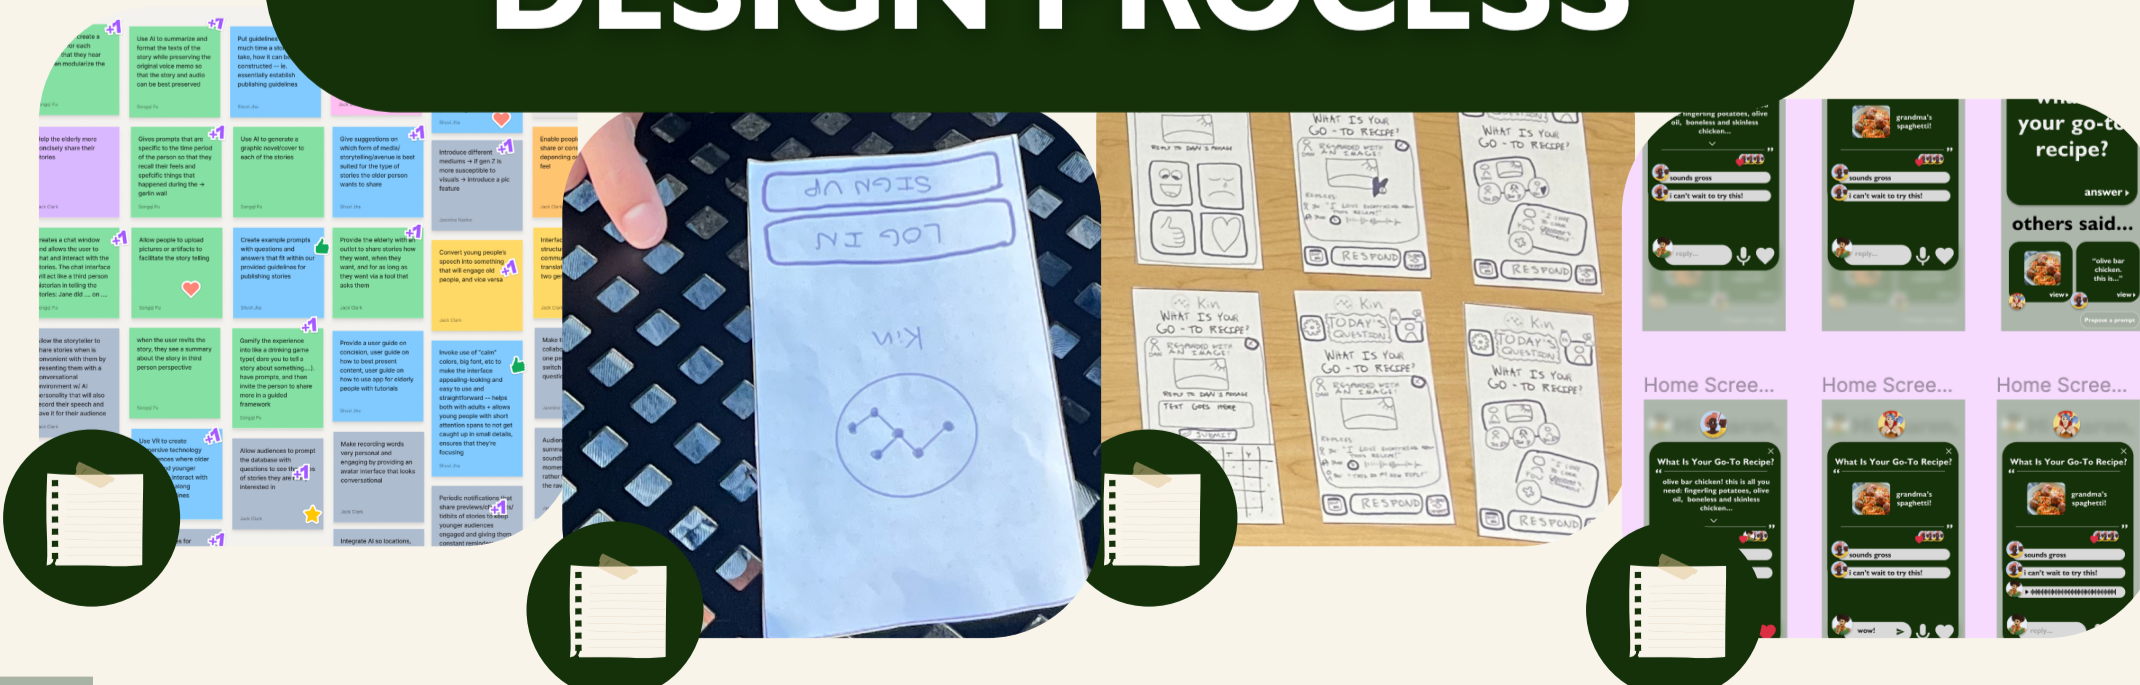

Reply, engage, and converse!

Propose your own questions to drive the conversation!

DESIGN PROCESS

We seek to make the uncovering of family stories inviting by initiating daily, bite-sized conversations that facilitate and chronicle our familial connections
