

Edmont, Edmond and Gilliéron, Jules. (1902-1920). Atlas linguistique de la France. Paris: H. Champion.

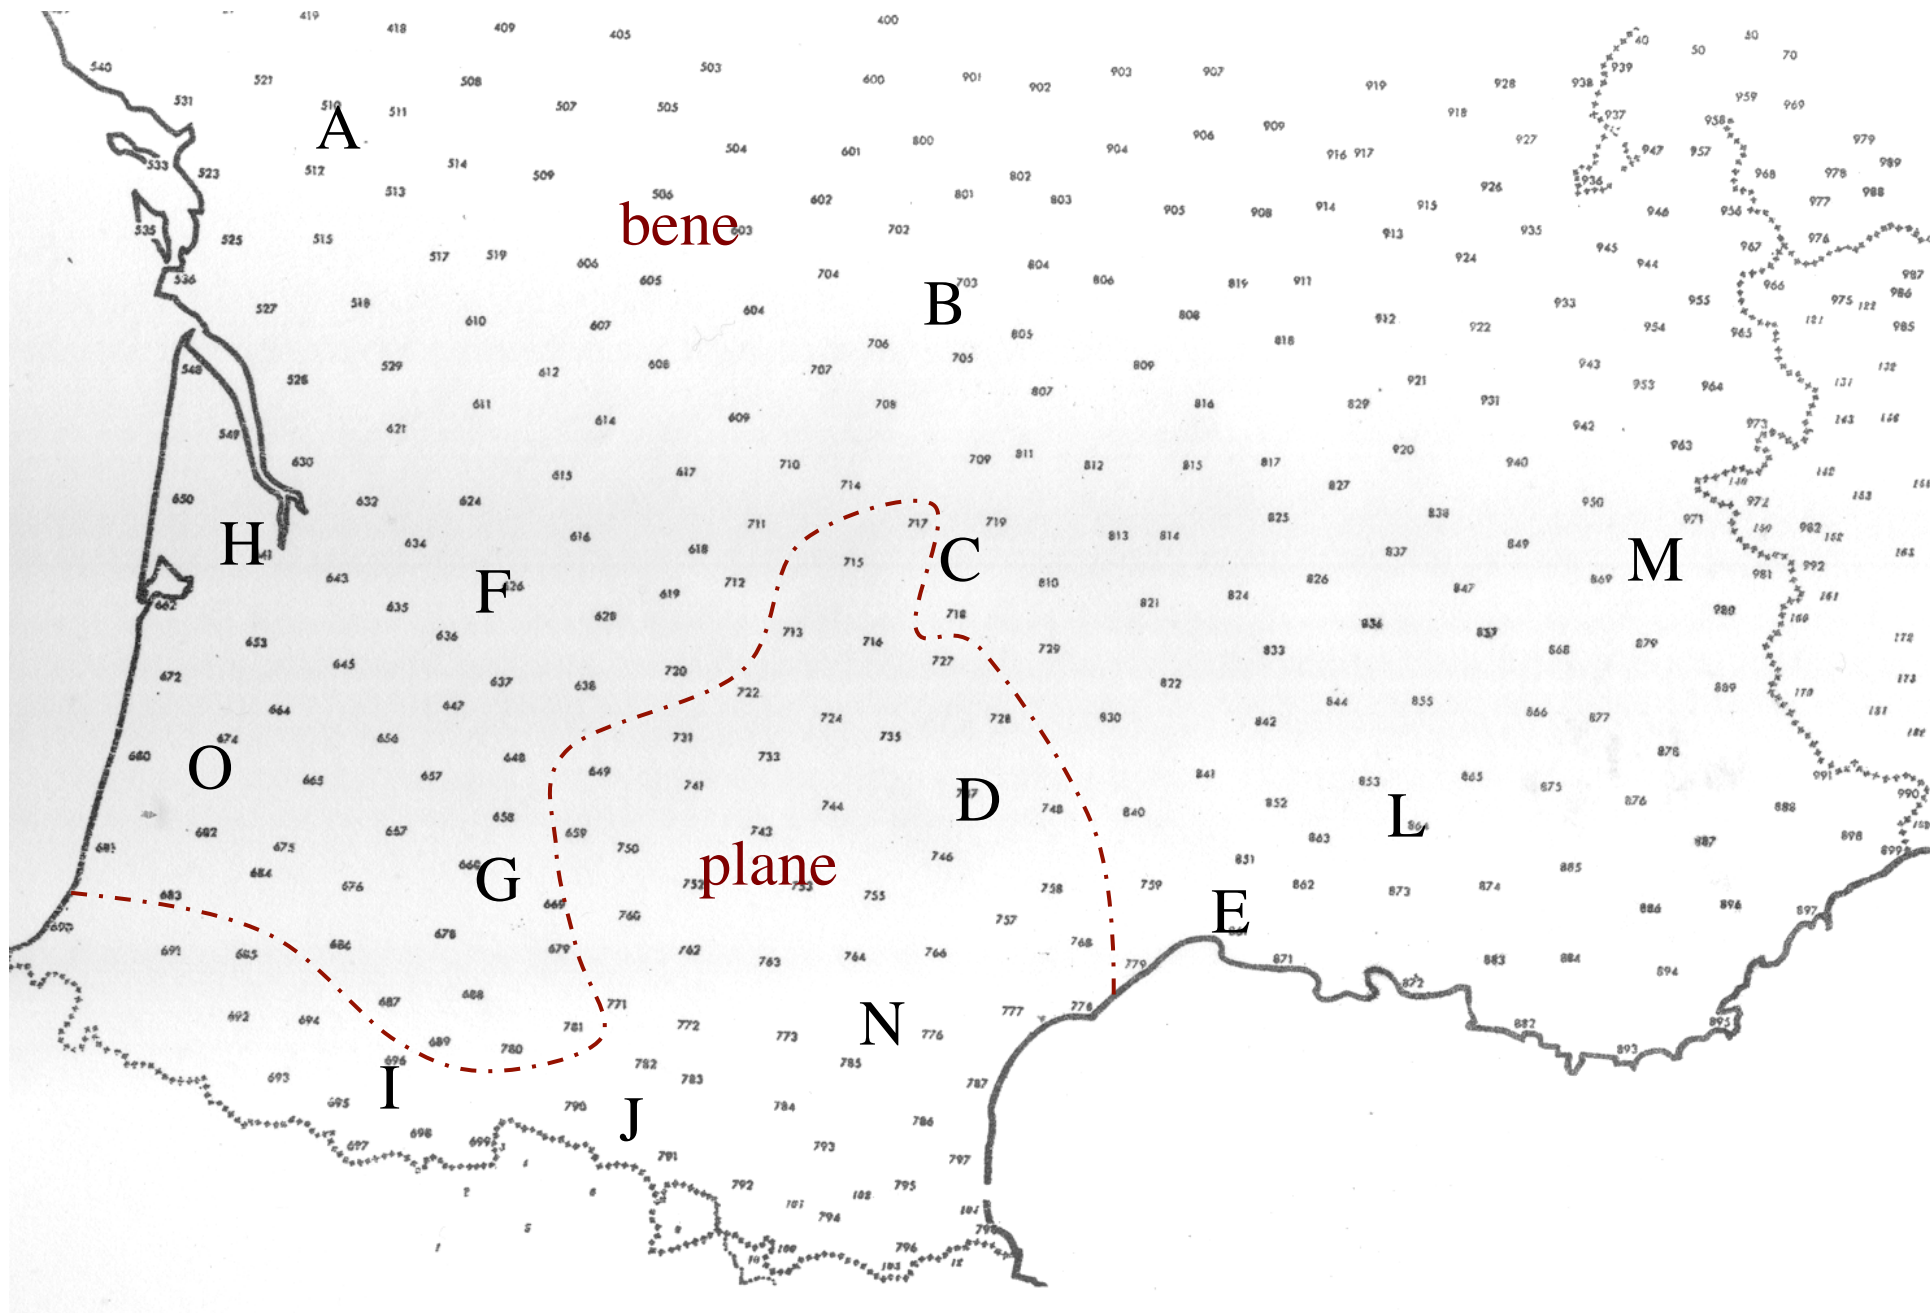

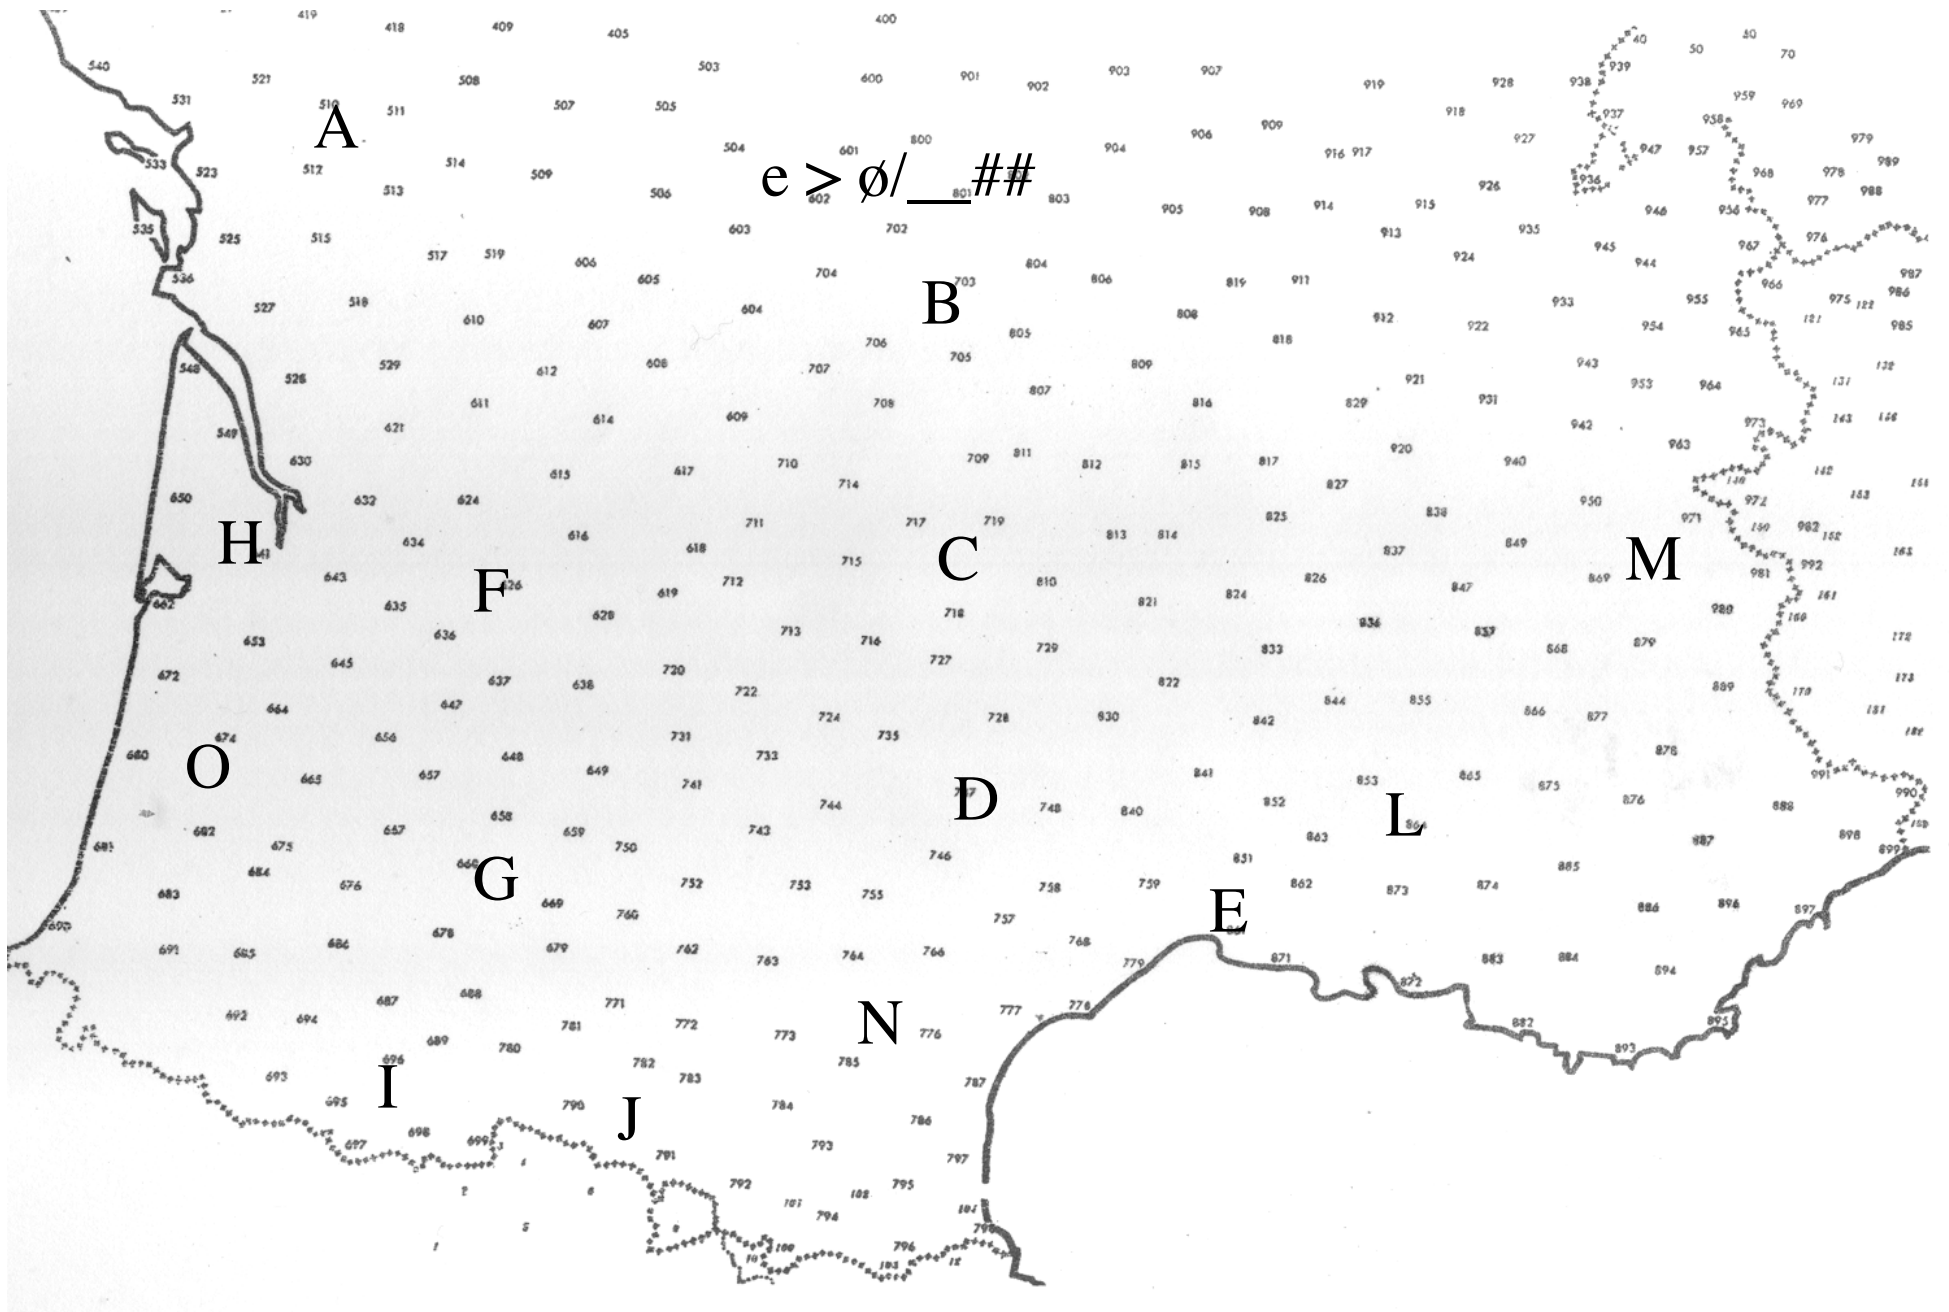

Edmont, Edmond and Gilliéron, Jules.
(1902-1920). Atlas linguistique de la
France. Paris: H. Champion.

*una granda fiĵa kanta bene/plane

‘a big girl sings well’

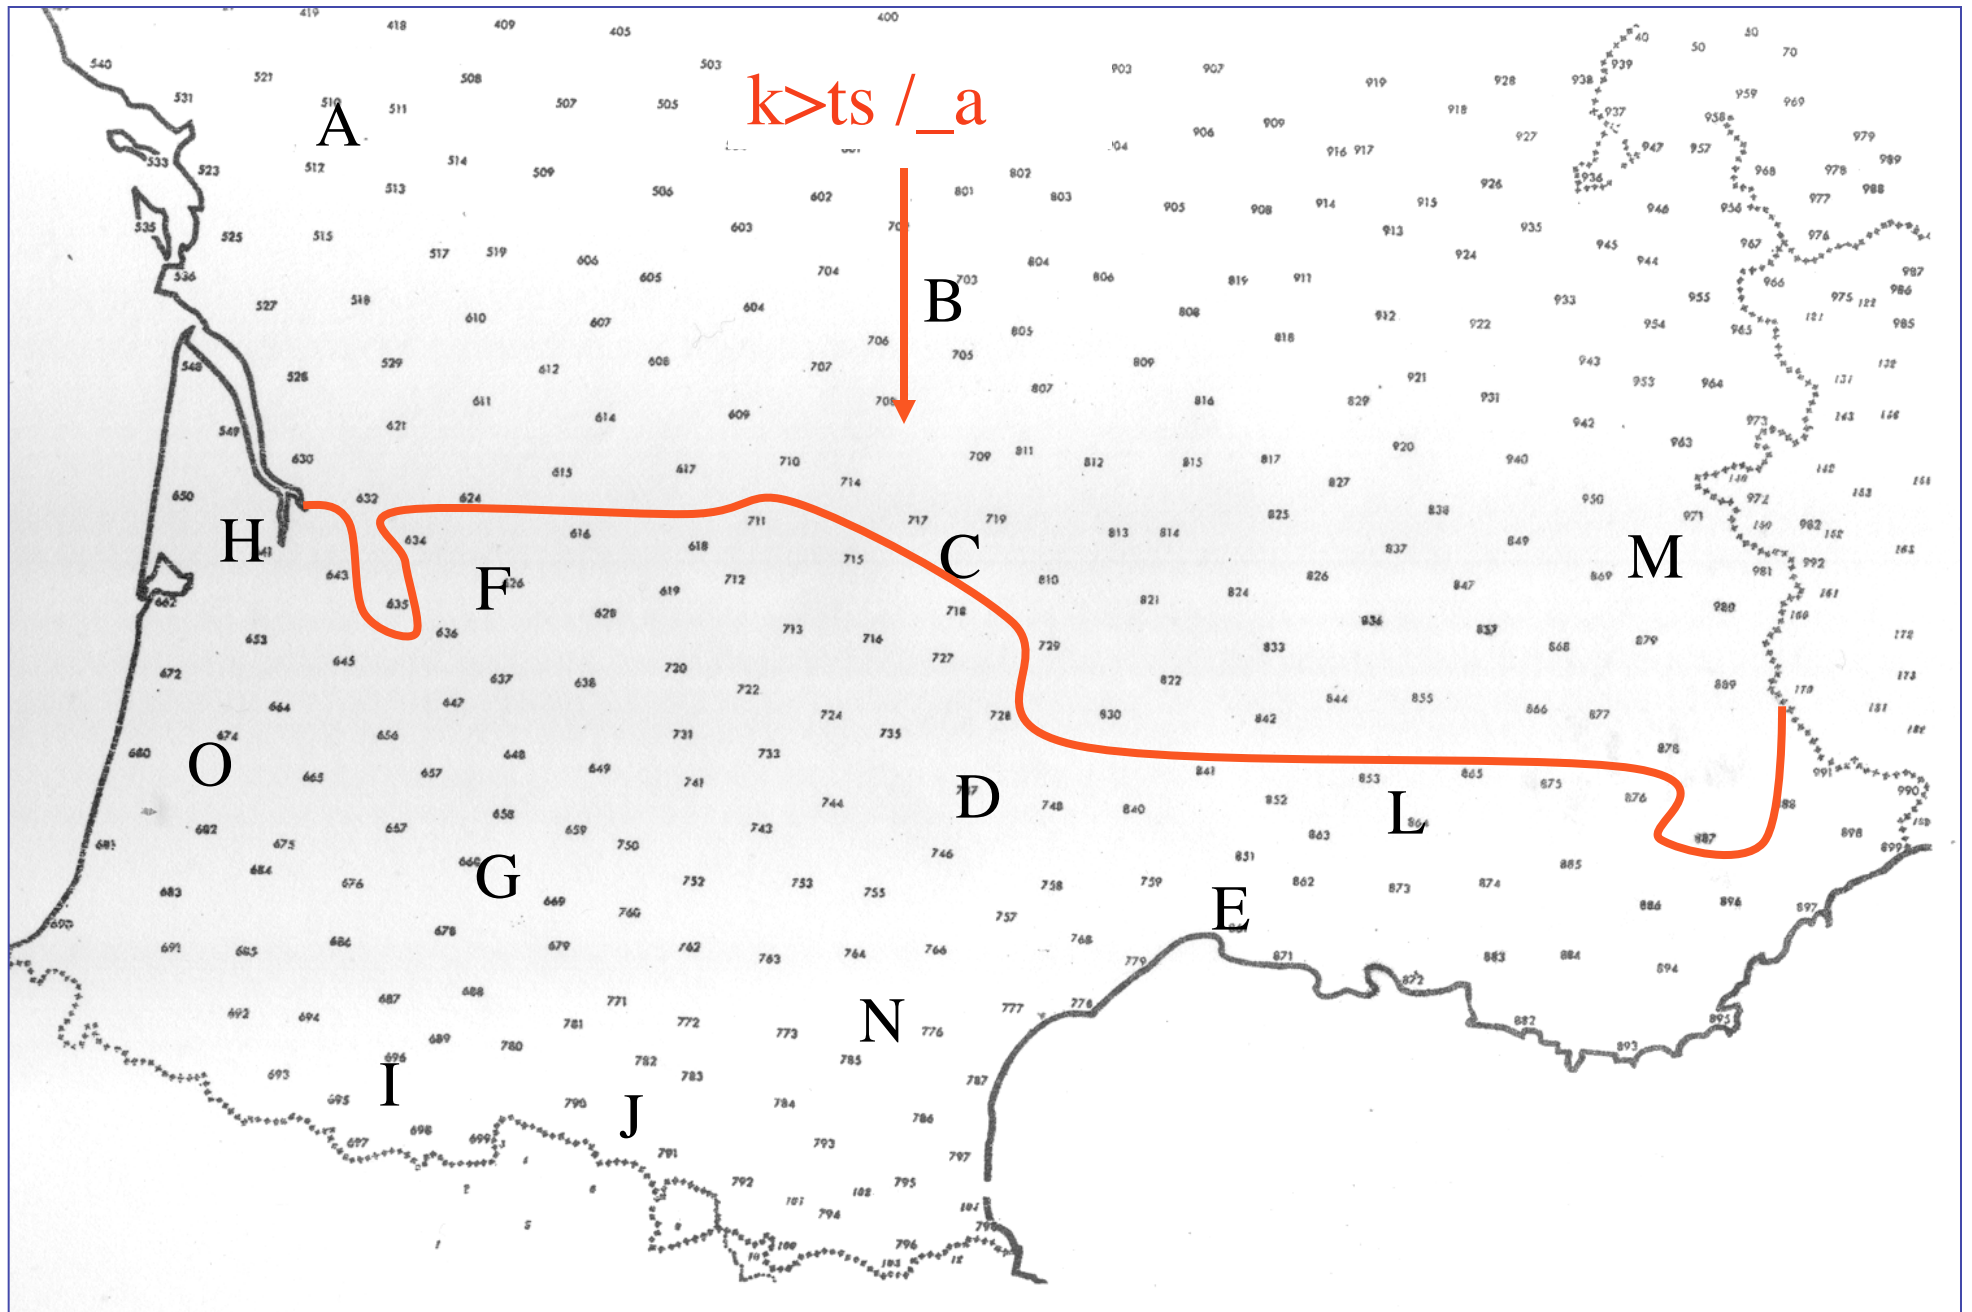

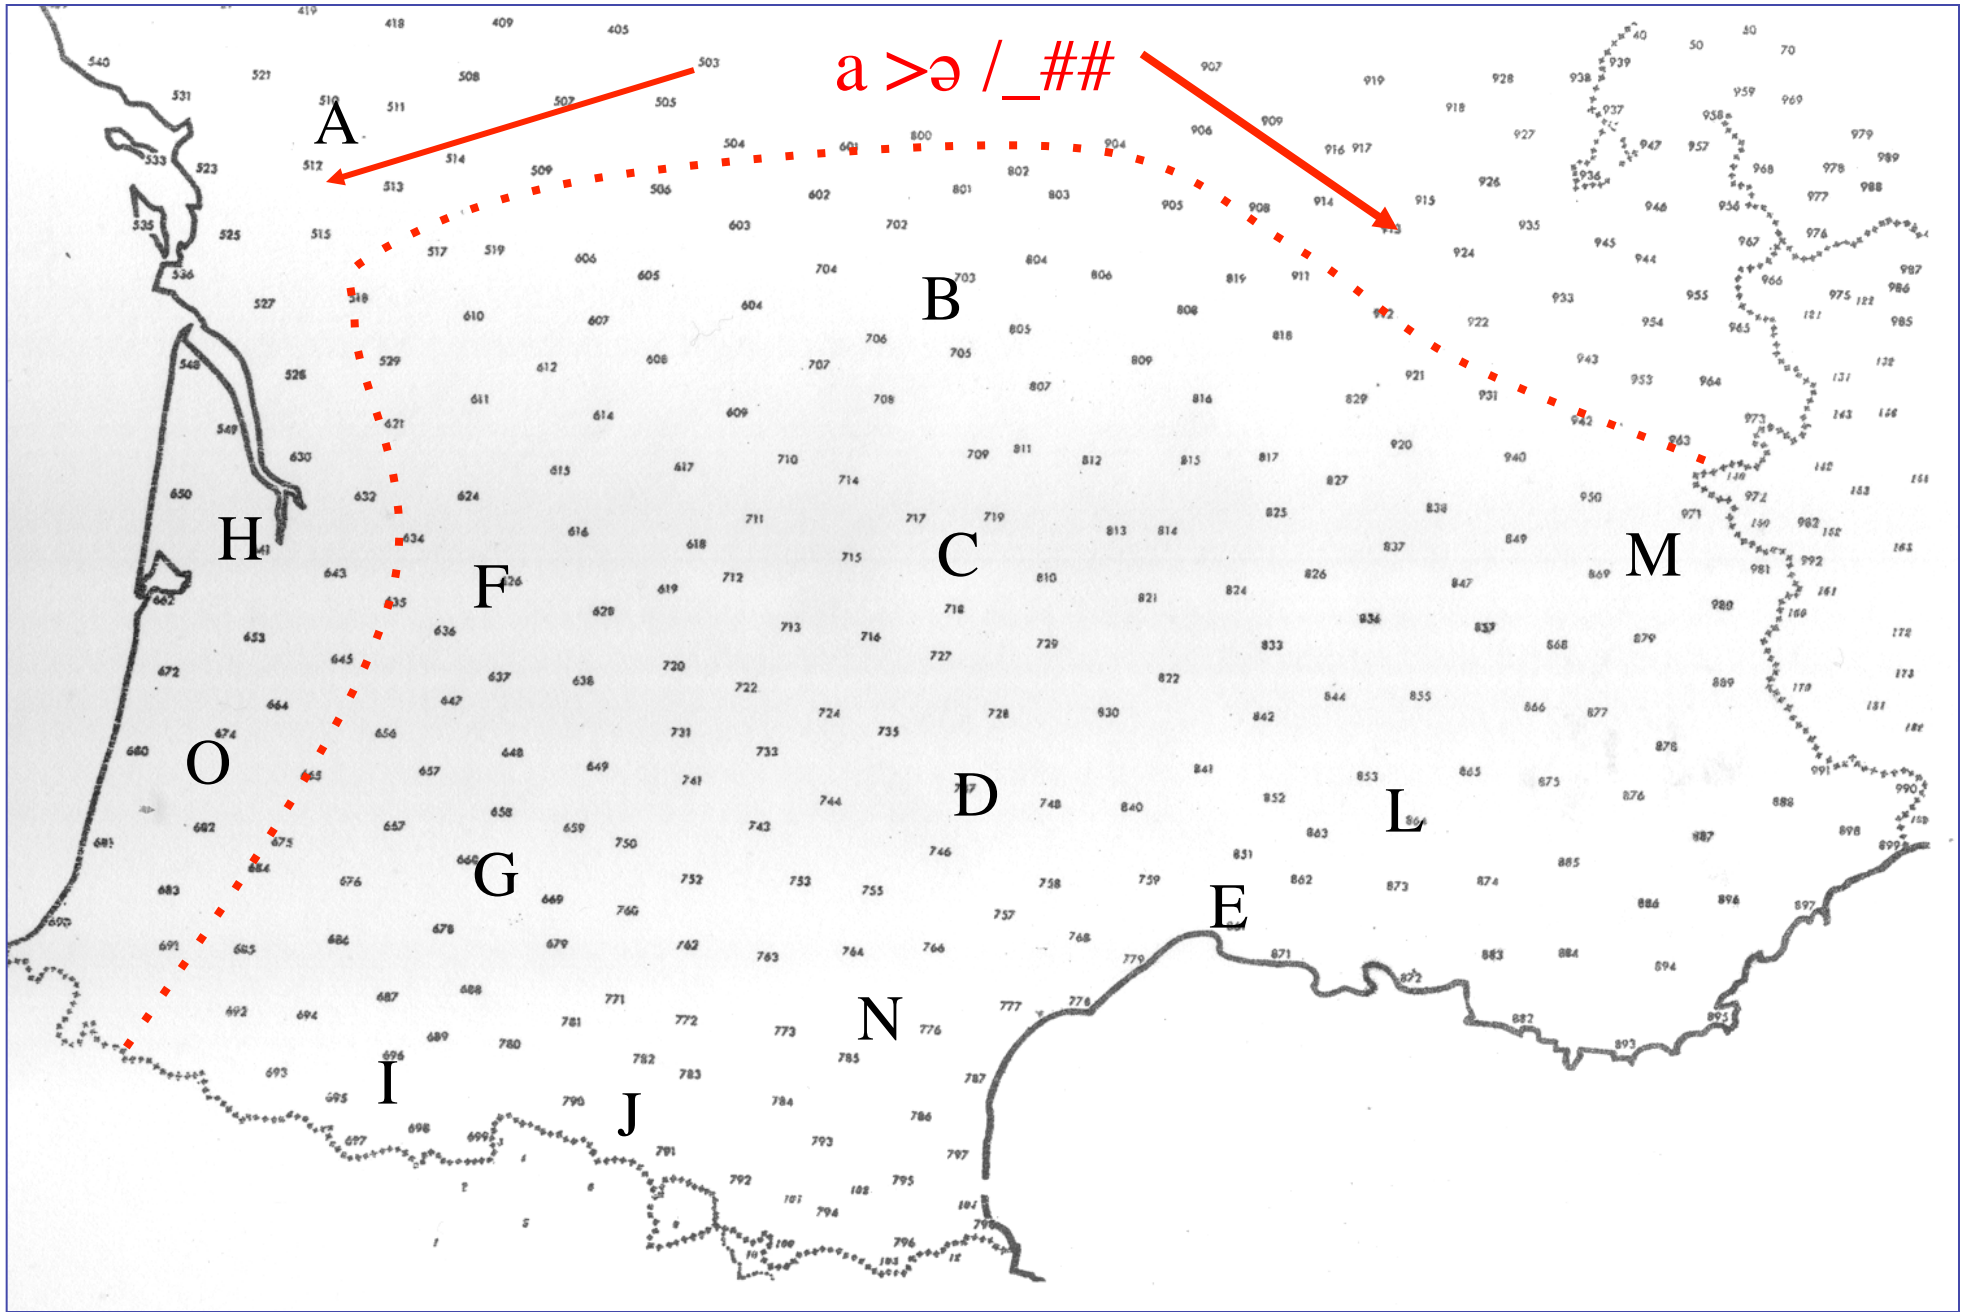

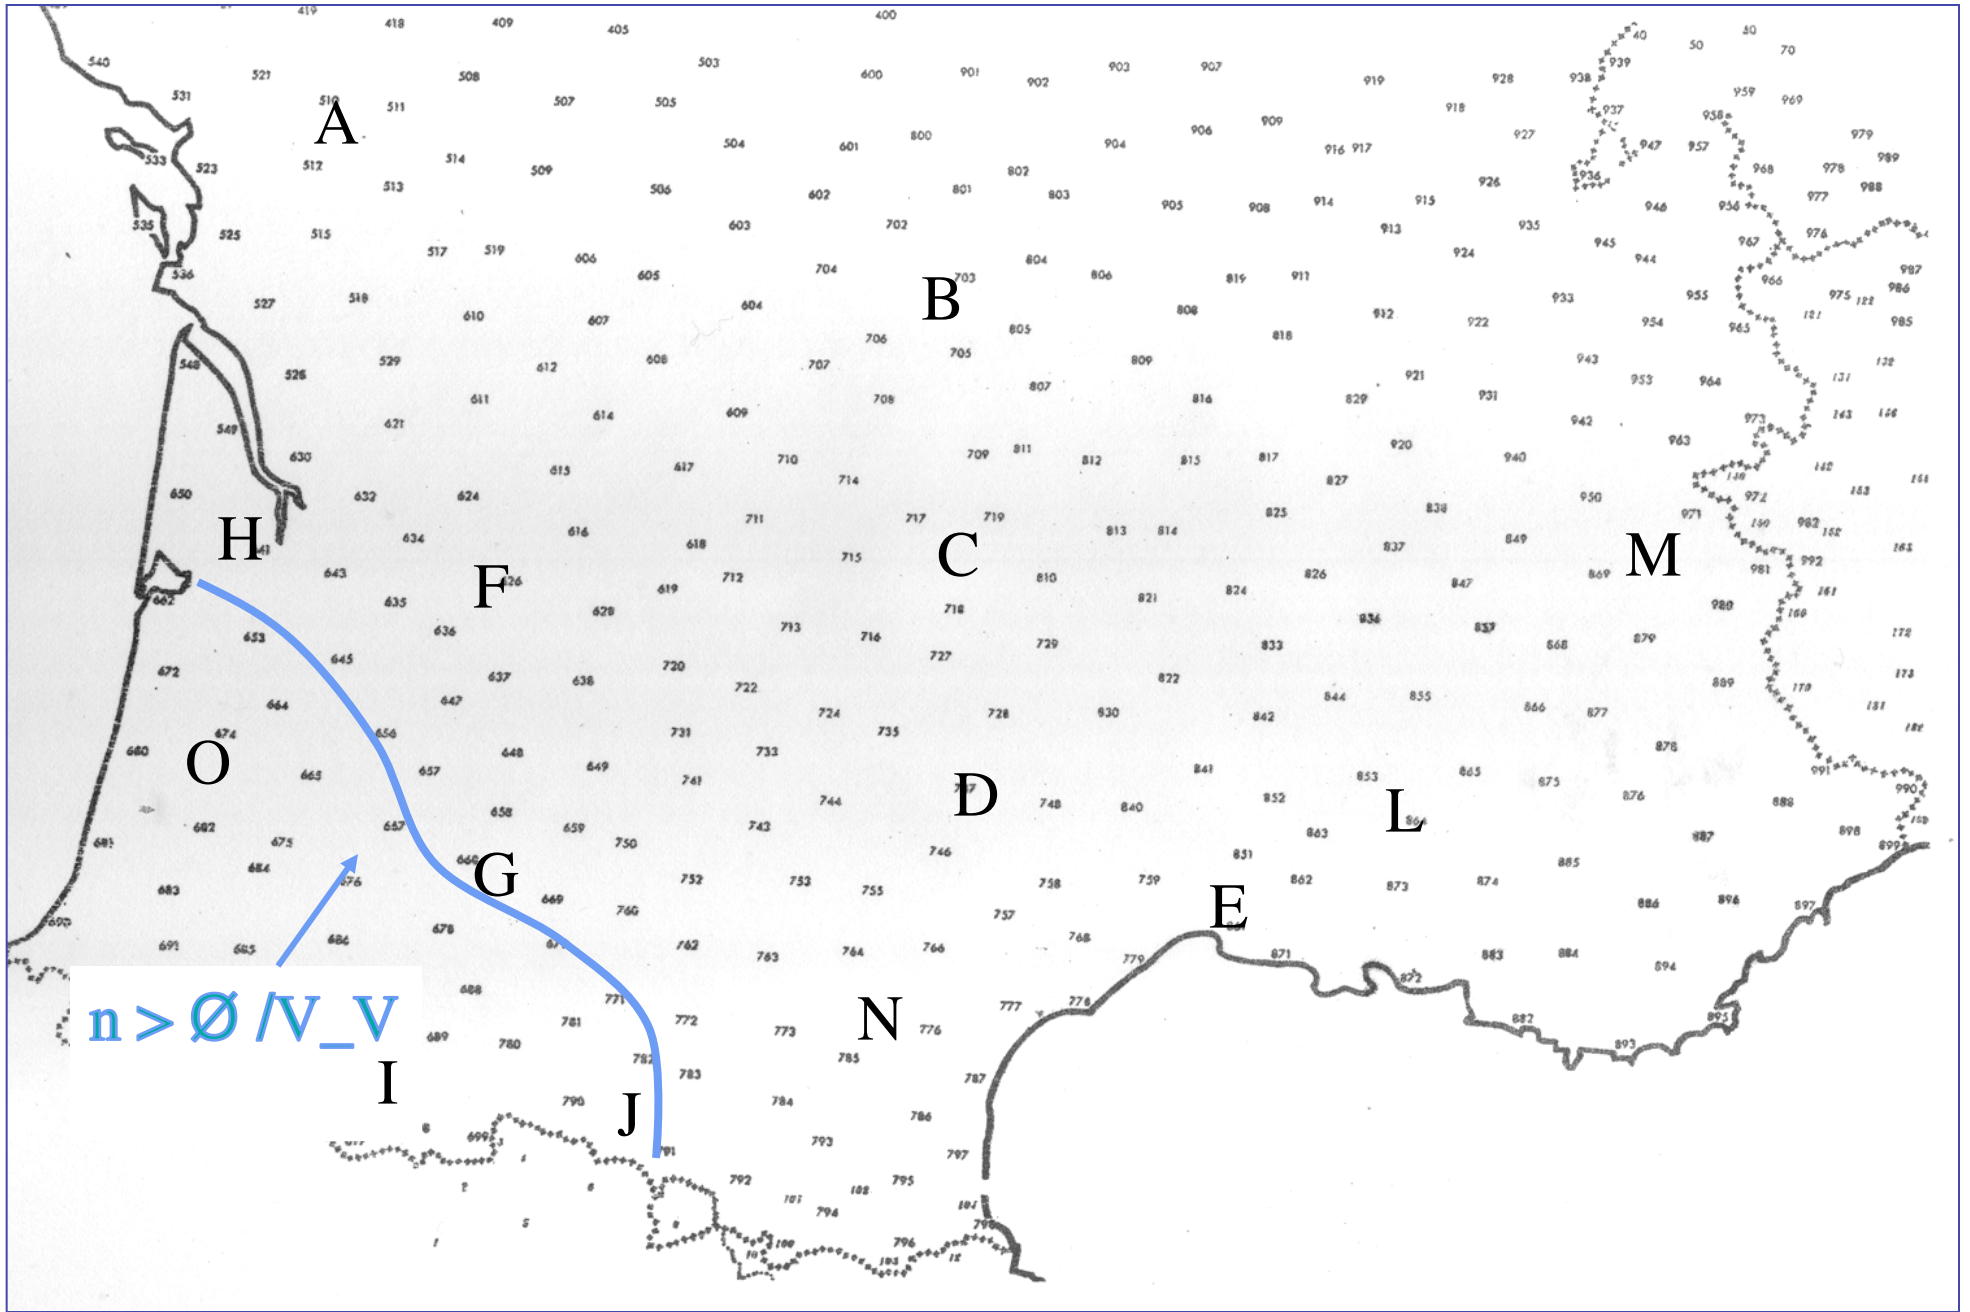

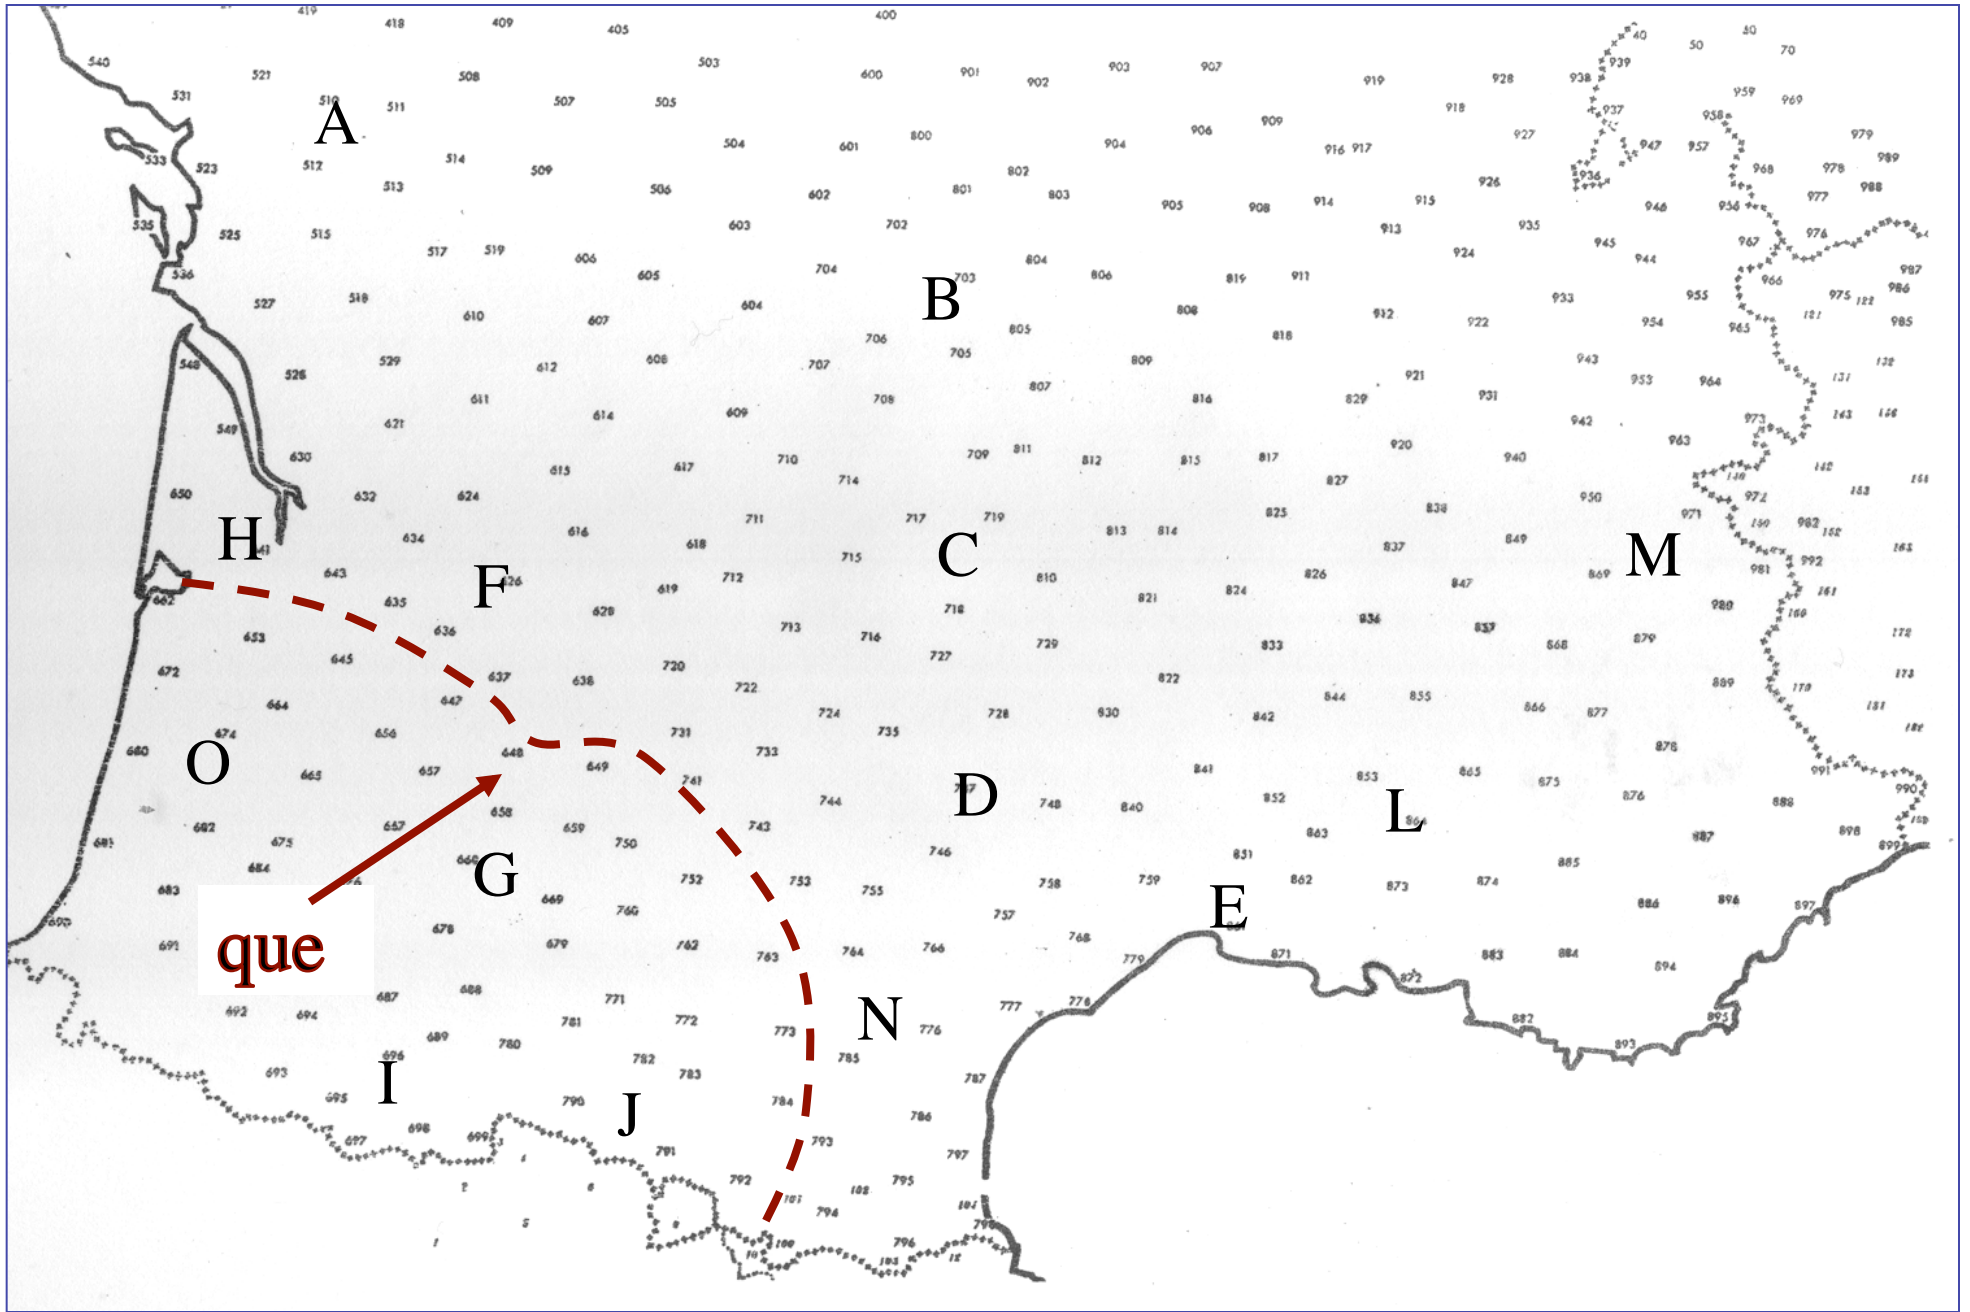

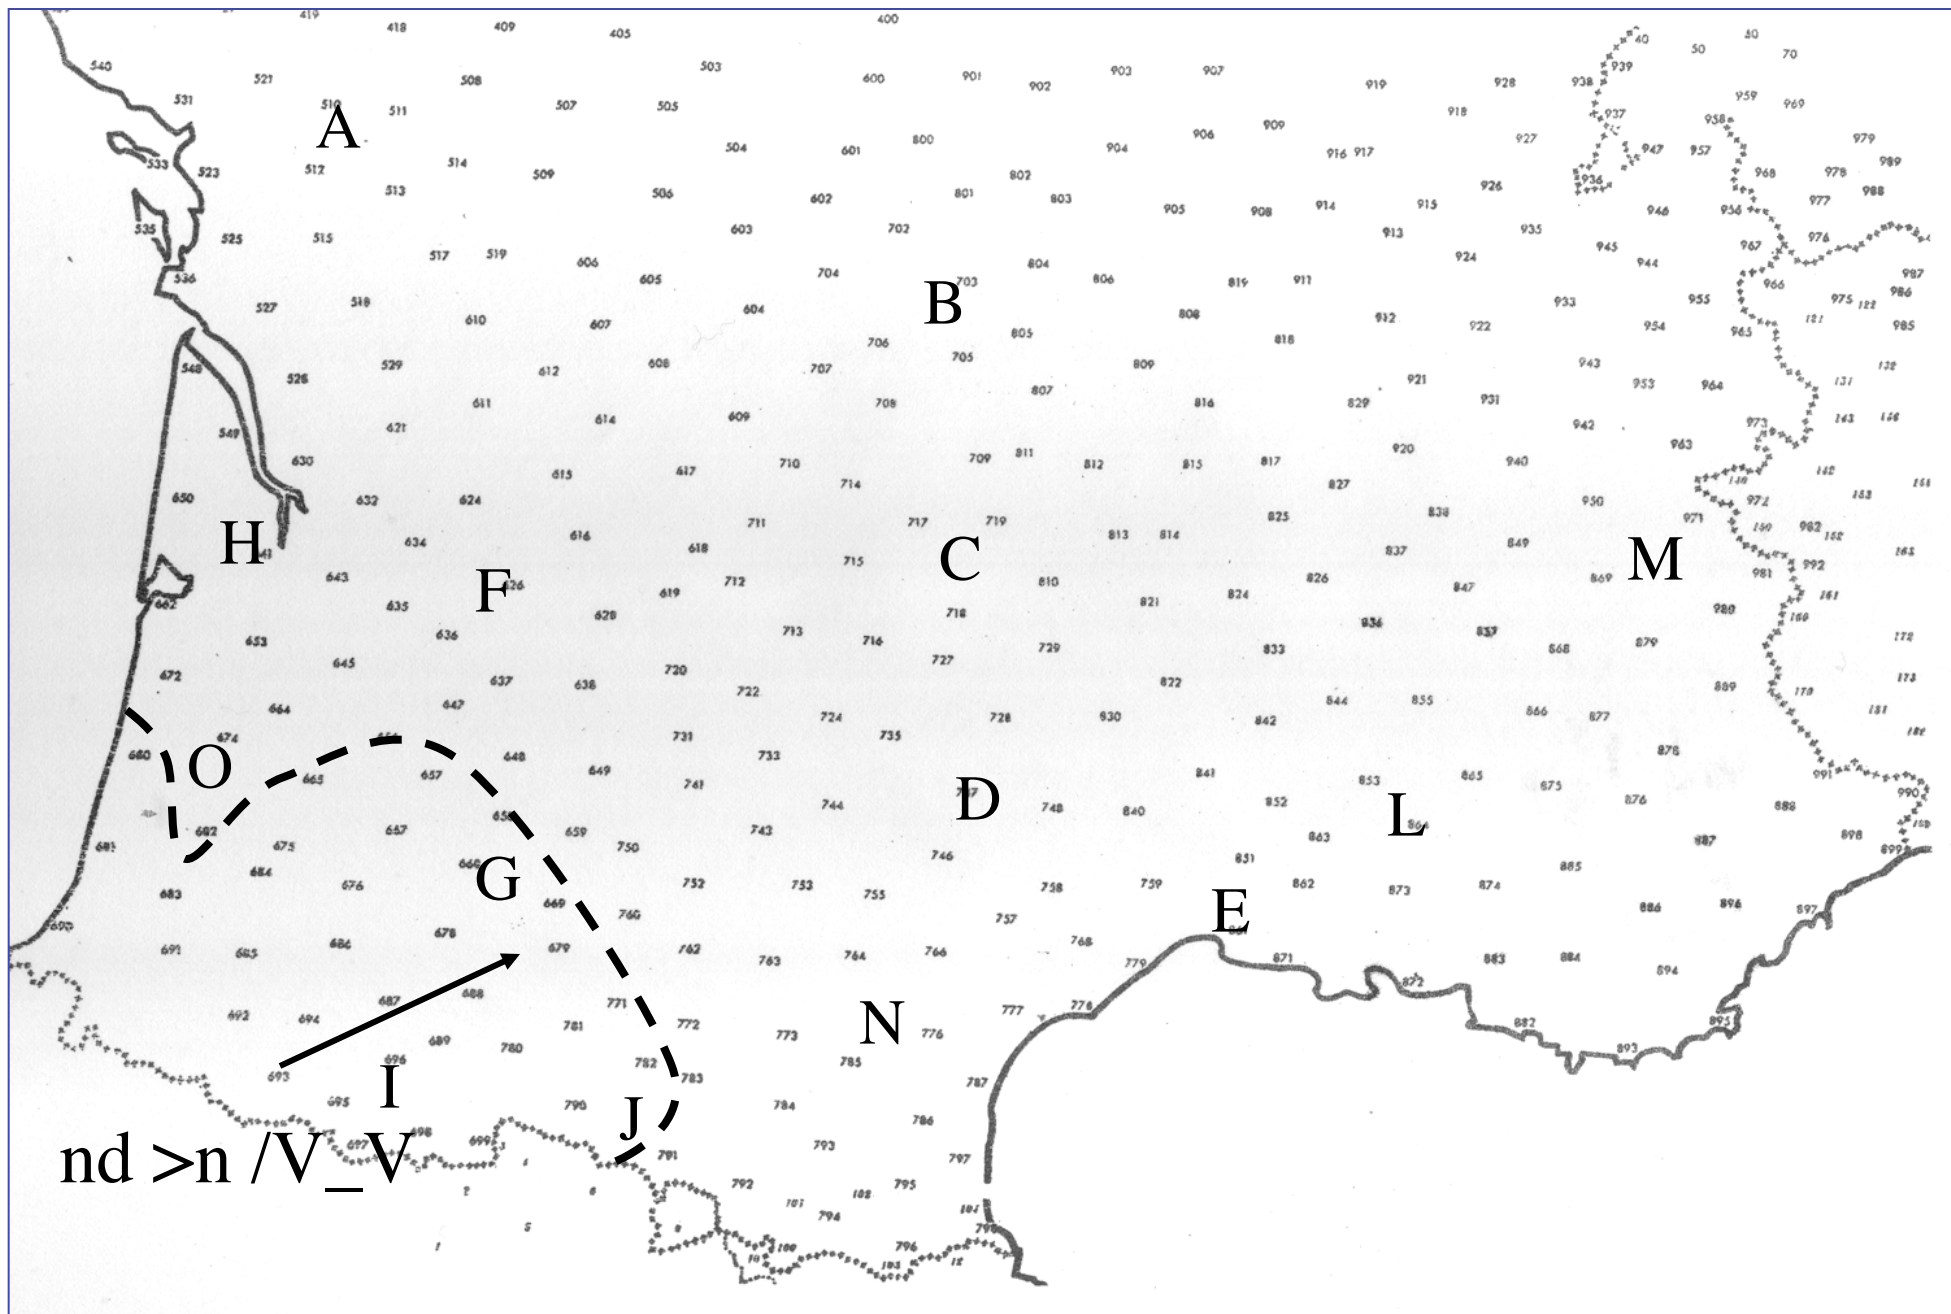

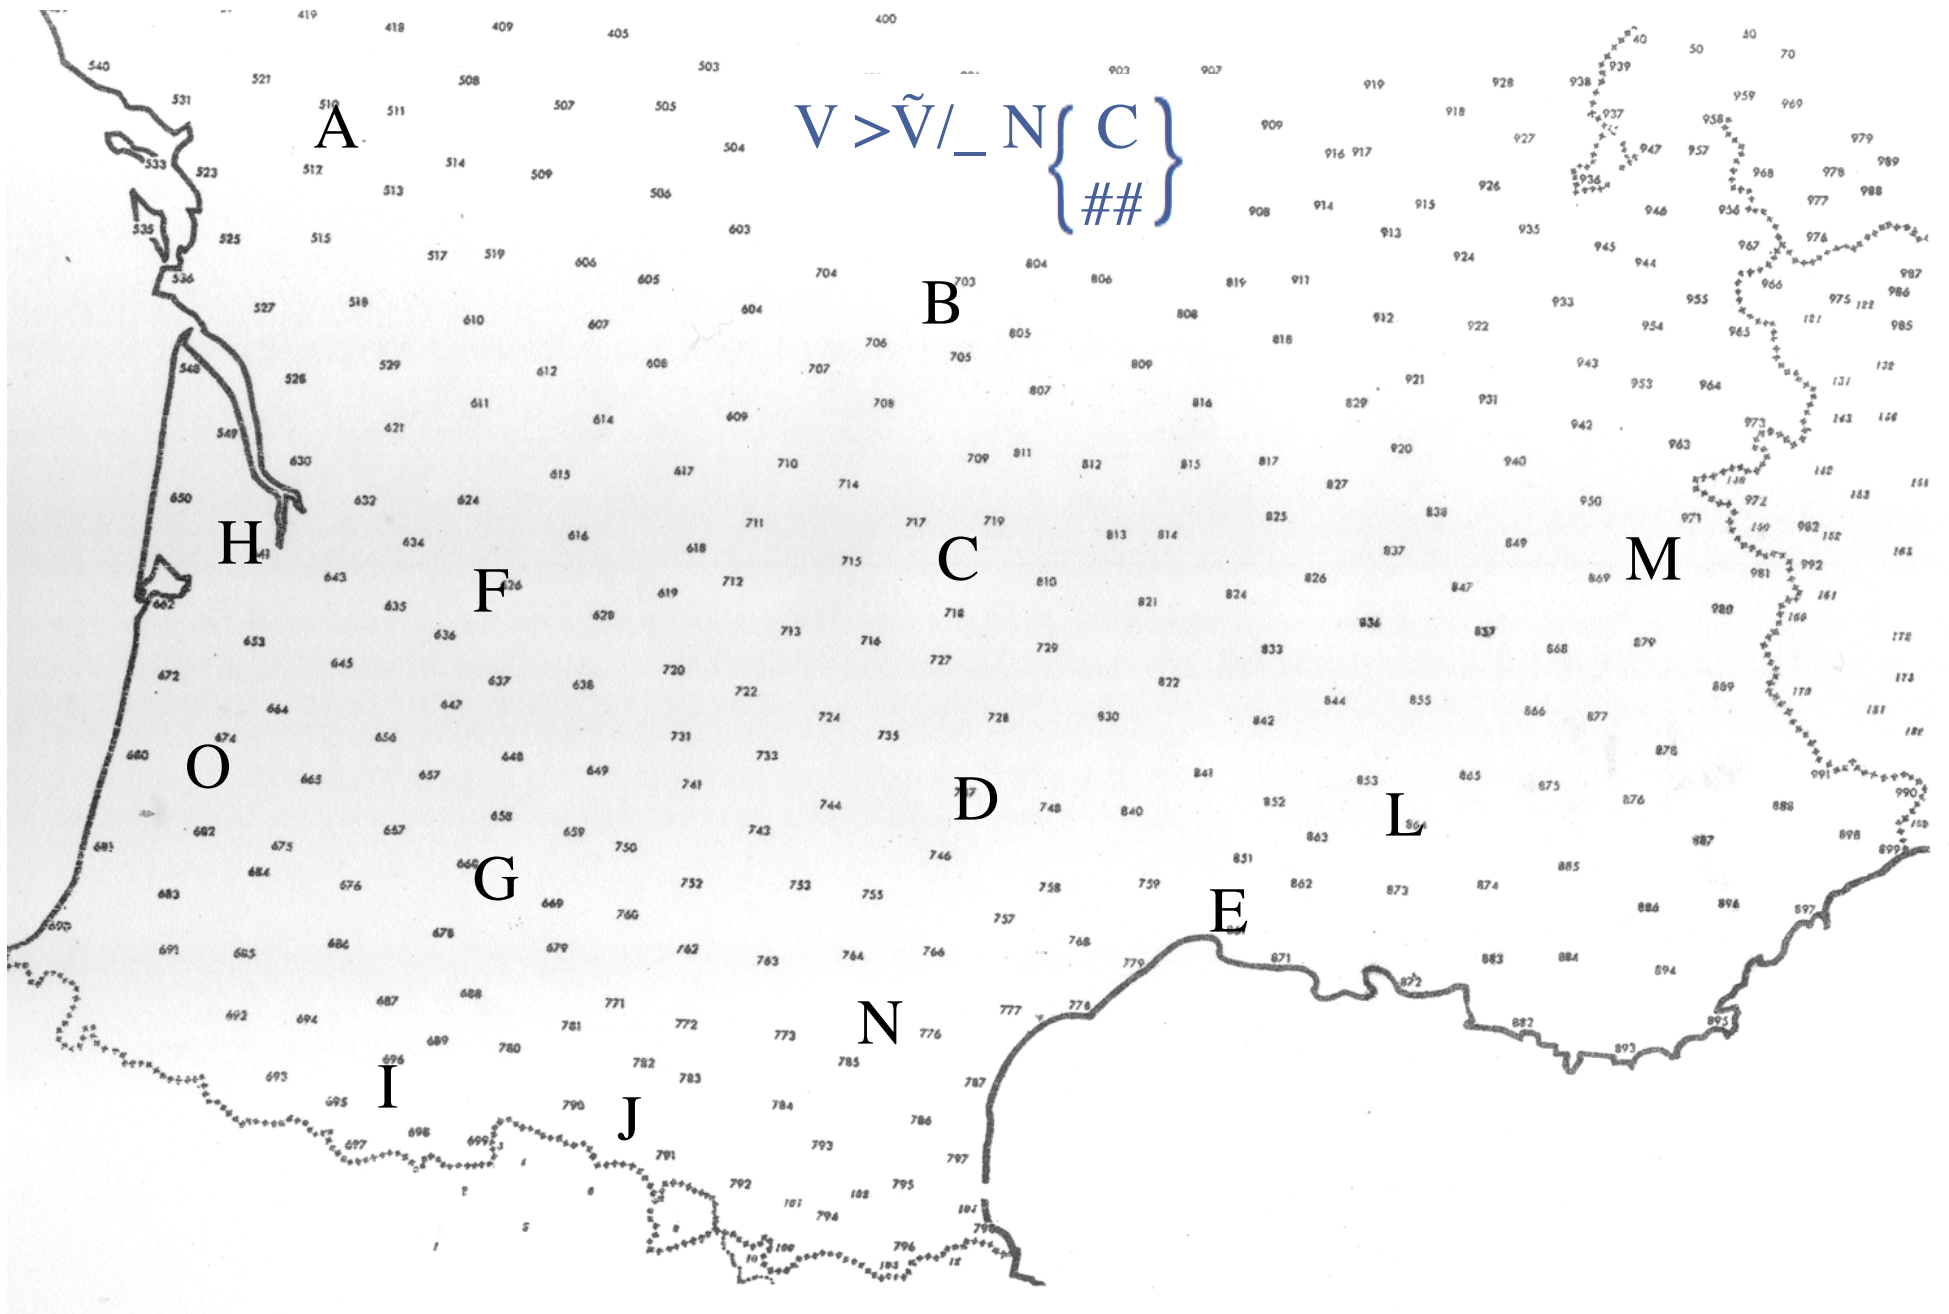

$$V > \tilde{V} / N \{ C \} \{ \# \# \}$$

A

B

C

D

E

F

G

I

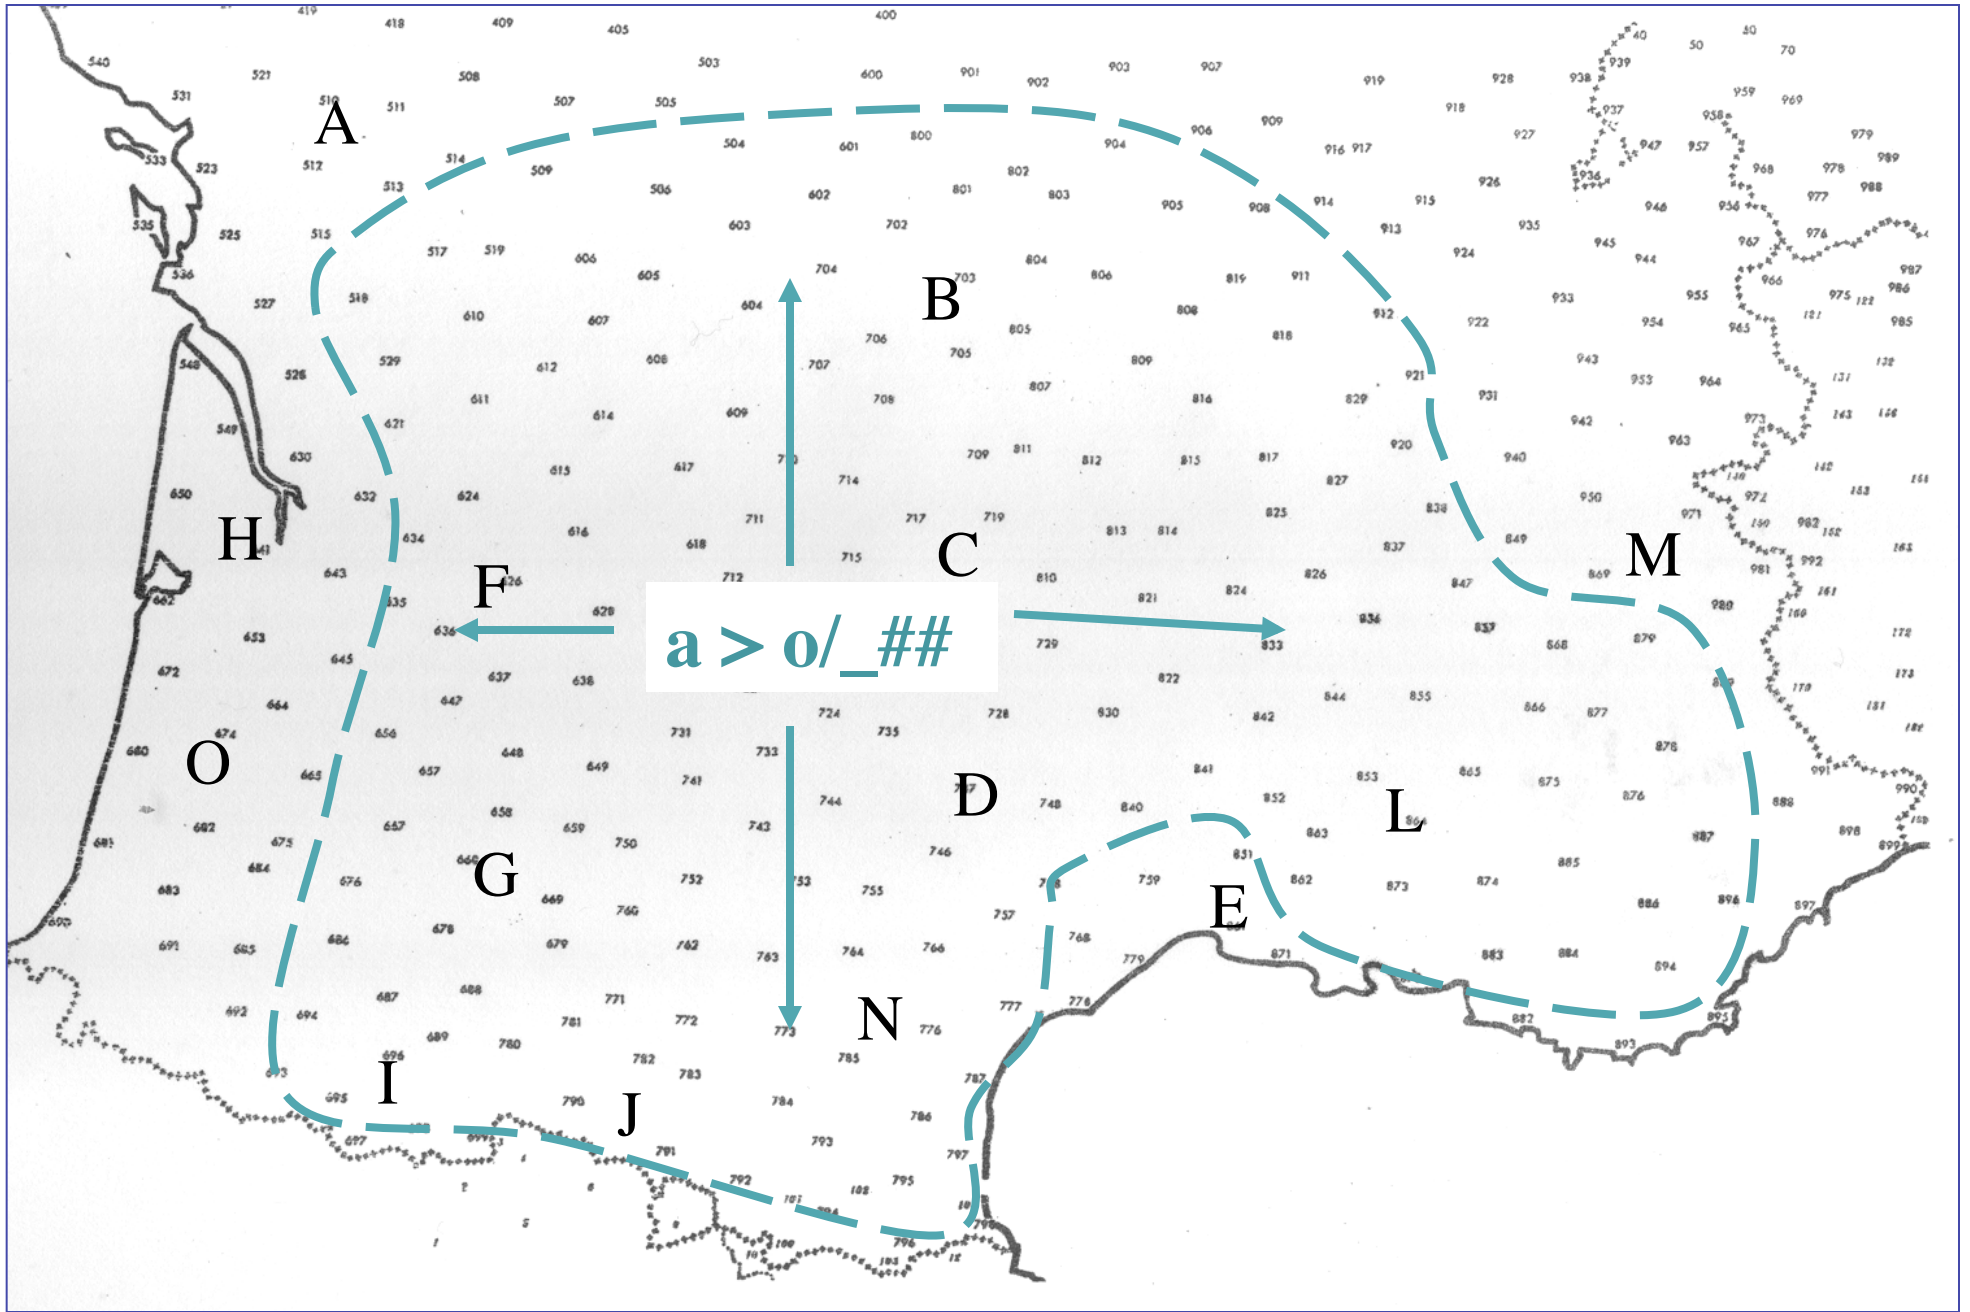

J

H

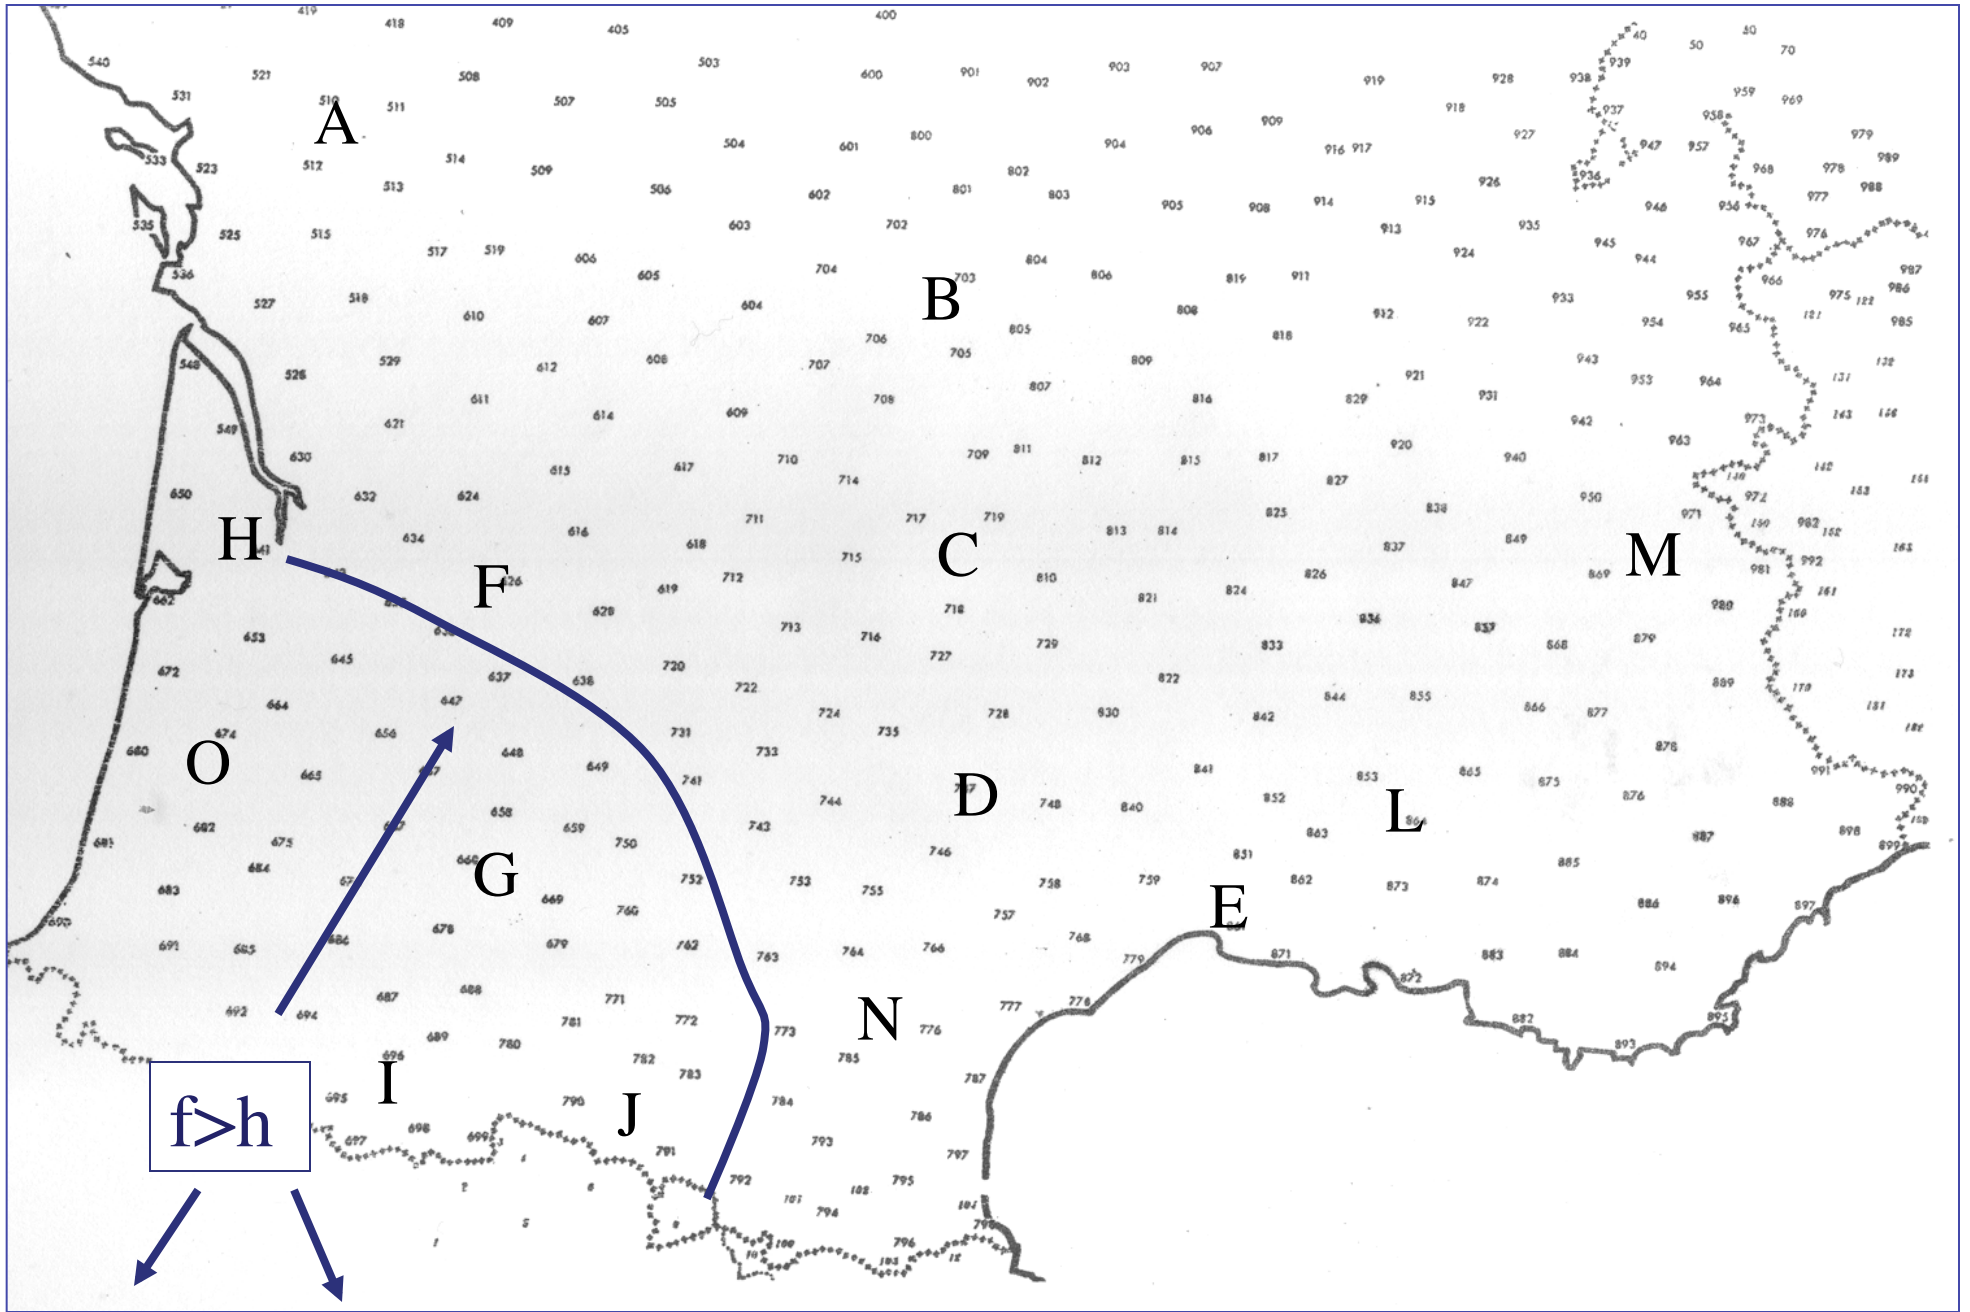

M

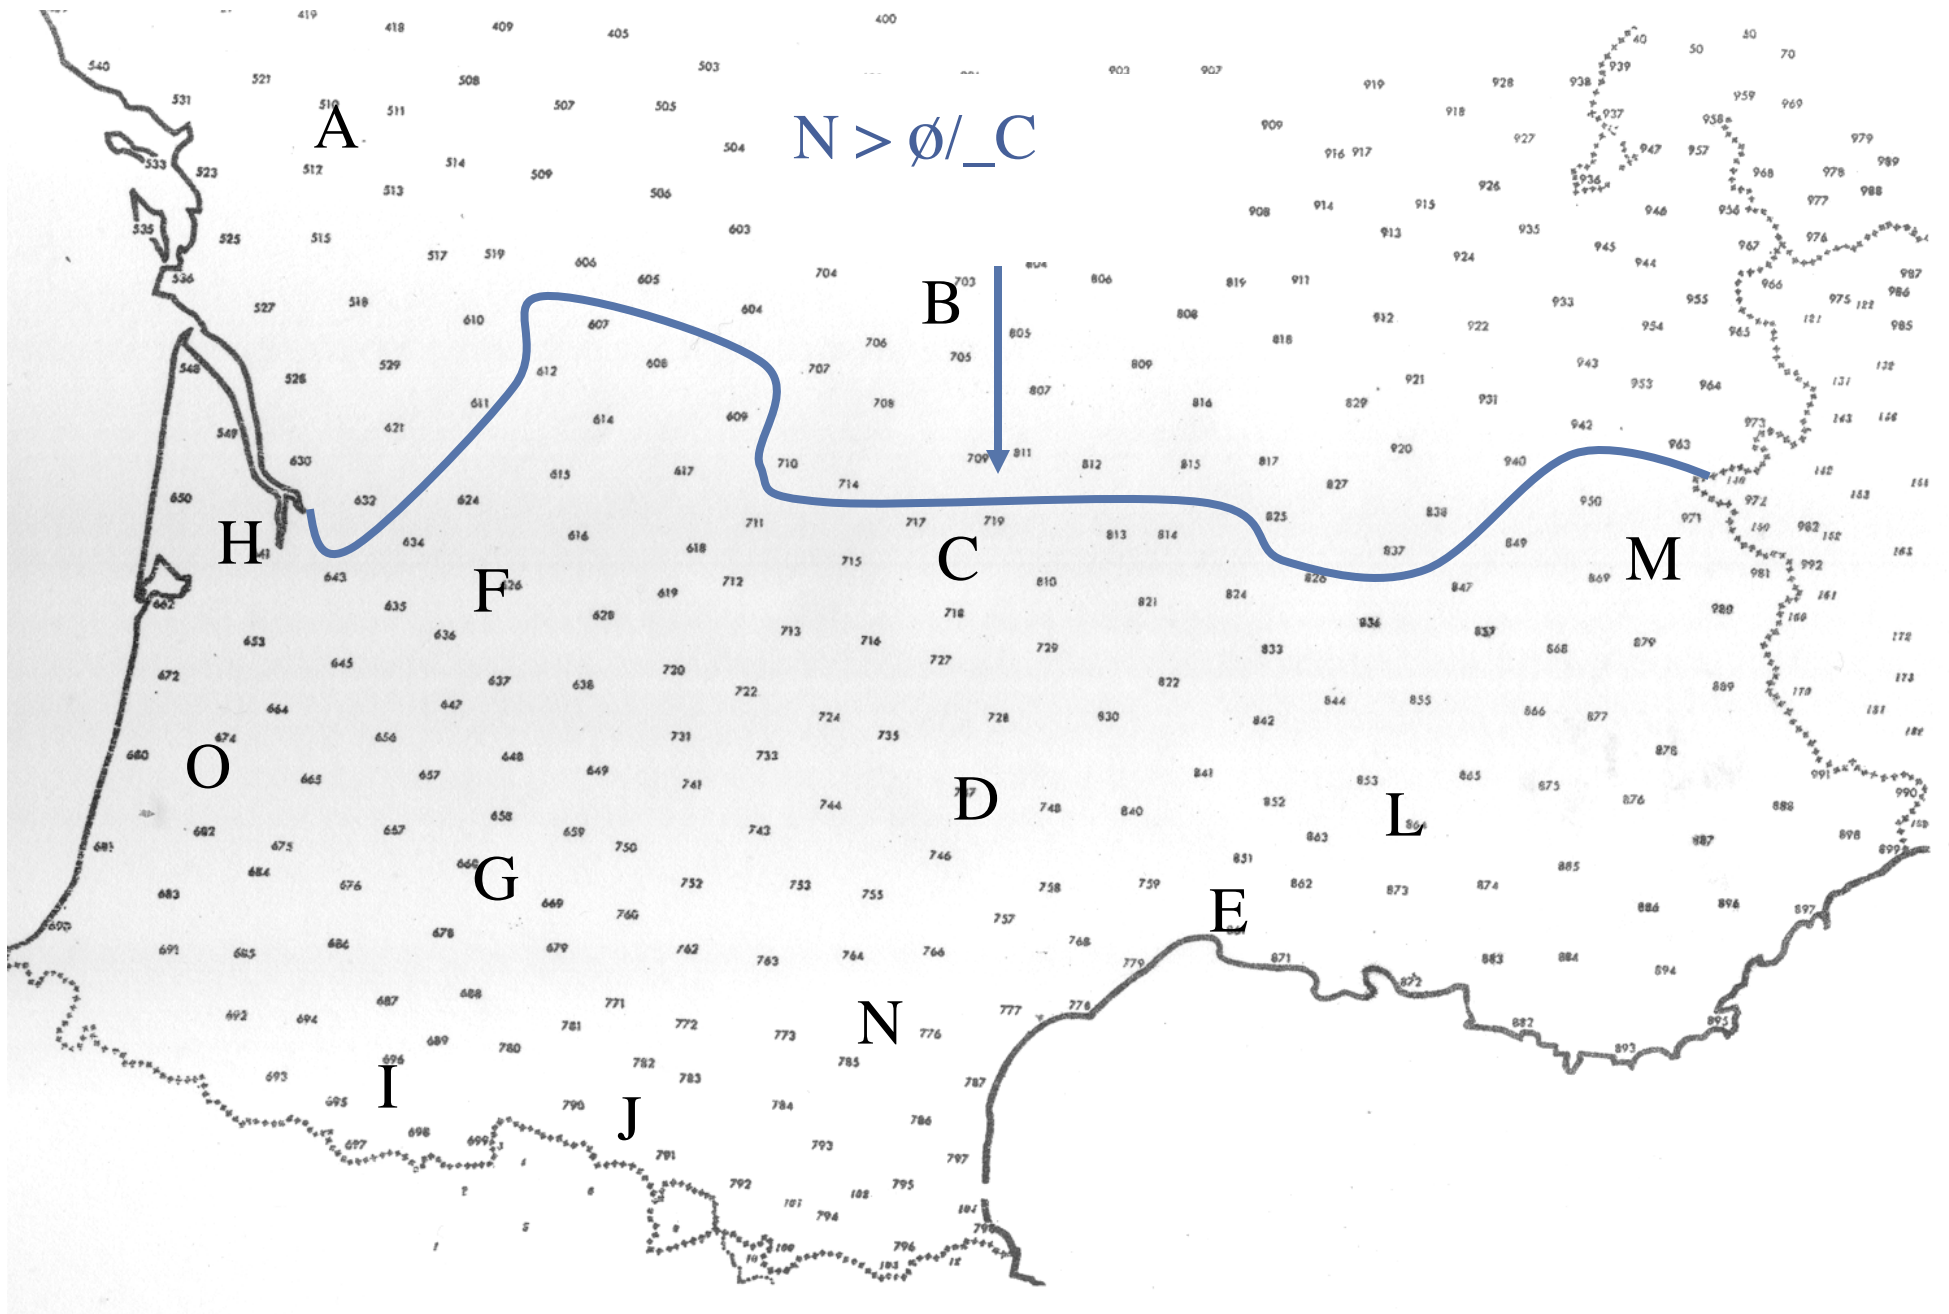

N

O

A

$N > \emptyset / _C$

B

H

F

C

M

O

D

L

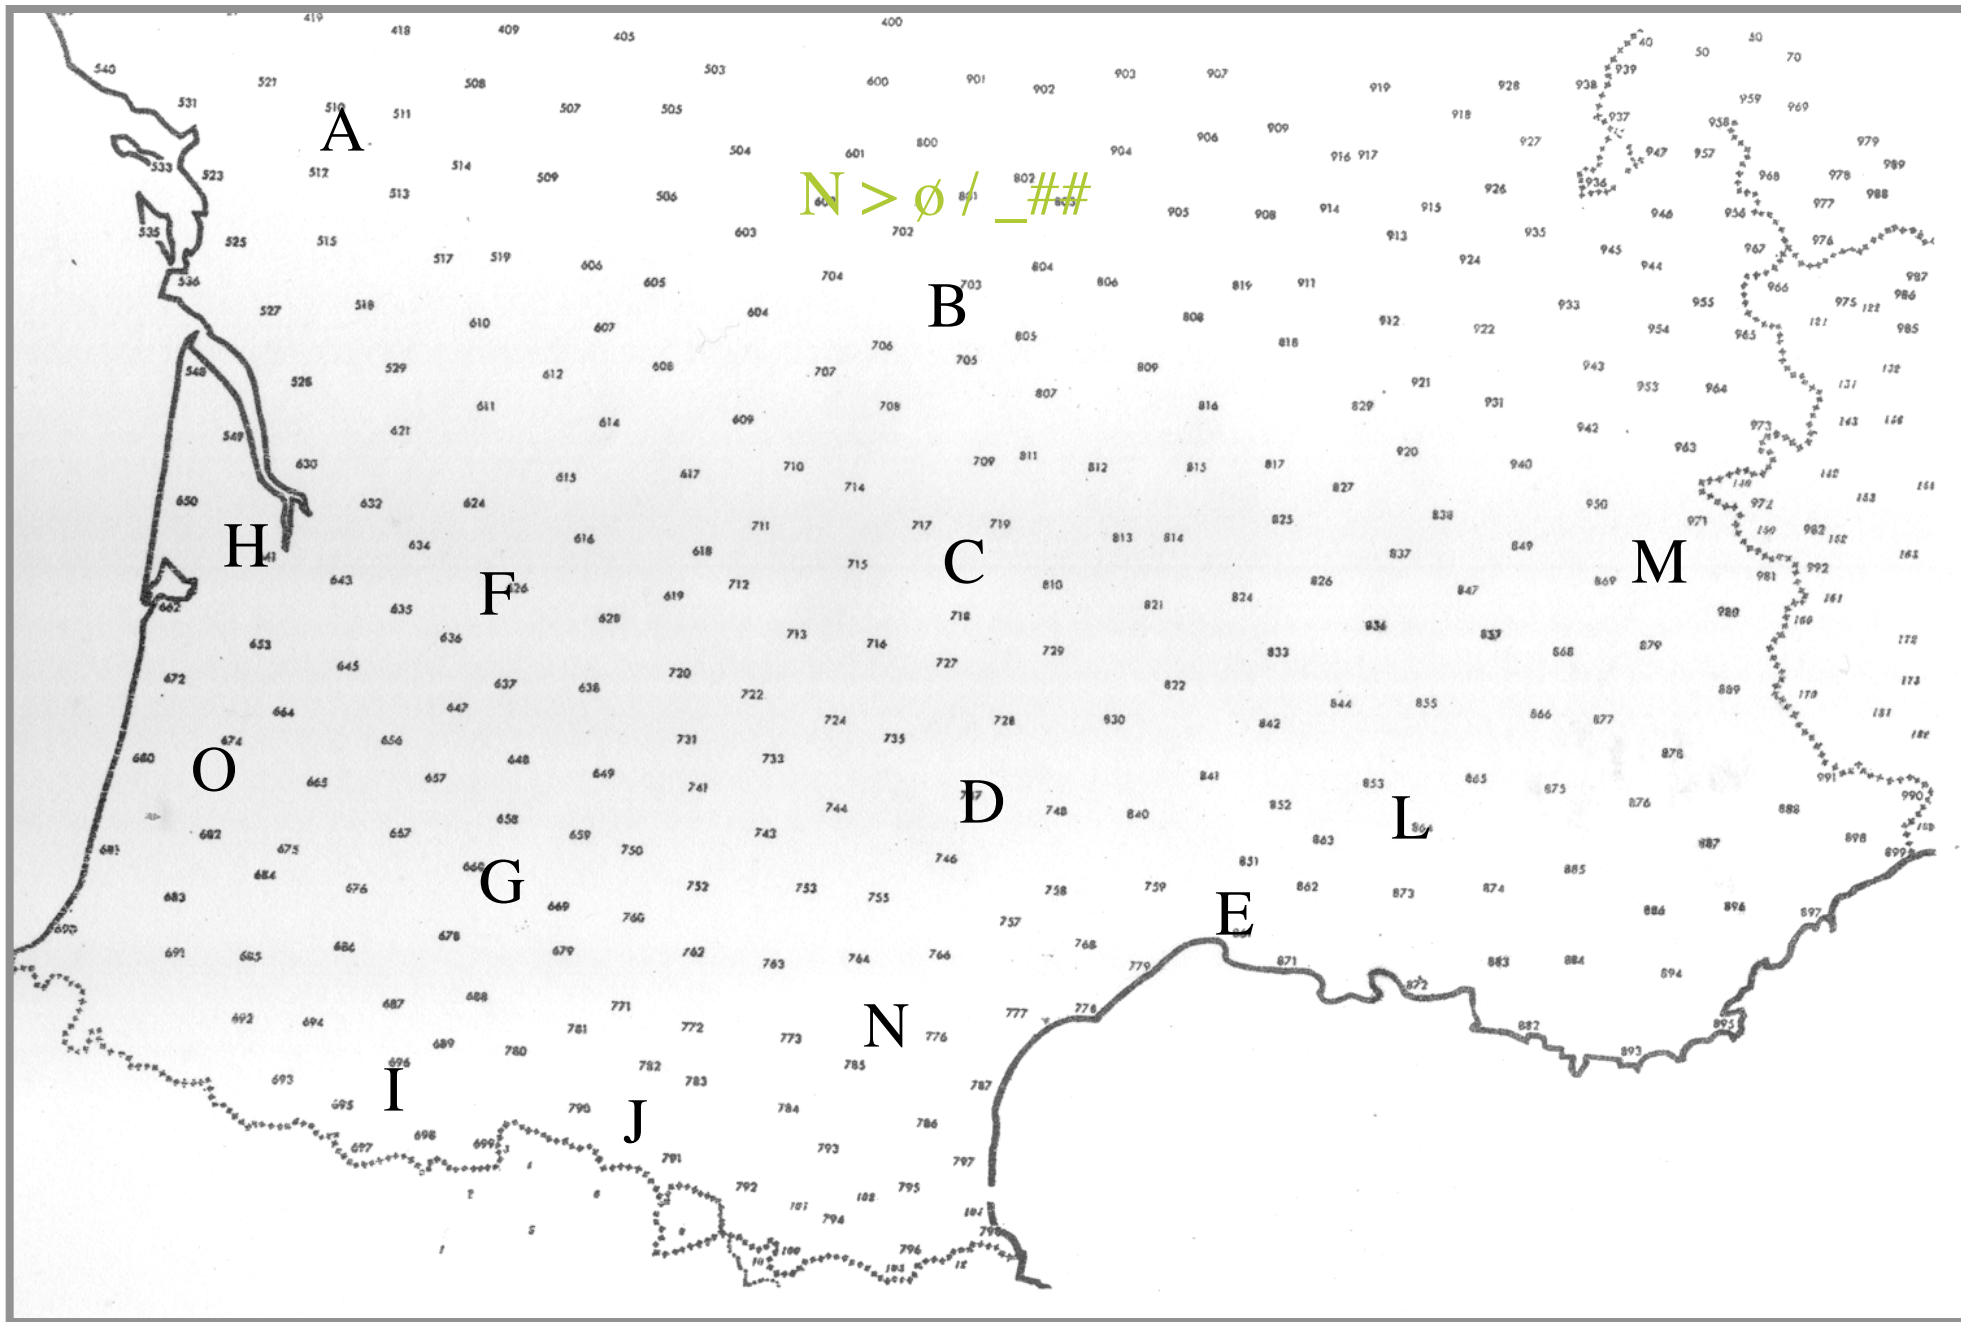

G

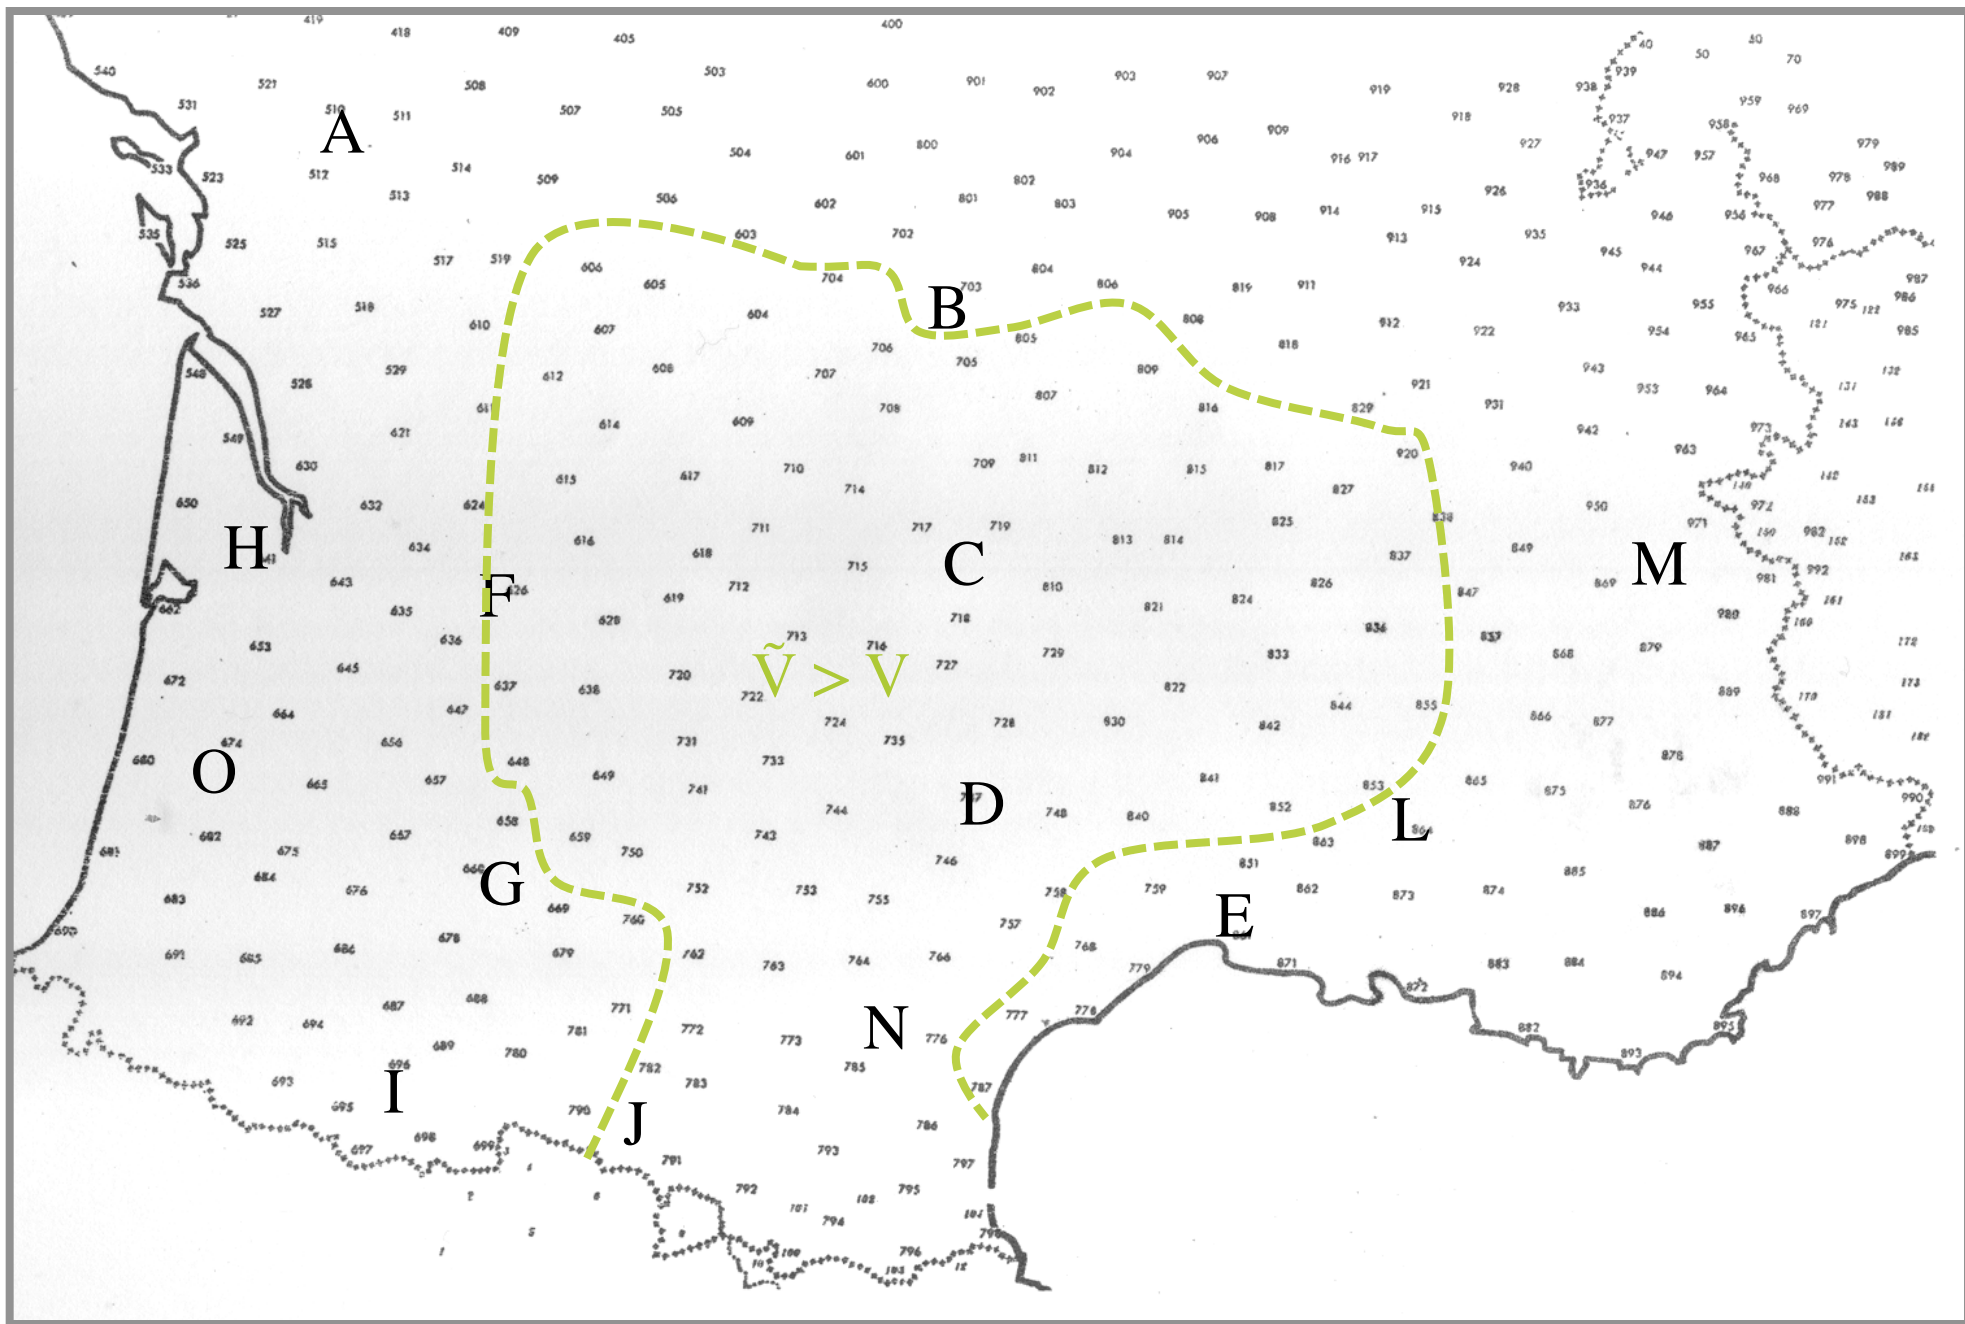

E

N

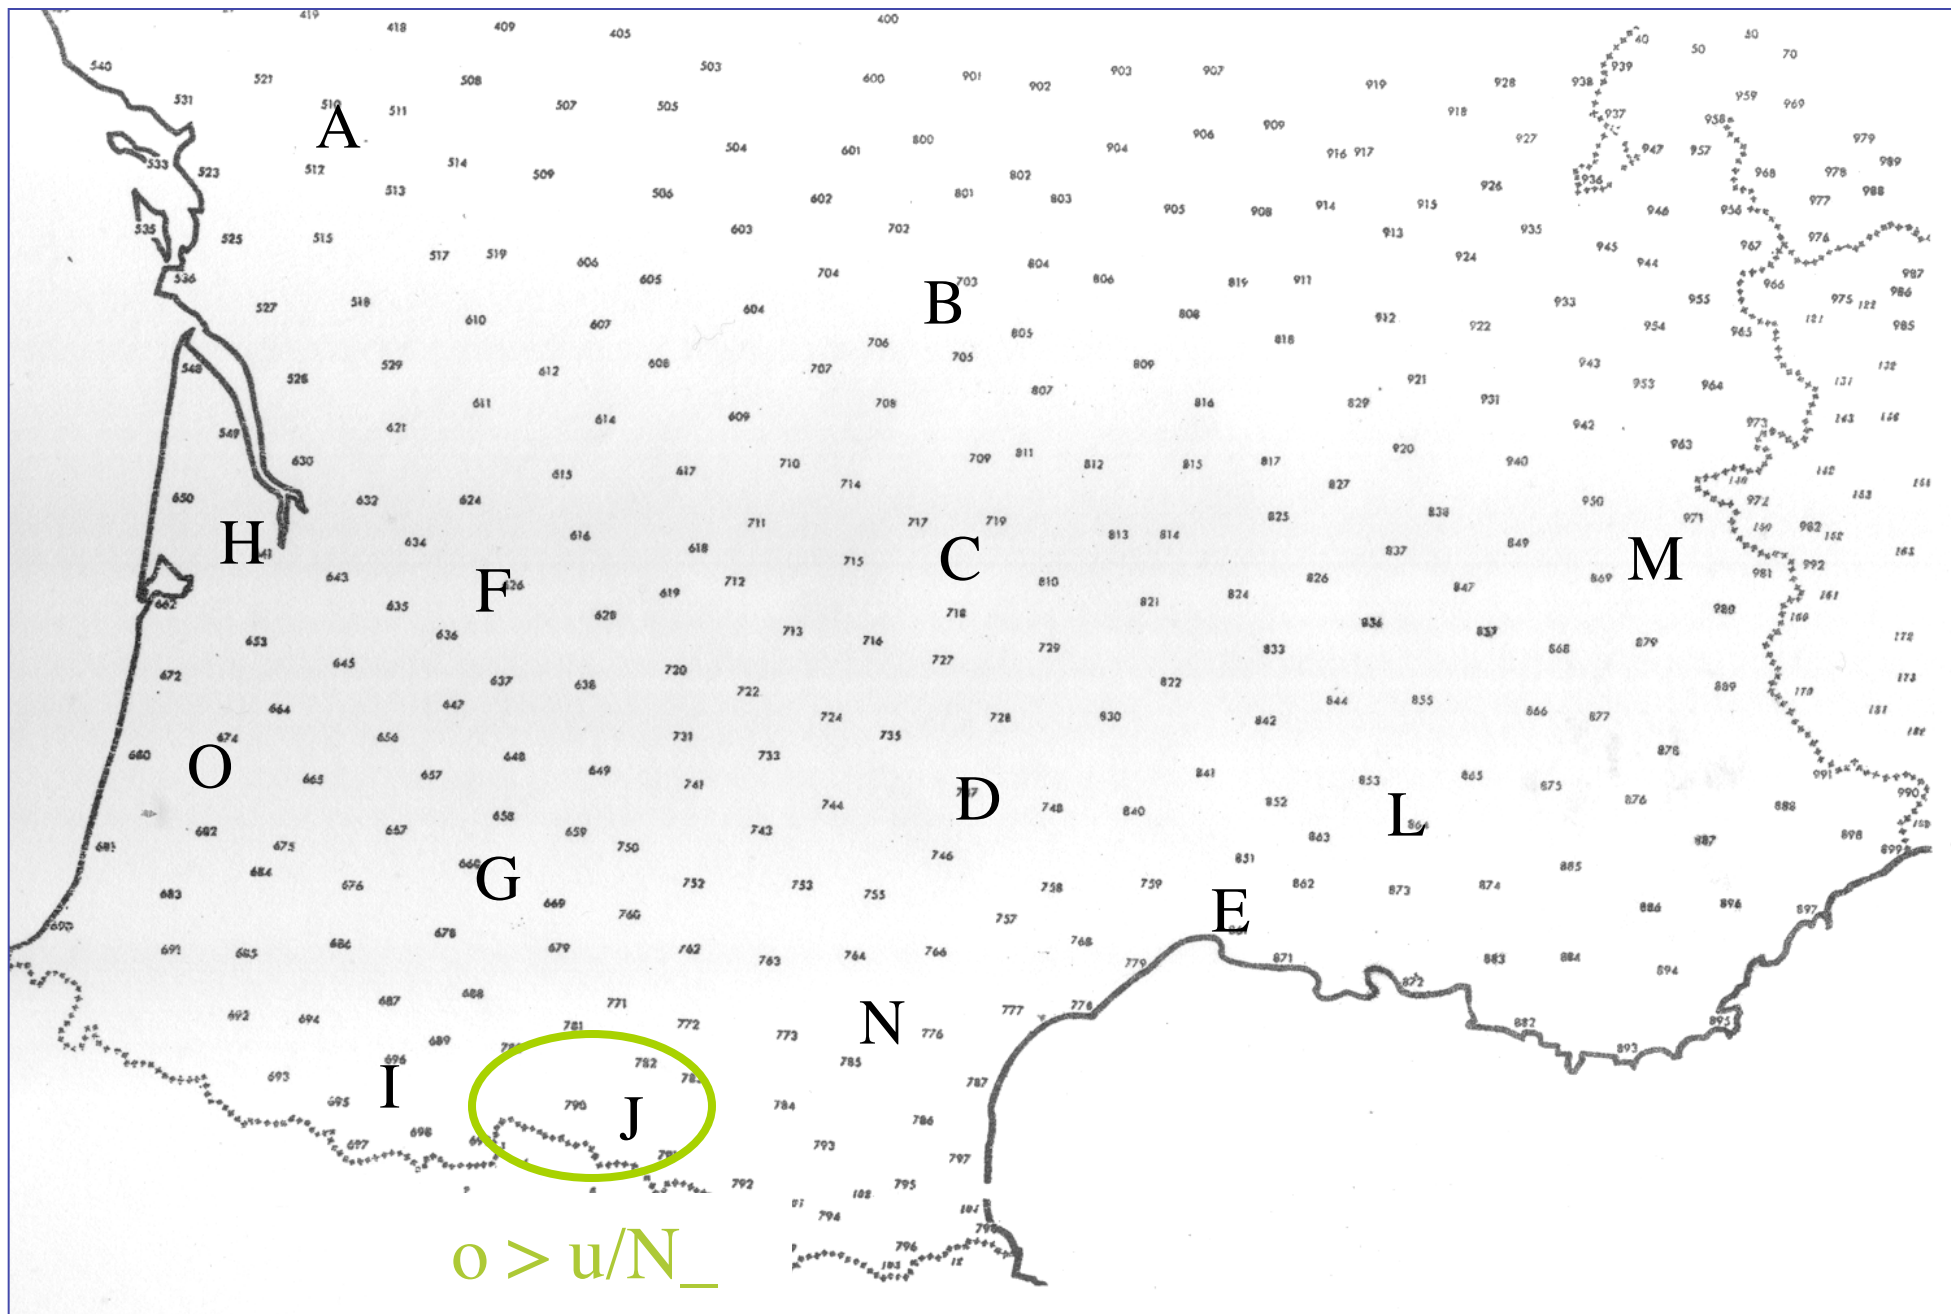

J

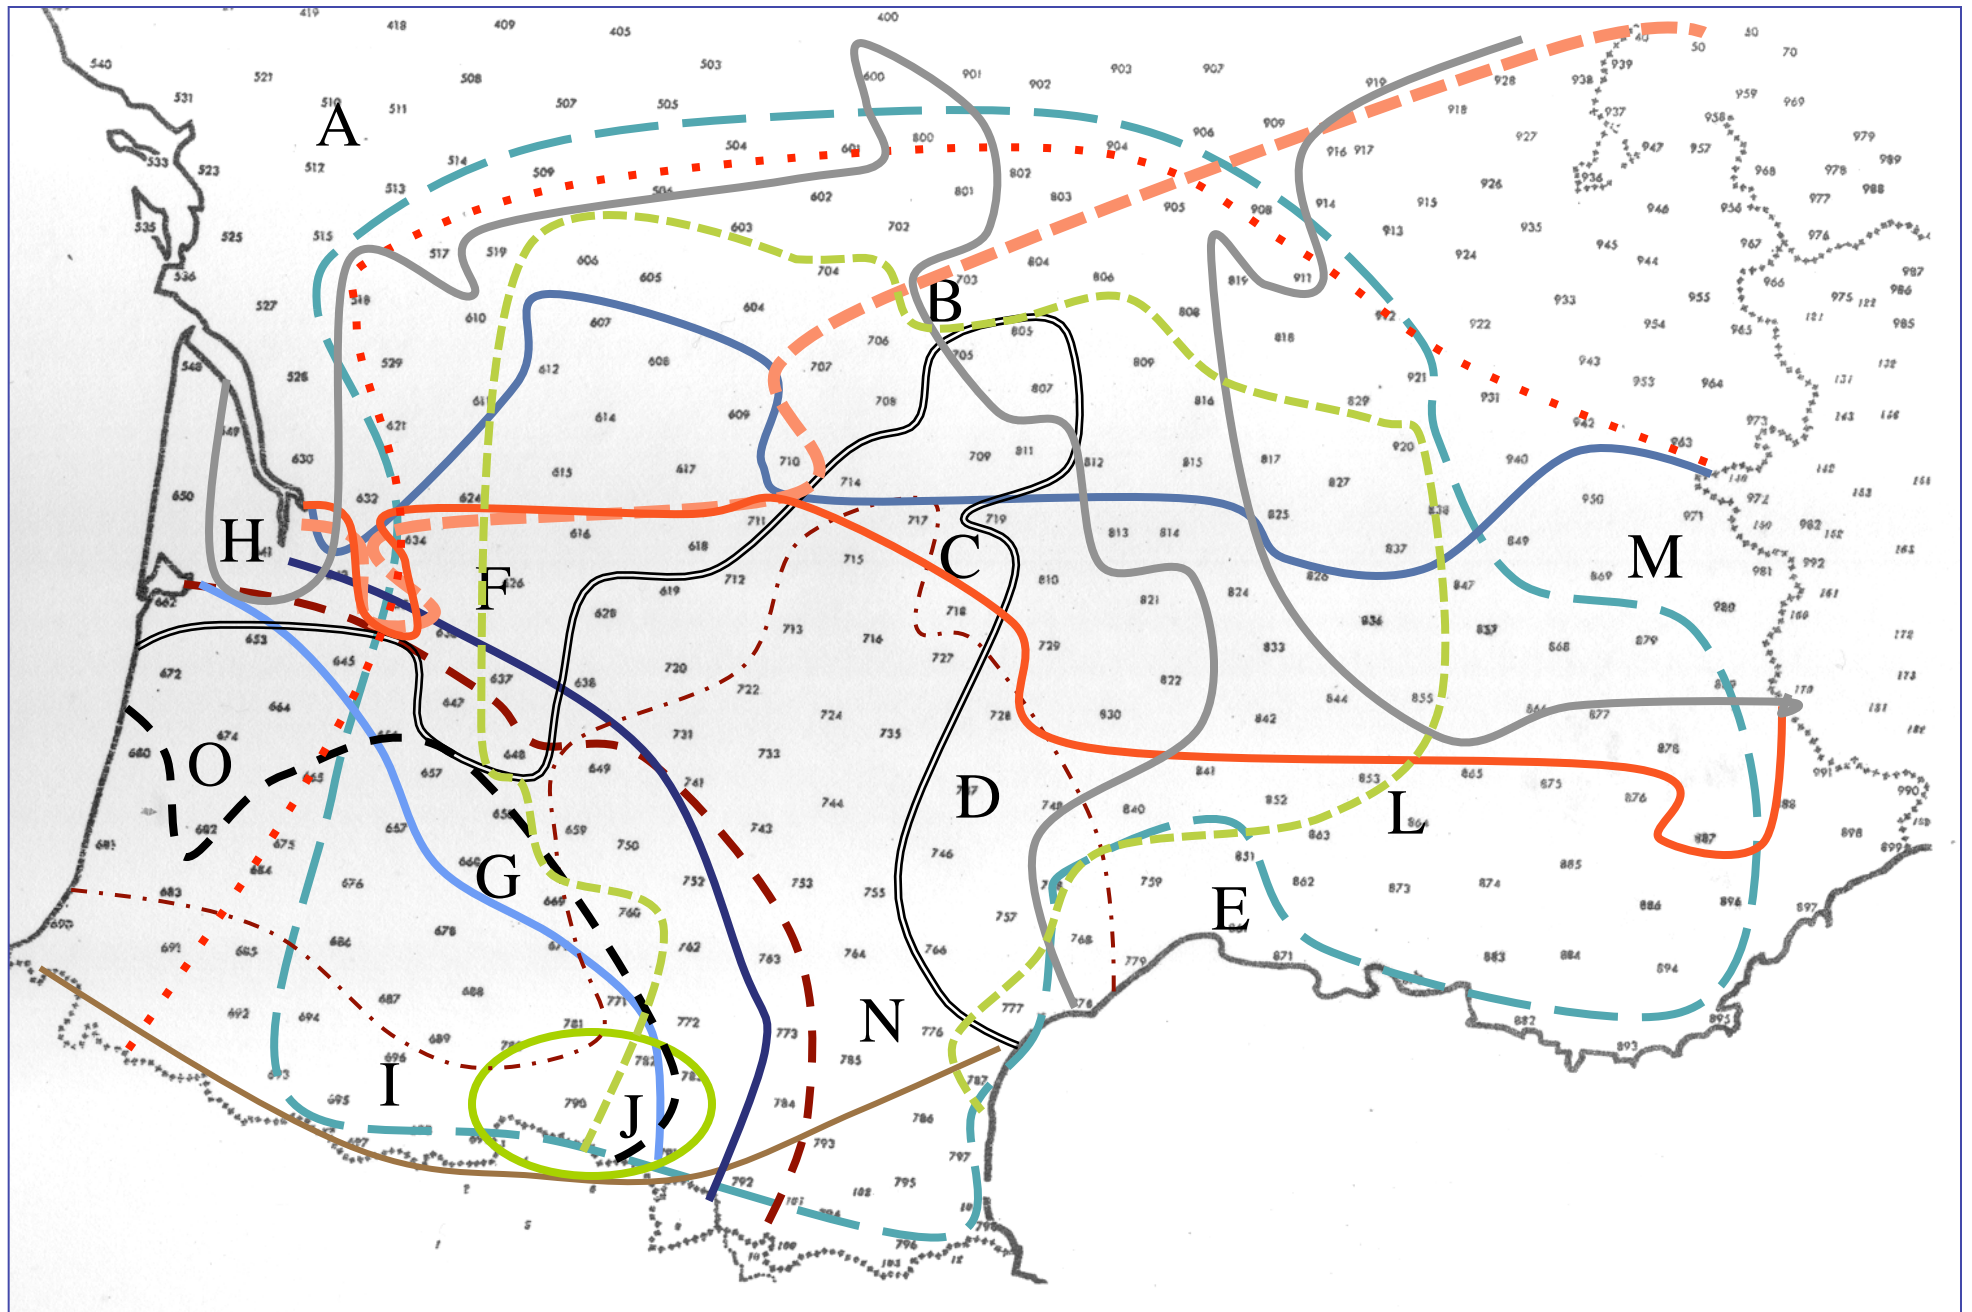

I

Which one gets to be the language?

- An elite forms in Ile de France
- Elites maintain themselves by rarifying the means of (meaning) production.
- Nation building requires codification.
- Keeping peasants on the land keeps the cities fed.