General Description:
Exams will be sent to proctors during the first week in February 2017. Testing typically takes place sometime during mid-to-late February, as arranged between you and your proctor. All exams must be completed and returned to the Inter-University Center administrative office at Stanford University for scoring by February 27, 2017. If you will not be able to meet this schedule, please call our office immediately to discuss your situation.

Inter-University Center Member Institution Applicants:
Students who are currently enrolled at an IUC member institution will take their IUC Japanese Proficiency Exam at that institution. Proctors have been pre-arranged. Proctors will receive your name, telephone number and email from the Stanford office and they will independently arrange for test times/dates. If you have questions regarding your proctor or exam date, please contact the Stanford administrative office <iucjapan@stanford.edu>.

Non-Member Institution Applicants or Applicants Not Presently Enrolled:
If you are presently enrolled at a non-member institution or not presently enrolled in school, you will need to obtain a professor or professional willing to proctor your IUC Japanese Proficiency Exam. Materials will be sent to your proctor sometime during early February. All exams must be completed and returned to the IUC administrative office at Stanford University for scoring by February 27, 2017. If you will not be able to meet this schedule, or if you have further questions about obtaining a proctor, please contact the Stanford administrative office immediately <iucjapan@stanford.edu>.

Students presently living in or applying from Japan:
If you are presently living in and applying from Japan, or will be in Japan during the exam period (February 2017), you may opt to take the exam at the IUC in Yokohama. The exam will be offered in Yokohama on Sunday, February 19 from 1:30-3:30 and again on Wednesday, February 22 from 1:30-3:30. Please circle your date and time preference and someone from the Yokohama will be in touch to finalize arrangements. If you are applying from Japan and unable to take the exam at the IUC Yokohama, please complete the information below with your proctor’s contact information. IUC Yokohama staff will be in touch with your proctor to arrange for the delivery of your exam materials. You are responsible for contacting your proctor to make exam arrangements and to complete the exam in a timely manner.
