Your Leadership Style & Its Effectiveness

for

Stanford California State Library Institute

Written by: Marilyn Manning Ph.D, CMC, CSP

Marilyn Manning, Ph.D., works with organizations to solve difficult people problems and with managers who want their teams to work together better. She gives speeches and workshops, facilitates teams, and coaches one-on-one for conflict resolution. She is one of only 16 speakers internationally who hold both the Certified Management Consultant (CMC) and the Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) designations.
Table of Contents

About the Presenter ...............................................................................2
Communication Styles ........................................................................3
Sending Communication .....................................................................4
“D-I-S-C” Behavioral Tendencies ..........................................................5
My Style ..............................................................................................6
DiSC Group Activity ...........................................................................7
Values & Norms ..................................................................................8
Tips on Coaching Through Situational Strategies ...............................9
DiSC and Stress ..................................................................................11
Organization Values: Team .................................................................12
Norms ..................................................................................................13
Norms: Examples ................................................................................14
DiSC 8 CASES ...................................................................................15
Appendix .............................................................................................16
Training Materials ................................................................................17
Personal & Interpersonal (360’) Profile Systems .................................19
Resource Books & Tapes .....................................................................20
Reading List ........................................................................................21