PLANNING AND BUILDING THE 21ST CENTURY PUBLIC LIBRARY
PUBLIC LIBRARY BUILDING PLANNING RESOURCE MATERIALS

Public Library Needs Assessment

Public Library Building Program Development

Stanford University – California State Library

March, 2001
(Additional Information Inserted April, 2001)

Prepared by:
David R. Smith
Consulting Librarian
130 Holly Road
Hopkins, MN  55343
(952) 933-0199
LIST OF HANDOUTS

Community Analysis – Demographics CA-1

Environmental Considerations CA-2 - 5

Library Facility Needs for the Selected Library Service Responses – Sample Page CA-6

LIBRARY SPACE NEEDS ASSESSMENT – Sample Pages

Public Library Space Needs and Alternatives Study – Outline NA-1

Table of Contents (Sample) NA-2 - 3

Library Building Planning Resource Materials and Persons NA-4 - 5

Survey Summary of Building Needs NA-6

Circulation Desk Area NA-7

Computer Labs (2) NA-8

Summary of Additional Library Space to Meet Projected Needs NA-9

Recommendations – What Should Be Done? NA-10 - 11

LIBRARY BUILDING PROGRAM – Sample Pages

Library Building Program – Outline/Table of Contents BP-1 – 8

Basic Allocations of Space Used B-9

Building Design Requirements BP-10 – 12

Instructions to the Architect BP-13

Summary of Spaces and Capacities BP-14

Circulation Services and Computer Labs BP-15

Shelving Detail for Major Collections BP-16

Description of Allocated Building Areas

Circulation Services BP-17-20

Computer Lab(s) BP-21

General Building Design Requirements – Lighting BP-22 - 23

For a selected bibliography and the handouts from the November 2000 Library Facility Planning Workshops, see: http://institute21.stanford.edu/programs/workshop/facilities/introductory.html

Rev. 4/01