Stanford University Intramural Sports

Intramural Code of Conduct: Sportsmanship policies will be enforced strictly to ensure that all Intramural Sports participants and staff have an opportunity to play in the safest, most enjoyable atmosphere possible. Actions that are dangerous and or harmful to staff and participants will not be tolerated.

Suspensions: Listed below are the type of suspensions any player could receive if in violation of the Intramural Code of Conduct and Sportsmanship policy:

- 365 Day Suspension
- Quarter/Season Suspension
- Game Suspension
- Probation

Unsportsmanlike Behavior: Any player who commits, attempts, incites or aids in others in committing misconduct will be subjected to disciplinary procedures by the Intramural Sports office. There is a ZERO tolerance for unsportsmanlike conduct towards Intramural staff and participants.

- Team managers are responsible for the conduct of their players/spectators
- Unsportsmanlike conduct includes but not limited to the following participants and Intramural Staff:
  - Fighting (pushing, punching, late hits, tripping etc)
  - Profanity, insulting, vulgar or gestures towards other players
  - Verbal or physical taunting to participant or IM Staff
  - Approaching participants or staff after contest in inappropriate manner.

Ejections and Suspensions: Pertain to league only. Unless excessive, could apply to multiple leagues

- Automatic one game suspension for individual ejections
- Players may be ejected for two unsportsmanlike penalties, one severe penalty
- A player receiving 2 unsportsmanlike penalties (Ex: 2 technical fouls, 2 yellow cards, 2 major penalties)
- Player called for 1 unsportsmanlike penalty (Ex: Red Card, Flagrant Foul)
- Ejected players must leave the playing area and facility
- Reinstatement meetings are conducted by the Intramural Sports office
- Players are not eligible to return until they have had their reinstatement meeting
Team Violations:

- If a team receives 3 unsportsmanlike penalties in one game the team will be under review by the Intramural Sports office
- Intramural probation places a team on a term of probation for excessive unsportsmanlike violations
- Teams can be under probation for one game up to the entire year
- Teams do not receive refunds if removed from the league

Individual Violations: Violations include but not limited to arguing with an official, shoving opponents, profanity, threatening, and or fighting. Intramural Sports office reserves the right of the discretion of Intramural staff to assess the severity of the violation.

- 1st- Warning
- 2nd- Technical Foul, Unsportsmanlike Conduct
- 3rd- Automatic Ejection, Suspension, Probation or Termination of player eligibility

Reinstatement Process:

- Players/Teams must meet with Assistant Director of Intramural Sports in order to be reinstated into the league(s)
- If players fail to meet with Assistant Director and continue to participate in leagues, automatic league suspension will be given.
- Players will receive an email to set up a time to meet with Assistant Director