Courses offered by the School of Law are listed on the Stanford Bulletin's ExploreCourses web site under the subject codes LAW and LAWGEN.

The School of Law, established 1893, provides a legal education for students who are fitted by their maturity and academic training to pursue professional study under University methods of instruction. The curriculum leading to the first professional degree in law, the Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.D.), constitutes an adequate preparation for the practice of law in any English-speaking jurisdiction. Graduate work leading to the degrees of Master of Laws (L.L.M.), Master of the Science of Law (J.S.M.), and Doctor of the Science of Law (J.S.D.), and a non-professional degree, Master of Legal Studies (M.L.S.), is also offered. For the full curriculum, see <http://lawreg.stanford.edu/stanford>. Stanford Law School offers joint or dual degree options in combination with other Stanford graduate departments and universities across the country; see the "Joint and Dual Degrees in Law" section of this bulletin.

The school is on a three-term academic calendar: Autumn Quarter classes begin for first-year students on August 31, 2009 and on September 21, 2009 for all other students; the quarter ends on December 2, 2009. Winter Quarter classes begin on January 4, 2010, and the quarter ends on March 8, 2010. Spring Quarter classes begin on March 29, 2010 and the quarter ends on May 28, 2010. For a complete list of academic dates see the 2009-2010 Academic Calendar on the Law School web site at <http://www.law.stanford.edu/calendar>.
