The California Foreign Language Project
and
The California Language Teachers’ Association
Announce

The 22nd Annual Summer Seminar for Language Teachers

Effective Language and Literacy Instruction:
A Key Factor in Closing the Achievement Gap for All Students

University of California, Santa Barbara
July 23-29, 2005

Strands:

• Advanced Placement in Spanish Literature (Emphasis on Poetry Analysis and Writing)
• Effective Instructional Strategies for Reaching Secondary English Language Learners
• Foundations of Communication-Based Language Instruction
• Gute Reise!: A Journey Across the Landscape of German Language Programs
• Heritage/Native Language Learners: Program Models, Standards, and Strategies
• Japanese*
• Korean*
• Research: The Key to Understanding Second Language Acquisition
• Tapping the Content of “Bandes dessinées” to Increase Students’ Linguistic and Cultural Competence in French

* Anticipated strands: Please consult the web site for updated information.

Fees (Registration, Materials, Lodging, Meals and Cultural Activities):

• Double Occupancy (CLTA Member): $1150
• Single Occupancy (CLTA Member): $1350
• Double Occupancy (Non-CLTA Member): $1350
• Single Occupancy (Non-CLTA Member): $1550

For additional information:

• Visit the Summer Seminar link at: http://www.clta.net
• Or contact Annie Cotton (650) 849-7956