

6:30pm. Eid Banquet. Main Quad. Charity event for the establishment of a place of worship in East Palo Alto.

Saturday

● Things to do during IAW

Sunday

4pm. Politics of misrepresentation; Women and power in Islamic societies.
Dr. Saddeka Arebi, Visiting Faculty at UC-Berkeley and SFSU & Dr. Hussein Al-Hussein, Professor at UC-Santa Cruz.
Women's Center (Old Fire Truck House)

Monday

11am-2pm. Food Bazaar.
Come and sample food from around the Muslim world.
White Plaza.

6pm. What is Islam?
Dr. Hisham Abdullah, Educator and Islamic Activist.
Kimball Lounge

Tuesday

8am. Eid prayer.
12pm. Eid lunch.
Subject to the sighting of the moon.
Locations TBA.

Surf the web tonight: <http://www.stanford.edu/group/MSAN/IAW/>

4pm. Global peace and Pakistan's foreign policy. Ambassador Ahmad Kamal, Pakistan's Permanent Representative to the U.N. Annenberg Auditorium, Cummings Art Building.

7:30pm. Muslim Culture on the Iberian Peninsula and its Medieval Contexts. Professor Hans Ulrich Gumbrecht. El Centro Chicano, Main Lounge.

IMPORTANT!

Thursday

Better than Must See TV!

Keynote Address.
7pm. Slavery: Christian and Muslim Perspectives.
Dr. Sulayman Nyang, Professor of African Studies at Howard University.
Braun Auditorium, Mudd Chemistry building.

Wednesday

1:30pm. Calligraphy Workshop.
Dr. Khalil Barhoum.
Kimball Seminar room.

6pm. Islam and the African-American Experience.
Imam Abdel-Malik Ali
Drake Lounge, Ujamaa.

Friday

1:30pm. Jum'ah (Friday) Prayers. The Oval.

7:00pm. TGIJ (Thank Goodness It's Jum'ah). Room 17, Old Union Clubhouse. Come and meet the Stanford Muslim Community in a discussion group with Prof. Nyang.

Ongoing activities throughout the week: information table in White Plaza with tickets/Qur'ans/books on Islam, movies on SCBN and a book display on Islam and the Muslim World in the Bookstore

Refreshments served at all events. Free stuff rocks!

SECOND ANNUAL ISLAM AWARENESS WEEK
STANFORD UNIVERSITY
APRIL 5 - APRIL 11

Sponsored by Muslim Students Awareness Network, Islamic Society of Stanford University, ASSU Program Board and ASSU Speakers Bureau.
For more information, please contact Imran Maskatia at 650/497-6271.