"Hope Not Hate"
A Town Hall Gathering on US-Muslim World Relations

When: 7:30-9:00pm, Monday 20th October, 2003
Where: Building 420-040, Basement of Jordan Hall
Format: Panel Discussion + Q&A/discussion with panelists

Syed Muazzem Ali,
Frmr. Foreign Secretary of Bangladesh.

He is the immediate past Foreign Secretary of the Government of Bangladesh, retired from a career in foreign service in December 2001. He was a founding member of the Bangladesh Mission in Washington DC in 1971 and was directly involved in working towards US recognition and US, IMF and World Bank participation in the reconstruction efforts of war-ravaged Bangladesh. He has also served in Bangladesh Embassies in Warsaw and New Delhi, and in the Permanent Mission to the United Nations in New York. He was Consul-General in Jeddah, and has served as Ambassador to Iran, Syria, Lebanon, Turkmenistan, Bhutan, Portugal, and France. While in Paris, he was the Permanent Representative to UNESCO, and in that capacity, spearheaded the initiatives of instituting an International Mother Language Day.

Sponsors: Muslim Students Awareness Network (MSAN), Americans for an Informed Democracy (AID), Stanford International Affairs Society (SIAS), Malaysians at Stanford (MAS), Stanford Coalition for Peace and Justice (SCJP), Organization of Arab-Americans In Stanford (OASIS), Pakistanis at Stanford (PAS), Stanford Civil Liberties Union, International Undergraduate Community, Greens at Stanford, The Stanford Democrats

more info: http://www.stanford.edu/group/MSAN/hnh.html