"Hope Not Hate"
A Town Hall Gathering on US-Muslim World Relations

When: 7:30-9:00pm, Monday 20th October, 2003
Where: Building 420-040, Basement of Jordan Hall
Format: Panel Discussion + Q&A/discussion with panelists

*Syed Muazzem Ali: former Foreign Secretary of the Government of Bangladesh to discuss perceptions of US in Bangladesh.

*Ms. Akhlaghi: immigration attorney to discuss the affect of 9-11 and the Patriot Act on immigrants, esp. those from Muslim countries.

*Dr. Emmerson: Dir. of E. Asian Forum & Sr. Fellow at Institute for International Studies to discuss Indonesian perception of the US.

*Mr. Abbas: Knight Fellow from Pakistan's Dawn newspaper group to discuss Pakistani media debates about the US.

Sponsors: Muslim Students Awareness Network (MSAN), Americans for an Informed Democracy (AID), Stanford International Affairs Society (SIAS), Malaysians at Stanford (MAS), Stanford Coalition for Peace and Justice (SCJP), Organization of Arab-Americans In Stanford (OASIS), Pakistanis at Stanford (PAS), Stanford Civil Liberties Union, International Undergraduate Community, Greens at Stanford, The Stanford Democrats.

more info: http://www.stanford.edu/group/MSAN/hnh.html