Argentine Milonga

An Evening of Tango Music and Dance

The evening will begin at 7PM with a music and dance concert by Flor de Tango followed by a tango lesson at 8:30PM. At 9:30PM, the floor opens up for dancing until 11PM.

Flor de Tango, formed by Argentineans Mirta Wymerszberg (flute) & Guillermo Garcia (guitar), will play a broad instrumental repertoire ranging from old-guard tango to modern styles. In this special occasion, double bass John Eckstrom and accordionist Adrian Jost will join them.

The show also features Argentinean tango dancers Marcelo Varela & Analía Vega, who performed in the Broadway show "Forever Tango" and in the movie "Evita" by Alan Parker. They are considered among the best professional dancers from Buenos Aires.

Flor de Tango will play traditional and modern tango from composers such as Aníbal Troilo, Osvaldo Pugliese, Julio De Caro and Astor Piazzolla.

Manzanita Dining Hall

Stanford University

* $7 with Stanford ID
* $12 general admission
* Tickets purchased at door only

GSC
more info: argentina.stanford.edu

---

Tango Workshop

Due to the success of last year’s 4th Annual Milonga, at 8PM the tango dancers Marcelo Varela and Analia Vega will give a tango dance class for beginner and intermediate level dancers. This workshop will be a follow-up of the class given at the Argentine Milonga on Sunday 8th.

Following the lesson, the floor will be opened for the final Milonga, to allow students to practice their skills until 11PM.

Manzanita Dining Hall

Stanford University

* $5 with Stanford ID
* $12 general admission
* Tickets purchased at door only

GSC
more info: argentina.stanford.edu

---

Argentine Movie Nights

Weekly during the month of May, Argentinos en Stanford will be showing a selection of 4 recent Argentinean productions, at the beginning of the 2nd and 4th sessions. Refreshments will be served.

Bechtel International Center

GSC
more info: argentina.stanford.edu