Stanford Libraries

Archive of Recorded Sound (1)
http://library.stanford.edu/ars
Archives over 400,000 recordings in all formats, including Western art music, popular music and jazz, and spoken word recordings.

Art and Architecture Library (Bowes) (2)
http://library.stanford.edu/art
Extensive printed/visual materials and special collections, focusing on history/practice of art, architecture, and design. Reference/instructional services.

Classics Library (Lionel Pearson) (3) http://library.stanford.edu/libraries/classics-library/about Holdings include texts related to Greek and Roman antiquity as well as titles from the Loeb Classical Library and Oxford Classical Texts series.

David Rumsey Map Center (4)
http://rumseymapcenter.stanford.edu
A large collection of rare atlases and maps, high-resolution screens with interactive tools for viewing digital images. Flexible space for research and teaching.

Earth Sciences Library (Branner) (5)
http://library.stanford.edu/branner Collection contains printed materials, maps, and geospatial data. GIS workstations and support available through the Stanford Geospatial Center.

East Asia Library (6)
http://library.stanford.edu/eal

Education Library (Cubberley) (7)
http://library.stanford.edu/cubberley
Wide range of education books, journals, and online materials, plus historic and current textbooks, historic reports and college catalogs.

Engineering Library (Terman) and Physics Collection (8)
http://library.stanford.edu/englib
Provides resources and services to support the research and teaching of the School of Engineering departments, institutes, and labs and the Departments of Physics and Applied Physics.

Government Documents (Jonsson Library) (9)
http://library.stanford.edu/libraries/green/jonsson-social-sciences-reading-room Publications and information on most subjects, with emphases on demography and population, education, international relations, and more.

Green Library (Cecil H. Green) (10)
http://library.stanford.edu/green Collections include humanities, social sciences, and Special Collections. The Information Center, Privileges, Media Microtext, hText, SSDS and Interlibrary Services are located in Green. Fine payments accepted at the Circulation Desk.

Hoover Institution Library (Hoover Tower) and Archives (Herbert Hoover Memorial Bldg.) (11)
http://www.hoover.org/library-archives
Collections focus on international political, social, and economic events in the 20th and 21st centuries.

Lathrop Library (12)
Houses the East Asia Library, the Lathrop Learning Hub, Student Computing, create:space, Residential Computing, Lathrop Media Studio, and computer clusters.

Law Library (Robert Crown) (13)
http://www.law.stanford.edu/library
Supports the research mission of the law school by providing rich legal collections in both print and digital formats within a scholarly environment.

Map Collections (Branner Library) (14)
http://library.stanford.edu/branner/map-collections-guides Collection includes a wide range of social science and humanities topics; emphases on geological, seismological, hydrological, natural hazards, etc.

Marine Biology Library (Miller at Hopkins Marine Station) (15 - Not on Map)
http://library.stanford.edu/hopkins Broad coverage of marine biology with special emphases on development, neurobiology, ecology, and physiology of marine organisms.

Medical Library (Lane) (16)
http://lane.stanford.edu
Extensive online literature, specialty portals, and print resources for medicine, biomedicine, nursing, public and allied health, and related fields. Open to the public.

Music Library (17)
http://library.stanford.edu/music
Find print and digital resources for the study of music of all types, from all time periods, with an emphasis on Western art music. Staff can assist in the research process.

Philosophy Library (Tanner) (18)
http://library.stanford.edu/libraries/philosophy/about
A collection that supports teaching and research in the Philosophy Department by duplicating a selection of Green Library’s philosophy holdings.

Science Library (Robin Li & Melissa Ma) (19)
http://library.stanford.edu/science
Provides resources and services in support of biology, chemistry, chemical engineering, mathematics and statistics research and instruction.

Special Collections (20)
http://library.stanford.edu/spc
Historical research in all formats, including printed books, manuscripts, maps, photographs, and prints.

Stanford Auxiliary Library (SAL1&2) (21)
http://library.stanford.edu/libraries/sal/about Houses overflow materials and low use items for the Stanford Libraries.

Stanford Graduate School of Business Library (22)
http://library.stanford.edu/gsblibrary Supports the curriculum and research of the GSB. Collection covers all areas of business. Open to the Stanford community for business research needs.

SLAC National Accelerator Laboratory Library (23)
http://library.slac.stanford.edu
Provides information needs for laboratory research programs in photon science, high-energy and particle physics, and astrophysics.