After Evangelism: Christian Belief & Cultural Life

Ken Myers of Mars Hill Audio

Our conference speaker, Ken Myers, is the executive producer at Mars Hill Audio, a nonprofit organization devoted to helping Christians think wisely about modern culture through a variety of audio resources. For eight years he was a producer and editor for National Public Radio, working for much of that time as arts and humanities editor for the two news programs, Morning Edition and All Things Considered. Mr. Myers is a graduate of the University of Maryland, where he studied film theory and criticism, and of Westminster Theological Seminary in Philadelphia. He is married and has two children, and lives in central Virginia. (See www.marshillaudio.org for more information.)

At the conference, Ken will raise questions about the way Christians speak — and think — about “engaging the culture.” He will explore fundamental questions about the way we understand — or fail to — the relationship between creation and redemption.

Please register with your InterVarsity or Veritas Fellowship Staff or send this form with a check payable to Graduate Christian Fellowship to: Rick Hernandez, 1208 Roosevelt Ave., Redwood City, CA 94061. Registration officially opens January 2, 2004.

Cost: $115 (includes lodging) / $65 (non-students making their own lodging arrangements)
Deadline: Feb 6 (if handed to staff) / Postmarked Feb 4 (if mailed)
