Centro Minerva de Empreendedorismo

Escola Politécnica
Universidade de São Paulo
Brazil

Celso Massatoshi Furukawa
Marcelo Massarani
(cme@centroempreendedor.com.br)

Roundtable on Entrepreneurship Education
- Programme Highlights -
Mission Statement

• To foster entrepreneurship with a strong ethical basis.
• To work on developing entrepreneurial attitude and behavior.
Key Audience

- Students
  - 4500 undergraduate students
  - 5000 graduate students
  - Outreach courses for 8000 students
- Faculty: 500 faculty members
- Number of Courses Offered
  - 15 undergraduate courses
  - 8 graduate programs
Six Successive Modules

1. Motivation and Behavior
2. Developing Social Capital
3. Outdoor Training: pushing your limits
4. Business Practices
5. Entrepreneuring tools: BP
6. Founding your BP
The participants pay for the courses, but not in money. They are stimulated to execute specific community tasks within their neighborhood and to train specific entrepreneuring attitudes.
Module One
Group 1: 20 students, Nov/02
Group 2: 36 students, Oct/03

Module Two
Currently In Progress

Module Three
Scheduled for Dec/03 (Brotas Canyon!)