CLOSING VOLUNTARY

(You are invited to remain seated during the closing voluntary.)
Too often, God, your name is used

Too often, God, your name is used to sanction hate and fear
so love and justice are refused to people you hold dear.
O never let us use your name
to harm or hurt or kill or consecrate a vicious aim
as your almighty will.

But move through us in deeds that spell
your name as Love and Light,
for faithful actions far excel
beliefs that we recite.
Let naming you through how we live
become our public creed:
the clearest witness we can give
is meeting human need.

And keep us ready to receive
the good that others do,
that helps expand what we believe
and why we trust in you.
For where deep love and justice meet
we see anew your face
and for a moment glimpse complete
the world transformed by grace.

O My Soul, Bless Your Creator

1 O my soul, bless your Cre-a-tor;
2 God for-gives all your trans-gress-ion-
3 Far as east from west is dis-tant,
4 As it was with-out be-gin-ning,
5 Un-to all who keep God’s con-vant;

all with-in me bless God’s name;
all who suf-fer, gen-tly heals;
so it lasts with-out an end;
and are stead-fast in God’s way;

Bless your Mak-er, and for-get not
God re-deems you from de-struc-tion,
Like a moth-er and a fa-ther,
To their chil-dren’s chil-dren ev-er
Un-to all who still re-mem-ber

all God’s mer-cies to pro-claim,
and with you so kind-ly de-ad,
God com-pas-sion-ate has been,
shall God’s righ-tous-ness ex-tend;
God’s com-mand-ments and o-bey.

Psalm 103, a beautiful psalm of thanksgiving for God’s forgiveness and steadfast love, is summed up in the lines of this hymn. The author of the paraphrase is unknown.

This UPW service is a part of “Ethics of Wealth”, a new series of talks, seminars, readings, films and performances, presented by the McCoy Family Center for Ethics in Society, along with the Office for Religious Life and several campus partners. The series will explore the ethical questions at the heart of wealth. What is the relationship between financial success and a flourishing human life? Does wealth make people happy? Is inheritance legitimate? Are large wealth inequalities damaging to a democracy? What are the moral obligations of the wealthy to those in need? For more information about the series, visit http://ethicsinsociety.stanford.edu/ethics-events/ethics-of-wealth/.
