PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us say together: And now because you are one with us, O God, enable us to share your life with the world by sharing our own lives with the world. And so we pray, in the words you taught us:

Abba in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your reign come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the triumph, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

NEXT SUNDAY University Public Worship will feature guest preacher, Rev. Rosa Lee Harden, co-founder of Social Capital Markets (SOCAP). *THE PEACE

The peace of God be with you.
And also with you.

*HYMN

God, Whose Glory Reigns Eternal

*THE HOLY COMMUNION

This is the table of God
on which is set tokens of love and hope
and to which the Holy One calls
all who want to share in that life.
So come –
whether your faith is strong or weak,
whether your hope shines brightly or is dimmed.
Come, ready to receive –
for all are welcome
at this feast of love.

Generous God
whose story and song are now and always
the hope of the world:
We praise you for the stories
of creation and incarnation,
redemption and resolution –
the unending words of love.
We rejoice in your song
of yearning and calling,
waiting and welcoming,
gathering and cherishing –
the eternal music of hope.
And we join our voices now
in that great song
of love and adoration
that creation sings back to you.
Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full, full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.
Now let us hear the stories of the Bread and Wine:
This bread is a sign of hope,
it holds a story
of dying and rising,
of breaking and sharing,
of nourishment and strengthening,
of being more than enough.
It is both the story of what it is in itself
and the story of which it reminds us –
that, on the night before his death,
Jesus took bread and broke it with friends.
Take and eat, do this for the remembrance of me.

This wine is a sign of hope,
it holds a story
of dying and rising,
of pouring and sharing,
of refreshment and renewal,
of being more than enough.

It is both the story of what it is in itself
and the story of which it reminds us –
that, on the night before his death,
Jesus took wine and poured it for friends.
Drink this cup, poured out for you and for all.

And we too are a sign of hope,
for we too hold a story
of death and rising,
of old and new,
of offered life
taken into the hands of God,
who wastes nothing,
and there
becoming more than enough.
It is both the story of who and what we each are
and the greater story of which we are a part –
the ongoing story of God’s reign and life on earth.
And so, as we do in this place what Christ did in an upper room, send down your Holy Spirit on us, and on these gifts of bread and wine – that the story of hope – of death and rising of new life and the fruit of the kingdom – may continue on in us, and through us.

Amen.

FRACTION ANTHEM  The Disciples Knew the Lord Jesus
(Choir only)

God, the source of all hope, offers to us now these signs of hope and invites us to share in their story.

The bread of life.
The cup of hope.

(Adapted from a communion liturgy from Iona Abbey, Scotland on the theme of hope.)

AGNUS DEI  Missa de Angelis  Plainsong

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Eternal Spirit, Living God, in whom we live and move and have our being, all that we are, have been, and shall be is known to you, to the very secrets of our hearts, and all that rises to trouble us. Take us out to live as changed people because we have shared the Living Bread and cannot remain the same. Living flame, burn into us. Cleansing wind, blow through us. Fountain of water, well up within us, that we may love and praise in deed and truth. Amen.
