The Deans for Religious Life—
the Rev. Scotty McLennan, Rabbi Patricia Karlin-Neumann and the Rev. Joanne Sanders—are committed to welcoming students of all genders and sexual identities, all religious and non-religious traditions, and all cultural back-grounds. They strive to ensure that students, faculty and staff will find on Stanford's campus honest, lively, and multi-faith service to explore the religious, spiritual and moral implications of climate change and provide hopeful avenues for positive action.

EVENING EVANGELISM

Labyrinth
Walk (don't run) your way to a healthier outlook on life.
If life has you wandering aimlessly, in circles, embark on a personal journey that’s bound to test the time of thousands of years. Enter the labyrinth to discover inner peace and spiritual reflection. The path is free and open to all faiths and ages. More than once, many have exclaimed, “I felt the earth move and soar!”

Sundays, 9:00–9:30 pm (during the academic year), Memorial Church.

Spring quarter dates: April 15, 22 & 29; May 6 & 20; June 3.
(In observance of Mother's Day and the Memorial Day Weekend, there will be no Campus Services on Sunday, May 13 and Sunday, May 27, respectively.)

UNIVERSITY PUBLIC WORSHIP (UPW)
What happens when a minister, a rabbi and a priest put their heads together? Well, not your average church service, that’s for sure. Weekly Christian ecumenical services, led by the Deans for Religious Life and occasional guest speakers, and music featuring University Organist, Dr. Robert Huw Morgan, and the Memorial Church Choir, under the direction of Simon Preston, are celebrated in Memorial Church. Comforting words of faith and a sense of peace occur once monthly, many times more. Sold out and sold out. Quarter after quarter.

Sundays, 10:00 am, Memorial Church.

COMPLINE
A reflective 30-minute musical service of hymn, chant and prayers sung by a variety of Stanford and local choir members in the candle-lit ambiance of Memorial Church. All religious and non-religious backgrounds welcome.
