to speak during Commencement Weekend. Full details: religiouslife.stanford.edu/studentprograms.

FELLOWSHIP FOR RELIGIOUS ENCOUNTER Looking for an opportunity to engage in meaningful religious dialogue with your peers? The Fellowship for Religious Encounters may be the forum you’re seeking—complete with a $1,000 stipend! Students from a variety of religious and spiritual traditions are encouraged to apply to participate in this exciting program, spanning the 2009–2010 academic year. For details and application: religiouslife.stanford.edu. Application deadline: Monday, May 25, 5:00 pm, via e-mail to nasen@stanford.edu.

OPEN TO ALL STANFORD STUDENTS, STAFF AND FACULTY

For more information, please call the Office for Religious Life at 650-723-1672 or check out events.stanford.edu, or visit religiouslife.stanford.edu for updates on events, general info, church history, profiles of the Deans for Religious Life and more.

To subscribe to the Office for Religious Life weekly e-mail newsletter—your guide to the most current programming information—please visit mailman.stanford.edu/mailman/listinfo/officereligiouslife. If you need a disability-related accommodation or access to disabled parking behind Memorial Church, please contact Sheila Sanchez, Disability Accommodations Coordinator, at 650-725-0326.

Events are free unless otherwise noted.

STUDENT PROGRAMS

STUDENT GRIEF GROUP Sponsored by the Deans for Religious Life, Counseling and Psychological Services, and the Residence Deans, the Grief Group offers a compassionate, caring opportunity for students to connect and share experiences, suggestions and concerns as mourners.

Thursday, April 20, 5:30 – 7:00 pm, Vaden Health Center, 2nd Floor Education Room.

BACCALAUREATE STUDENT SPEAKER CONTEST Graduating seniors: Here’s a chance to try your hand at writing an inspirational speech! Not only could you earn $1,000 and the opportunity to be in the limelight at Baccalaureate 2008—the only member of the Class of 2008

We encourage you to consider the Office for Religious Life and its many programs.

For updates on events, general info, church history, profiles of the Deans for Religious Life and more.

STUDENT PROGRAMS

STUDENT GRIEF GROUP Sponsored by the Deans for Religious Life, Counseling and Psychological Services, and the Residence Deans, the Grief Group offers a compassionate, caring opportunity for students to connect and share experiences, suggestions and concerns as mourners.

Thursday, April 20, 5:30 – 7:00 pm, Vaden Health Center, 2nd Floor Education Room.

BACCALAUREATE STUDENT SPEAKER CONTEST Graduating seniors: Here’s a chance to try your hand at writing an inspirational speech! Not only could you earn $1,000 and the opportunity to be in the limelight at Baccalaureate 2008—the only member of the Class of 2008

To subscribe to the Office for Religious Life weekly e-mail newsletter—your guide to the most current programming information—please visit mailman.stanford.edu/mailman/listinfo/officereligiouslife. If you need a disability-related accommodation or access to disabled parking behind Memorial Church, please contact Sheila Sanchez, Disability Accommodations Coordinator, at 650-725-0326.

Events are free unless otherwise noted.

STUDENT PROGRAMS

STUDENT GRIEF GROUP Sponsored by the Deans for Religious Life, Counseling and Psychological Services, and the Residence Deans, the Grief Group offers a compassionate, caring opportunity for students to connect and share experiences, suggestions and concerns as mourners.

Thursday, April 20, 5:30 – 7:00 pm, Vaden Health Center, 2nd Floor Education Room.

BACCALAUREATE STUDENT SPEAKER CONTEST Graduating seniors: Here’s a chance to try your hand at writing an inspirational speech! Not only could you earn $1,000 and the opportunity to be in the limelight at Baccalaureate 2008—the only member of the Class of 2008

OPEN TO ALL STANFORD STUDENTS, STAFF AND FACULTY

For more information, please call the Office for Religious Life at 650-723-1672, check out events.stanford.edu, or visit religiouslife.stanford.edu for updates on events, general info, church history, profiles of the Deans for Religious Life and more.

To subscribe to the Office for Religious Life weekly e-mail newsletter—your guide to the most current programming information—please visit mailman.stanford.edu/mailman/listinfo/officereligiouslife. If you need a disability-related accommodation or access to disabled parking behind Memorial Church, please contact Sheila Sanchez, Disability Accommodations Coordinator, at 650-725-0326.

Events are free unless otherwise noted.

STUDENT PROGRAMS

STUDENT GRIEF GROUP Sponsored by the Deans for Religious Life, Counseling and Psychological Services, and the Residence Deans, the Grief Group offers a compassionate, caring opportunity for students to connect and share experiences, suggestions and concerns as mourners.

Thursday, April 20, 5:30 – 7:00 pm, Vaden Health Center, 2nd Floor Education Room.

BACCALAUREATE STUDENT SPEAKER CONTEST Graduating seniors: Here’s a chance to try your hand at writing an inspirational speech! Not only could you earn $1,000 and the opportunity to be in the limelight at Baccalaureate 2008—the only member of the Class of 2008

To subscribe to the Office for Religious Life weekly e-mail newsletter—your guide to the most current programming information—please visit mailman.stanford.edu/mailman/listinfo/officereligiouslife. If you need a disability-related accommodation or access to disabled parking behind Memorial Church, please contact Sheila Sanchez, Disability Accommodations Coordinator, at 650-725-0326.

Events are free unless otherwise noted.

STUDENT PROGRAMS

STUDENT GRIEF GROUP Sponsored by the Deans for Religious Life, Counseling and Psychological Services, and the Residence Deans, the Grief Group offers a compassionate, caring opportunity for students to connect and share experiences, suggestions and concerns as mourners.

Thursday, April 20, 5:30 – 7:00 pm, Vaden Health Center, 2nd Floor Education Room.

BACCALAUREATE STUDENT SPEAKER CONTEST Graduating seniors: Here’s a chance to try your hand at writing an inspirational speech! Not only could you earn $1,000 and the opportunity to be in the limelight at Baccalaureate 2008—the only member of the Class of 2008

To subscribe to the Office for Religious Life weekly e-mail newsletter—your guide to the most current programming information—please visit mailman.stanford.edu/mailman/listinfo/officereligiouslife. If you need a disability-related accommodation or access to disabled parking behind Memorial Church, please contact Sheila Sanchez, Disability Accommodations Coordinator, at 650-725-0326.

Events are free unless otherwise noted.

STUDENT PROGRAMS

STUDENT GRIEF GROUP Sponsored by the Deans for Religious Life, Counseling and Psychological Services, and the Residence Deans, the Grief Group offers a compassionate, caring opportunity for students to connect and share experiences, suggestions and concerns as mourners.

Thursday, April 20, 5:30 – 7:00 pm, Vaden Health Center, 2nd Floor Education Room.

BACCALAUREATE STUDENT SPEAKER CONTEST Graduating seniors: Here’s a chance to try your hand at writing an inspirational speech! Not only could you earn $1,000 and the opportunity to be in the limelight at Baccalaureate 2008—the only member of the Class of 2008

To subscribe to the Office for Religious Life weekly e-mail newsletter—your guide to the most current programming information—please visit mailman.stanford.edu/mailman/listinfo/officereligiouslife. If you need a disability-related accommodation or access to disabled parking behind Memorial Church, please contact Sheila Sanchez, Disability Accommodations Coordinator, at 650-725-0326.

Events are free unless otherwise noted.