CLASS HEADQUARTERS TENT (SEE BACK OF REUNION GUIDE FOLDER)
Spend time visiting with old friends while making new ones. Lunch and beverages will be provided.

Class of ’69 Featured Event:
Turn, Turn, Turn
12:15–1:30 pm
FRANCES C. ARRILLAGA ALUMNI CENTER (C-8), MCCAW HALL
A time to every purpose
The Class of ’69 attended Stanford during one of its most turbulent periods, a time of rapid change on multiple fronts: resistance to the war in Vietnam, environmental activism, civil rights, racial equality, the women’s movement, the sexual revolution and a growing awareness of LGBTQ issues. The panelists will explore how the current social and political landscape may (or may not) be rooted in the ’60s. How did you get from there to here?

Participants
• Larry Diamond, ’73, MA ’78, PhD ’80, senior fellow at the Hoover Institution and the Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies, and professor, by courtesy, of sociology and of political science
• Estelle B. Freedman, Edgar E. Robinson Professor in U.S. History and co-founder of the Program in Feminist Studies
• Allyson Hobbs, associate professor of history and director of African and African American Studies
• Doug McAdam, Ray Lyman Wilbur Professor of Sociology
• Moderator: Roberta Reiff Katz, ’69, senior research scholar at the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences

Class of ’69 Class Conversations
1:45–3:00 pm
FRANCES C. ARRILLAGA ALUMNI CENTER (C-8), MCCAW HALL
Join the ’69 Class Panel, “Both Sides Now: Growing Older Better.” Resilience and engagement are critical parts of successful aging. Science and medical research confirm the importance of these concepts. So do life experiences. Join classmates to hear a quartet of outstanding classmate speakers and take part in an intimate, informative and inclusive conversation. Together you will explore the newest and most profound understandings about aging, while also involving more classmates.
Moderated by Arlene Ichien and Frank Allen. Speakers are Steve Cummings, Eric Larson, Pam McDonald and Shirley Peppers.

Class of ’69 50th Reunion
Singles Mingle
6:00–7:00 pm
