More than 150 restaurants call the Midpeninsula home

Choosing where to dine along the Midpeninsula isn’t an easy decision. With more than 150 restaurants serving everything from comfort food to cutting-edge cuisine, the region has become a dining hotspot for restaurateurs hoping to capture the gastronomic zeitgeist. Here’s some favorite eateries locals voted the best in their cities for Embarcadero Media’s annual reader’s choice contest, Best Of.

Embarcadero Media food blogger Elena Kadvany keeps local readers up-to-date on all of the restaurant goings on. Read on for the very latest food-related happenings, and stay current by reading Kadvany’s blog, Peninsula Foodist, at paloaltoonline.com/blogs.

BEST PLACES TO SPLURGE ...

Evvia
420 Emerson St., Palo Alto, 650-326-0983; evvia.net

Take a trip to Greece with a visit to Evvia Estiatorio in downtown Palo Alto, known for quality food and even higher quality service. The longtime restaurant manages to combine fine dining with comfort as an open kitchen with a wood-burning oven turns out traditional Greek fare. Be prepared to be treated not as a diner but more like a long-lost relative when you walk through the doors.

La Fontaine
186 Castro St., Mountain View, 650-968-2300; lafontainerestaurant.com

This French and Italian fusion restaurant has proved itself to be a hot spot, with readers naming it the best place for fine dining, as well as having the best outdoor dining and as the best place for a business lunch. La Fontaine offers an aura of class and professionalism with a menu that strives for high cuisine. Popular dishes include the Burgundy-braised short ribs and the salmon Wellington, which is salmon stuffed with leeks and rock shrimp that’s wrapped in puff pastry and served over saffron risotto.

BEST DINING WITH KIDS ...

Palo Alto Creamery
566 Emerson St., Palo Alto, 650-323-3131; paloaltocreamery.com

Family owned for more than 85 years, the Palo Alto Creamery Fountain & Grill has remained in Palo Alto longer than most of its residents. When locals return to town, the Creamery is often a short list of places to visit first, just to get a quick fix of their famous milkshakes, available in just about every flavor imaginable. In addition to milkshakes, the Creamery offers a great selection of sandwiches, burgers and other diner-style food. It may be rare to find a Palo Altan who has never experienced the Creamery firsthand — an indication that it is absolutely worth the visit.

Buck’s of Woodside
3062 Woodside Road, Woodside, 650-851-8010; buckswoodside.com

With an alligator carpet lining the floor and a 6-foot-tall Statue of Liberty welcoming guests as they open the door, Buck’s of Woodside entices children of all ages to a dining experience like no other. This year, Buck’s of Woodside won the award for favorite place to dine with kids. Young visitors are enticed by the whimsical feeling of the restaurant, attributed to its extraordinary decor, and some of the items featured on the children’s menu, such as “pizza for pizza heads.” Jamis MacNiven, who, with his wife Margaret, owns Buck’s, says that “parents sometimes tell us we ruin kids for other restaurants because we let them run wild. We give them a treasure hunt and put gummy frogs on every plate. What’s not to love?”

BEST MEAL UNDER $20 ...

Asian Box
Town & Country Village, 855 El Camino Real, Palo Alto, 650-391-9305; 142 Castro St., Mountain View; 650-584-3947; asianbox.com

This eatery, with locations in both Palo Alto and Mountain View, put a decidedly improved spin on the entire concept of “fast food.” It certainly isn’t grease- and salt-laden. Asian Box offers fresh, high-quality choices that include hormone- and antibiotic-free ingredients. Start your box with a choice of rices, Asian salad or rice noodles; choose a succulent meat or other protein; add in vegetables and other toppings; then top it off with a tasty sauce, from tamarind vinaigrette to fiery sriracha.

BEST HAPPY HOUR/BAR ...

Calave Wine Bar
299 California Ave., #115, Palo Alto, 650-521-0443; calave.com

If the glamorous ambiance at Calave Wine Bar isn’t enough to grab your attention, the bar bites (try the truffled popcorn and orange-coriander spiced mixed nuts) and $2 discount on wines and craft beers offered during happy hour at the California Avenue wine bar should certainly do it. Happy hour is Monday through Friday, 4-6 p.m. Get there early to claim a seat at the high communal table or cozy, low-slung sofa, and raise a glass of vino to the end of a stressful work day.

Molly MaGees
241 Castro St., Mountain View, 650-961-0108; mollysmtview.com

Molly MaGees has been providing Mountain View with an authentic Irish pub experience since it was first established in 1997. This gives customers the kind of laid back, homey atmosphere perfect for knocking back drinks and watching soccer or listening to their in-house DJs on weekends. Daily specials include the Jager bomb and the Reyka Bloody Mary. On Whiskey Wednesdays, all whiskeys are half-price.
Enjoy down-home cooking in a family-friendly atmosphere

With all its food made from scratch and from the heart, Bill’s Cafe combines home-style cooking with the friendliest service around. Begin your day at Bill's with a traditional breakfast entrée or try one of the specialties like a breakfast burrito or eggs benedict. If you like a late start to your day, breakfast is served all day, along with a wide variety of lunch items, ranging from classic sandwiches like the grilled chicken and gorgonzola melt on fresh sourdough bread, to mouthwatering burgers and refreshing salads. 3163 Middlefield Road, Palo Alto, (650) 665-7941; billscafe.com

A local favorite for the freshest home-style Mexican food

Celia’s Mexican Restaurant is all about food without pretenses, prepared with passion. Salsa, guacamole, and handmade tamales are made fresh daily, and artisan margaritas are prepared on order. Satisfy your craving for home-style Mexican specialties ranging from albondigas soup and fajitas to seafood platters and steak à la Mexicana. With attention to healthy cooking, the dishes are prepared with organic, lean cuts of meat and the tortillas are made without lard. The relaxed, family atmosphere turns all the more festive when Mariachi bands serenade on special occasions. 3740 El Camino Real, Palo Alto, (650) 843-0643; 1850 El Camino Real, Menlo Park, (650) 321-8227; celiasrestaurants.com

BEST BRUNCH/BREAKFAST ...

Mayfield Bakery & Cafe Town & Country Village, 855 El Camino Real, Palo Alto, 650-853-9200; mayfieldbakery.com
In searching for a restaurant that does the basics very well, look no further than Mayfield Bakery & Cafe, known for traditional American food with a slight modern twist, served alongside perfectly baked bread. In addition to the food, Mayfield Bakery & Cafe also has excellent coffee offerings, with generously portioned lattes served in bowls. With bread, pastries, coffee and entrees on the menu, the Mayfield Bakery & Cafe is many local residents’ go-to spot for brunch in the area.
Crepevine 300 Castro St., Mountain View, 650-969-6878.crepevine.com
With nine locations outside Mountain View, Crepevine is no stranger to the breakfast scene. Crepevine aims to provide the freshest, healthiest ingredients while keeping prices low and making everything from scratch. The restaurant features a wide range of crepe dishes, from savory to sweet, like the “midnight blues” made with blueberries, banana, rum sauce and topped with whipped cream and ice cream.
Stacks 600 Santa Cruz Ave., Menlo Park, 650-838-0066; stacksrestaurant.com
The Stacks motto is “comfortable food,” and customers agree that Stacks is the place to go for a casual family breakfast where everyone leaves satisfied. The long line of Sunday brunch customers waiting for a seat attest to its popularity. Manager Jon Pristavok says customers return because Stacks is “consistent, fast, and you get a lot of food for your dollar.” From the coveted macadamia nut, banana and coconut pancakes to the turkey club loaded with sides of salad, fruit and fries, customers never leave with an empty stomach.

“...We highly recommend Patrice. She was always prepared, and was always willing to go far out of her way to ensure we were thrilled with her work. Patrice made both the selling and purchasing processes easy to understand, exciting and fun. If and when we decide sell our current home, we wouldn’t consider working with anyone else.”

R & D Griggs
Sellers and Buyers

“... As both buyers and sellers of a home, Patrice exceeded all of our needs and expectations of the process. Not only was Patrice successful in negotiating a difficult offer, she managed to make a complex transaction function smoothly. She worked diligently to ensure that every small detail was taken care of and that we were more than satisfied with the entire process. Patrice is a true professional and of course will get our highest recommendation to family and friends”

D&K Stark
Sellers and Buyers

“...We went with Patrice from a personal recommendation and she fully lived up to our expectation. We were especially impressed with the local knowledge and negotiation which won us the property we wanted.

We will recommend her without hesitation.”

T. Thorn

Best Steak Restaurant — Sundance The Steakhouse

Since its opening in 1974, beef & martinis have never gone out of style at Sundance The Steakhouse, a Palo Alto institution. The atmosphere is very clubby with fireplaces, dark wood, sports memorabilia & plush leather booths tucked into the many nooks throughout the dining room. Famous for their slow-roasted prime rib, they also offer fresh seafood, lobster tail & of course their specially aged prime graded steaks. The menu is supported by extensive award winning wine list making this steakhouse one of the best on the Peninsula. 1921 El Camino Real, Palo Alto, (650) 312-6798; sundancethesteakhouse.com

Hall of Fame for Best Bar/Lounge and Latin American Cuisine — La Bodeguita del Medio

With a name that the business translates to “the little bar in the middle of the block,” La Bodeguita del Medio certainly exceeds expectations. Modeled after an establishment of the same name in Havana, Cuba, La Bodeguita del Medio is known for traditional Cuban fare, a lively atmosphere and, certainly not least, its mojito cocktails. While the original bar was a known hangout of visionaries such as Ernest Hemingway and Pablo Neruda, you’re sure to meet someone interesting over great food and drinks at this California Avenue location. 463 S. California Ave., Palo Alto, (650) 326-7762; labodeguita.com

Best Dentist — Dr. Christine Hansen

The dentistry office of Dr. Christine Hansen and Dr. Roberta Jurash is on a roll, claiming the Dentist category of Best Of for three years running. When we’re talking about something as important and sensitive as one’s pearly whites, that makes a statement. The staff performs a full suite of general, restorative and cosmetic dental procedures and services, working to keep teeth and gums healthy as well as improve their appearance for a confidence boost. Team members work to see patients quickly in emergency situations and are proud to offer comfortable care in a relaxing and tranquil environment. 416 Waverley St., Suite A, Palo Alto, (650) 326-3290; christinehansendds.com

Best American Restaurant, Happy Hour — Menlo Grill Bistro & Bar

The awards for both favorite American restaurant and place for “happy hour” go to the Menlo Grill Bistro & Bar located in the Stanford Park Hotel. The warm and inviting neighborhood restaurant features American comfort dishes prepared with fresh, sustainable and healthy ingredients. Happy hour is offered between 3 and 5 p.m., when the grill offers five drinks that are sold for $5 each, along with shareable food items, also sold for $5. The Grill serves breakfast, lunch, dinner and late night drinks, snacks and desserts. It is one of the only local restaurants to offer late night dining. 100 El Camino Real, Menlo Park, (650) 330-2790; menlogrill.com

Best Casual Dining, Outdoor Dining, Independent Coffee/Tea House, Place to Meet People — Cafe Borrone

Enjoying breakfast, lunch and dinner outside or indoors at Cafe Borrone has been a favorite pastime of area residents for more than 25 years. Marina, Rose and Roy Borrone continue to embrace the cafe community with their passion for people, food and the arts. All dishes are house-made from scratch, from minestrone soup to pappardelle. Their quality of food since ’89 has been rooted in a conscious effort to offer sustainable, local and organic items. Working with local farms is part of the fun! The cafe also runs season art exhibits and hosts jazz and other live music events. 1010 El Camino Real, Menlo Park, (650) 327-0830; cafeborrone.com
