Spent a little over an hour with them. They would like to do a follow up call tomorrow morning from 8 to 10 our time. We agreed to talk about more in depth view of financials, business model going forward and more detail on cre. They want to understand roa versus 99-03 time frame as well. We need to send them a finance document. I walked through select pages of game plan that they did not have.

What do we have that we can send. I can do a call with the group to discuss further. Let me know.
