REI Global LP has been reserved in Delaware. They are going to file the formation docs today if at all possible.

That's all to report for now, will let you know as soon as the entity has been created.

Kevin raised the question about whether it should be formed in NY since it is going to be a partnership, so we will ask the tax team that question and might change course.

Can you send me a quick note on the status of weil's review and set up of "REI Global"

Thx!
