Sophomore Year Checklist (continued)

☐ Take at least one sophomore seminar or dialogue.

☐ Consult the learning specialist at the Center for Teaching and Learning.

☐ Find out about study overseas by visiting web sites or offices of Bing Overseas Studies Program in Sweet Hall (osp.stanford.edu) and the Overseas Resource Center in Bechtel International Center (www.stanford.edu/dept/icenter/orc).

☐ Investigate research by visiting the Undergraduate Advising and Research web site (uar.stanford.edu) or office on the first floor of Sweet Hall.

☐ Take a virtual tour of the Career Development Center at http://cardinalcareers.stanford.edu Meet with a career counselor at the CDC to discuss how the academic major decision relates to careers, to clarify your goals, and to consider summer job options.

☐ Attend the CDC sponsored events: Career Fair – October, Stanford Career Week – January, and Job Connection – May, to meet informally with employers.

☐ Pick up a copy of the CDC’s “Create Your Own Summer Internship” packet.

☐ Join pre-professional e-mail distribution lists at the UAR.

☐ Visit the Haas Public Service Center to find out about Service Learning and Stanford in Washington.

☐ Use the Stanford Career Network to explore majors and careers www.stanfordalumni.org/career/scn/

☐ Complete a four year plan.

☐ Find a mentor.

☐ Start the declaration process.

☐ Find a major advisor.

☐ Finish declaring in your new department.

Undergraduate Advising and Research, First & Fourth Floors, Sweet Hall