

Linguistics 30Q. 5/6/05.

1. Plod on with the reading (from last week): MWDEU entries on agreement; collective nouns; agreement: indefinite pronouns; notional agreement; agreement: organizations considered as collectives; they, their, them; agreement, subject-verb: a bunch of the boys; number 1; one of those who; agreement, subject-verb: compound subjects; as well as; agreement, subject-verb: miscellaneous problems; agreement, subject-verb: one or more, one in (out of) ___; agreement, subject-verb: the principle of proximity; agreement, subject-verb: what-clauses; each; many a; there is, there are.
2. On M 9 May we'll talk (more) about the homework you handed in today.
3. On W 11 May you'll give progress reports on your projects.
4. For F 13 May, turn in a written version of your progress report, saying what phenomenon you are investigating, what's interesting or troublesome about it, and how you are investigating it. For class, be prepared to discuss some of the puzzles of agreement.